UNIVERSITY & ACADEMICS

BYU provides an opportunity for athletes to grow mentally, physically and spiritually. BYU's honor code requires a drug and alcohol-free commitment from its students, helping them to focus on academic and athletic endeavors. Year after year BYU leads the Mountain West in the number of national and conference academic honors.

SCHEDULE & OPPONENTS

BYU traditionally schedules one of the toughest non-conference schedules in the country. In the last 15 years BYU has earned victories over Miami (Fla.), Notre Dame, Oklahoma, Washington, Penn State, Cal, Texas A&M, Virginia, Arizona State and Kansas State. Upcoming opponents include: Florida State, UCLA, Arizona State, Arizona, Notre Dame Washington.

30 YEARS OF CHAMPIONSHIPS

For BYU football, the past 30 years have been packed full of championships, bowl games and national honors. Since 1974 BYU has played in 23 bowl games, won one national championship and 20 conference championships and earned 14 national top-25 finishes, including four top-10 finishes. Cougar football has a long-established tradition of winning.

NATIONAL TV EXPOSURE

With 39 nationally and regionally televised games over the last six years, BYU football is in the spotlight. Thanks to a strong national following, winning tradition, and the Cougars' high-profile schedule in upcoming years, the national exposure of BYU Football is sure to increase. BYU also has four of the top-10 largest audiences in ESPN history.

10 REASONS WHY COUGAR FOOTBALL IS A GREAT CHOICE

BYU–A PLACE FOR WINNERS

BYU is home to 58 All-American honorees, the 1990 Heisman Trophy winner, the 2001 Doak Walker Award winner, four Davey O'Brien Award winners, two Outland Trophy winners, seven Sammy Baugh Trophy winners, and a two-time National Coach of the Year winner. Truly, BYU is a place for winners.

FAN & COMMUNITY SUPPORT

Few universities have a fan base as loyal, dedicated and die-hard as BYU. Cougar fans are some of the greatest fans on earth. Since 1982 BYU has consistently ranked among the top three in attendance in the West (63,810 per game). Thanks to its affiliation with the LDS Church, BYU has a strong national following bringing thousands to away games.

TRADITION & NATIONAL HONORS

Since the 1970s, BYU has established itself as one of the top football programs in the West. The Cougars have won nearly 80 percent of their conference games and 70 percent of all their games since 1972. Off the field, the Cougars have also excelled. BYU has earned 25 Academic All-American citations and has had 13 NCAA post-graduate scholars.

FACILITIES

BYU has invested millions over the past five years to upgrade its football facilities. Upgrades include: a new weight room, indoor practice facility, football offices and team meeting rooms, athletic training facilities, FieldTurf practice field, football hall of fame, and new locker rooms at both 64,000-seat LaVell Edwards Stadium and in the new Student Athlete Building.

PRO FOOTBALL PREPARATION

BYU football is a great place to launch an NFL career. Over the past 20 years BYU has had 61 players taken in the NFL draft, including 31 players over the past 10 years. BYU also has had nine first-round draft picks. Last year 27 former BYU players dotted NFL rosters—that's second most of any team in the West behind USC.

STYLE OF PLAY

Cougar football plays the style of football that fans love to watch and players love to play. Wide-open, fast, furious, high-energy offense and defense are trademarks of BYU football. According to head coach Bronco Mendenhall: "We will continue to have an aggressive defense, along with an up-tempo, high-powered offense. Our goal is to be as exciting and competitive as any team in the country."

STYLE OF PLAY

The Cougars play the style of football that fans love to watch and players love to play. Wide-open, fast, furious, high-energy offense and defense are trademarks of BYU football. According to head coach Bronco Mendenhall: "We will continue to have an aggressive defense, along with an up-tempo, high-powered offense. Our goal is to be as exciting and competitive as any team in the country."

2005 SEASON OVERVIEW

After three straight losing seasons, one might think folks around Provo might be looking for something else to do come September. However, after making tremendous strides to revive a proud heritage, first-year head coach Bronco Mendenhall has BYU faithful counting down the days until the season-opener against Boston College.

Promoted in December after serving the previous two seasons as the defensive coordinator, Mendenhall has orchestrated a nearly complete overhaul of the BYU football program.

With seven offensive and six defensive starters returning, Mendenhall said he has a good feeling about this year's team, and collectively, they're ready for the challenge.

"The team will work with one specific purpose and be unified in that purpose to represent BYU football the way it is suppose to be represented," he said. "I feel great about this group, in terms of the character that they'll bring to this football team. These young men are all hard workers. They are committed to excellence, and passionate about representing BYU."

Shortly after being named the 14th head coach at BYU, Mendenhall went to work on assembling his staff. On the same day he was named head coach, Robert Anae was introduced as the Cougars' new offensive coordinator. Shortly after, former BYU standout and NFL quarterback Brandon Doman was selected as the quarterbacks coach. In early February, Mendenhall completed his staff with the addition of receivers coach Patrick Higgins.

Mendenhall said he is very confident in his new coaching staff.

"Our Staff has been reorganized, in my opinion, to become one of the best in the country," he said.

Mendenhall said he believes in effort and discipline, and that will be the focus for the entire staff. As they get started, Mendenhall said the team goal is to establish one mindset, one expectation and one work ethic.

DEFENSIVE LINE:

Depth and experience are two factors that will make the defensive line a solid anchor for the defense. This year's defensive front will be led by returning starter, junior Mania Brown. Last season Brown recorded 26 tackles and 4.5 sacks. In addition to Brown, Vince Feula, Hala Paongo and Daniel Marquardt, who each shared starting time at nose guard last season, bring experience and depth to the line. Marquardt and Feula combined for 40 tackles last season, including three sacks.

Justin Maddux will compete with Manaia Brown for playing time at left end, while T.J. Sitake and Judd Anderton will battle for the starting position at right end.

Because of the group's combined experience, Mendenhall said he expects the defensive line will be one of the team's strengths, and will play an important leadership role.

LINEBACKER:

One primary objective at linebacker is to find a replacement for all-conference linebacker Brady Poppinga—a difficult task. But, with the likes of Cameron Jensen anchoring the linebacking corps, the Cougars won't have to look far to find a player with the ability to pick up where Poppinga left off.

NATE SOELBERG

GARY LOVELY

CAMERON JENSEN

Jensen started all 11 games at middle linebacker last season. The Bronko Nagurski Award and All-America candidate led the Cougars last season with 103 tackles, including 49 solo tackles.

Aaron Wagner, a junior transfer from Washington State, will compete for the starting job at left-side linebacker along with junior Gary Lovely and returned missionary Bryan Kehl.

Following spring camp, Mendenhall said the battle for the starting job at right side linebacker will be between redshirt freshman Richard Nehring and sophomore Markell Staffieri.

Other players who will figure into the mix include Dan Bates, Justin Williams, Matt Ah You and Paul Walkenhorst. After starting five games last season, then suffering a season-ending injury, Justin Leuttgerodt is expected to compete once again for a starting position at linebacker.

"We have good depth at linebacker," Mendenhall said. "I think the linebackers will be our most athletic position."

SAFETY:

In the 3-3-5 defense, the safeties find themselves with a variety of chores. This season Spencer White comes in with the most experience. Last season he played in all 11 games, recording 50 tackles, two sacks, and two interceptions. Dustin Gabriel also saw playing time in 11 games last season and posted one interception. White is listed as the starter at the left katback position, while Gabriel will look to replace Aaron Francisco at the Cougarback position. Sophomore K.C. Bills will look to secure the right katback position, but will be challenged by redshirt freshman Quinn Gooch.

Mendenhall said the safety position does lack experience, but will have exceptional athletes and will look to new players to add potential depth.

Other players expected to compete for playing time include sophomore David Tafuna and sophomore Adam Nelson.

CORNERBACK:

Much like the safeties, the cornerback position also lacks experienced and is relatively unproven. Although, senior Nate Soelberg is a returning starter, the Cougars lost both Brandon Heaney and Micah Alba to graduation. Soelberg racked up 41 tackles and one interception last season. Kayle Buchanon, who is listed as the starter entering Fall Camp, also saw significant time last season, playing in 11 games as a redshirt freshman.

Senior O'Neil Howell and Chris Hale, who switched from receiver during the off-season, are also listed as players who will contribute, and may battle for a starting position before all is said and done.

With much of last year's recruiting efforts focused on the secondary, Mendenhall said it is likely the newcomers will contribute. The list of newcomers who will battle for playing time include Stephen Covey, Brandon Howard and Justin Robinson.

QUARTERBACK:

Following player evaluations and meeting with the offensive coaching staff after spring camp, Mendenhall named junior John Beck the starting quarterback entering fall camp.

"In a highly contested battle through Spring Camp, John emerged as the most consistent performer throughout the spring evaluation period," Mendenhall said. "For our offense to continue to progress through the summer, I thought it was important to list a starting quarterback for the upcoming workout period. Having said that, I expect the competition for the starting quarterback position will continue through fall camp."

MANAIA BROWN

In the final two scrimmages of the spring season, Beck completed 30-of-44 attempts (.682) for 301 yards. During the Blue-White game, Beck started the game by completing six straight passes for 62 yards to set up a 22-yard field goal. All totaled, Beck finished the final scrimmage with 15 completions on 24 attempts (.625) for a team high 116 yards.

"John's composure, leadership, experience and ability to move the offense in the most consistent manner were the things that gave him the slight edge," Mendenhall said. "At the end of the spring evaluation period, this is where it stands. It's John's position to lose at this point."

Mendenhall said he will not treat the quarterback spot differently than any other position on the team.

"The position, as any other on the team, will continue to be competition-based," he said. "I don't expect Matt Berry or Jason Beck to back off one bit. I expect them to feel that they are capable of earning the starting job, and that they will have an opportunity to battle and take the job with their performance."

Mendenhall added senior quarterback Berry and junior Jason Beck were impressive during Spring Camp, and are both still in the running for the starting job.

Last season Beck took the majority of the snaps for the Cougars. Starting in 10 of the Cougars' 11 games, Beck threw for 2,563 yards and a career-high 15 touchdowns last season. Berry, who also has starting experience, competed in four games last season, posting 228 yards and one touchdown.

RUNNING BACK:

With a veteran stable of running backs, along with the infusion of the high-powered, spread offense, the running back position will play a key role in the Cougars' offense in 2005. Junior Curtis Brown and senior Fahu Tahi might just be the offensive one-two punch that will effectively keep defenders on their heels. Last season, the two backs averaged 102.5 yards per game and scored 11 of the Cougars' 12 rushing touchdowns on the season. Mendenhall said he is excited about the duo.

"Brown and Tahi give us two completely different types of backs, both with unique strengths," he said.

Moa Peaua will see action at fullback, while Ray Hudson, Wayne Latu and Joe Semanoff will look to add depth at running back.

WIDE RECEIVER:

With Austin Collie, the Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year and freshman All-American, having left to serve a Church mission, the Cougars will look to senior Todd Watkins for his usual big-play potential, as well as a host of other talented receivers to propel the new, high-powered offense.

Watkins, an honorable mention All-American in his own right, pulled in 52 receptions for a team high 1,042 yards and six touchdowns last season.

Watkins will be challenged by Brett Cooper and Michael Reed at the X position, while Bryce Mahuika and Nate Meikle will compete for the starting job at the H position.

FAHU TAHI

At the Z position, redshirt sophomore Matt Allen and junior Joe Griffin will battle for the starting job, while junior Zac Collie will look to add depth at the position.

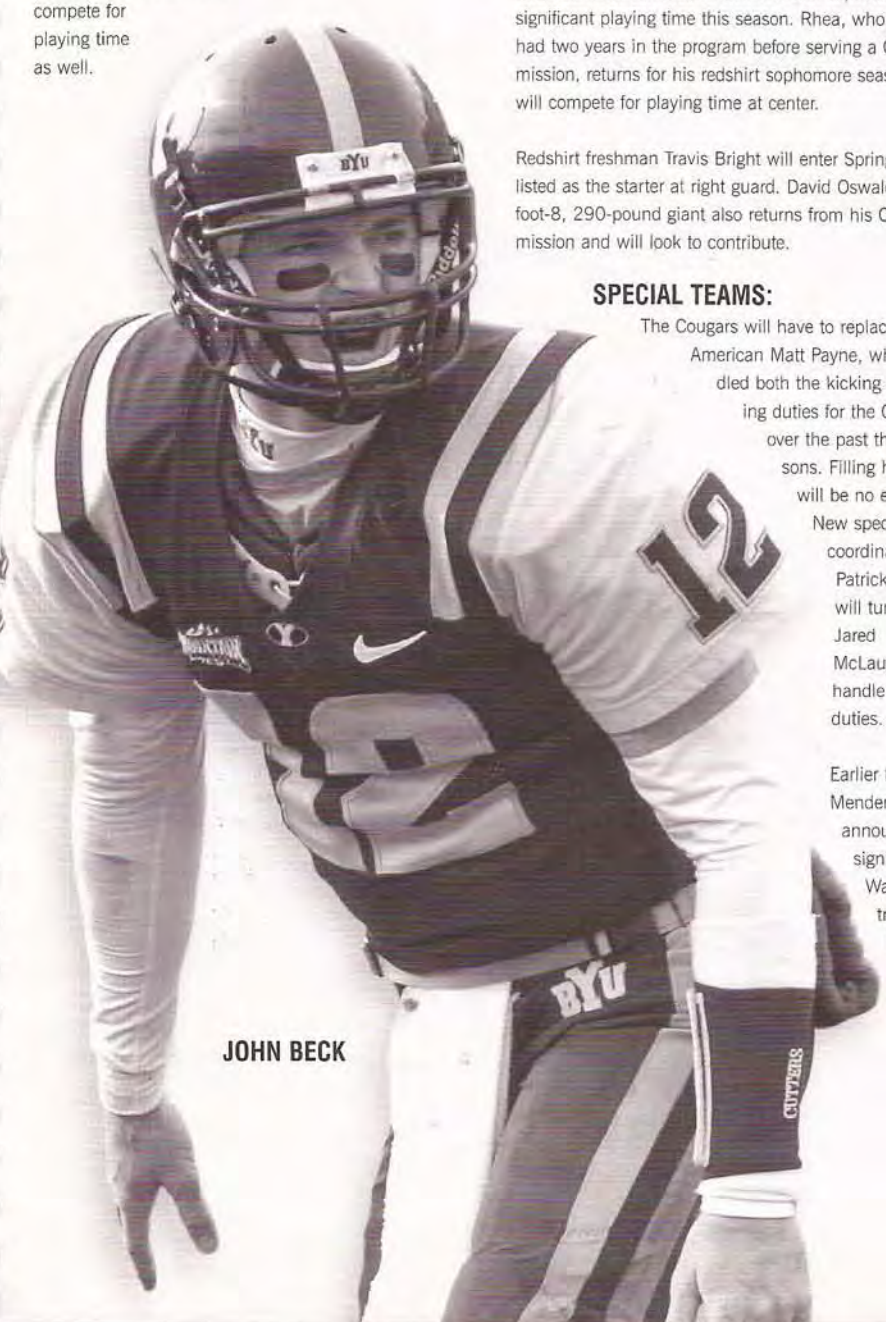
Mendenhall said he feels the receiving crew will be very dependable. He also adds there are some up-and-coming players at the wide receiver position that will add quality depth.

TIGHT END:

The Cougars' new offense has been billed as a tight end's dream. In many formations, the quarterback could be looking at as many as five receivers, and the tight end is often a favorite target.

Sophomore Jonny Harline had a impressive spring camp and will battle veteran Daniel Coats for the starting position at tight end.

After battling injury over the past two seasons, Philip Niu is expected to return and compete for playing time as well.



JOHN BECK

OFFENSIVE LINE:

The offensive line is expected to be one of the primary strengths of the offensive unit. The o-line returns four players with starting experience, as well as a handful of young players who will make an impact this season.

The offensive line will be anchored by Rimington Award candidate Lance Reynolds, Jr. Reynolds, a former linebacker, made the transition before the 2003 season and is now entering his second season as the starter at center. Jake Kuresa, who has played both guard and tackle over the past two seasons, returns after starting all 11 games last seasons at right guard. Brian Sanders will return for his senior season after starting all 11 games at left guard last season as well. Eddie Keele also returns for his junior season and is expected to compete for the starting position at left tackle.

An influx of young talent will help add depth along the offensive line. Redshirt freshman Ray Feinga, along with true freshman Terrence Brown are both expected to see significant playing time this season. Rhea, who played had two years in the program before serving a Church mission, returns for his redshirt sophomore season. He will compete for playing time at center.

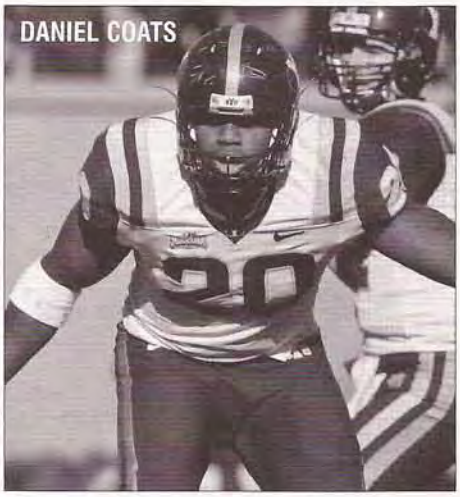
Redshirt freshman Travis Bright will enter Spring Camp listed as the starter at right guard. David Oswald, a 6-foot-8, 290-pound giant also returns from his Church mission and will look to contribute.

SPECIAL TEAMS:

The Cougars will have to replace All-American Matt Payne, who handled both the kicking and punting duties for the Cougars over the past three seasons. Filling his shoes will be no easy task. New special teams coordinator Patrick Higgins will turn to Jared McLaughlin to handle kicking duties.

Earlier this year, Mendenhall announced the signing of Washington transfer Derek McLaughlin who will look to take over punting duties this Fall.

LANCE REYNOLDS



DANIEL COATS

BRYCE MAHUIKA

Bryce Mahuika will be enlisted as the Cougars' top punt return man and will share kick-return duties with Nathan Meikle. Other kick-return candidates include Brett Cooper and Saia Hafoka.

BRONCO MENDENHALL

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY'S 14TH HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

After 16 seasons as an assistant coach, including the past two years as the defensive coordinator for the Cougars, Bronco Mendenhall has been promoted to head football coach at Brigham Young University. Mendenhall becomes the 14th head coach since the University first officially recognized football as an intercollegiate sport in 1922.

"I am humbled by my new responsibilities," Mendenhall said. "This is a great honor and I am determined to return BYU to national prominence. BYU fans can expect leadership from the coaching staff and a team that will play as hard as it possibly can. We will continue to have an aggressive defense, along with an up-tempo, high-powered offense. Our goal is to be as exciting and as competitive as any team in the country."

Mendenhall's promotion was announced by University President Cecil O. Samuelson on Monday, Dec. 13, 2004. He was originally hired as the defensive coordinator at BYU on Dec. 17, 2002, and will continue to call the defense for the Cougars.

"I am excited about what Coach Mendenhall brings to our football team and the University," Samuelson said. "His motivational skills and emphasis on discipline and character will enhance our program. He has earned the respect of his players, his fellow coaches and the University administration. We look forward to cheering on the new coach and his team this fall."

Mendenhall (38)--the second youngest NCAA Division I-A head coach in the country — has served the past two seasons as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach for the Cougars. During his first season in Provo, Mendenhall engineered the nation's 14th-ranked defense, holding opponents to just 307 yards per game. Under Mendenhall's direction, the Cougars ranked eighth nationally in passing defense, giving up just 176.17 yards per game.

"Bronco's leadership ability will focus on enhancing all aspects of our players' lives at BYU," said Athletics Director Tom Holmoe. "His tremendous work ethic and ability to draw on our student-athlete's best potential will give the Cougars a great chance to get back on top."

In 2004, the Cougars ranked third in the Mountain West in rushing defense, allowing 149.3 yards per game. The Cougars also ranked second in the league, with 34 sacks for a combined loss of 232 yards.

"Bronco is an outstanding football coach," Colorado State Head Coach Sonny Lubick said. "I know he will do whatever he can to help BYU's program. He is very familiar with the conference and that is a tremendous asset."

A native of Alpine, Utah, Mendenhall began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1989 at his alma mater, Oregon State. After earning his Master's degree in 1990, he moved to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah where he served as the secondary coach and defensive coordinator from 1991-92 under current BYU assistant coach Paul Tidwell.

Following two seasons with the Badgers, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Northern Arizona, where the Lumberjacks boasted the top-ranked defense in the Big Sky Conference. He was elevated to co-defensive coordinator for the 1994 season.

In 1995, Mendenhall returned to Oregon State to become the defensive line coach under then defensive coordinator Rocky Long. When Long left to become the defensive coordinator at UCLA, Mendenhall was promoted to defensive coordinator for the 1996 season. At just 29 years of age, Mendenhall was the youngest defensive coordinator in Pac-10 history.

In 1997, Mendenhall became the secondary coach at Louisiana Tech where he helped the Bulldogs to a remarkable 9-2 record as his defensive unit was credited with 17 interceptions, allowing just 15 touchdowns on the season.

In 1998, Mendenhall moved to Albuquerque, N.M., to become the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of New Mexico. Over the next five seasons, the Lobos improved from just three wins in 1998 to seven wins and an invitation to the Las Vegas Bowl in 2002. In the Lobos' 27-13 loss to UCLA in the Las Vegas

Bowl, the Mendenhall-led defense held the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards.

Under Mendenhall, the Lobos led the Mountain West Conference in rushing defense for three straight seasons. In 2001, New Mexico gave up just 87.4 yards per game over the season. In his final season in Albuquerque, Mendenhall led the Lobos to a top ranking against league opponents in total defense, allowing just 316.4 yards per game. The Lobos also led the MWC in sacks in both the 2000 and 2002 season, totaling 46 and 38, respectively.

At New Mexico, Mendenhall played a valuable role in the development of the 1999 Mountain West Player of the Year, Consensus All-American and first-round draft pick Brian Urlacher. The ninth overall selection in the 2000 NFL Draft, Urlacher was voted the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year and was a Pro Bowl selection. Urlacher was one of two rookies to play all 16 games, starting at middle linebacker the final 14 games to establish a team record for starts at the position by a rookie. He shattered Bears rookie records with 165 total tackles and eight sacks, making him the second Chicago first-year player to lead the team in tackles. Urlacher finished his career at New Mexico third on New Mexico's all-time list with 442 tackles.

"Bronco is an excellent football coach," New Mexico head coach Rocky Long said. "He is a good choice for BYU because he has all the right qualities that the school is looking for in a head coach. I think he will do a great job."

Following the 2002 season, Mendenhall left UNM to become the defensive coordinator for the Cougars.

"Coming to BYU is a fantastic opportunity for me and my family," Mendenhall said after arriving in Provo in 2002. "I feel a tremendous responsibility to continue the great tradition of BYU football. The goal is for our defense to play an important role in the future success of the BYU football program."

As a player, Mendenhall was a two-year starter at cornerback for Snow College from 1984-85. In his second season, Mendenhall captained the Badgers to a perfect 11-0 record and the NJCAA National Championship. That same season he earned many accolades including first-team all-conference, all-region, second-team NJCAA All-America and JC Gridwire Academic All-America honors.

Mendenhall transferred to Oregon State and was a two-year starter, playing free safety, strong safety and linebacker for the Beavers. Mendenhall was a team captain as a senior and received the Leo Gribkoff Memorial Award, given to the team's most inspirational player.

Mendenhall was raised in Alpine, Utah, and graduated from American Fork High School in 1984. He received a Bachelor's degree in education from Oregon State in 1988 and a Master's degree in education with an emphasis in exercise physiology also from OSU in 1990.

His older brother, Mat, played football at BYU from 1975-79, before spending four years in the NFL with the Washington Redskins. Another brother, Marty, was a former Mr. Utah bodybuilder. Mendenhall's father, Paul, was a defensive end at BYU from 1953-54.

Mendenhall, who resides in Alpine, Utah, is married to the former Holly Johnston of Missoula, Mont. The couple have three sons: Cutter (5), Breaker (3) and Raeder (18 mo.).

Strength & Conditioning

GO COUGARS

Conditioning encompasses all facets of physical performance. From speed and quickness, to cardiovascular endurance and brute strength, BYU's strength and conditioning head coach Jay Omer creates programs designed to increase them all. Training programs are sport-specific and position-specific within each sport, allowing athletes to focus on what they need to succeed in their individual competitive endeavors.

In no sport is the need for strength more evident than in football. Each game, each play, can be decided by who tires first. Week in and week out, players give and take a beating and are expected to come back for more of the same the next week. Less than a year after his arrival in 2001, Omer's subjects were seeing huge returns on their investment. Most players had increased their personal lifts 15-25 percent. Mike Tanner, a linebacker who was bench-pressing 330 pounds when Omer arrived, was lifting 400 at summer's end.

Conditioning also increases the production of athletes as it helps to prevent injury. Although football is a contact sport where injuries are common, proper conditioning can help to avoid major injuries and reduce the recovery time of minor injuries. An athlete in top condition tends to recover faster and be better able to withstand the rigors of physical activity.

Not only does the conditioning program improve each player as an individual, but it also improves the team as a whole. Working and sweating with each other in the weight room helps bring the players together. Seeing each person sacrifice and succeed in the off-season builds a camaraderie that carries over to the field as players work to make each other and the team better.

"He (Omer) has brought us a feeling of team chemistry, working out together and being accountable," said Teag Whiting, a former offensive lineman. "There's nothing we're going to see on the football field this season that's any tougher or harder than we're facing in our workouts. It makes us close."

The results BYU players have realized have come from dedication and sacrifice. It's a time-consuming and often painful process in which athletes push themselves to higher levels of performance, and Omer is there to watch over them the whole time.

"The man is a sadist," said former offensive guard Jason Scukanec, "[but] you find yourself doing it. You find yourself pushing yourself and you don't know why. You don't want to disappoint him because it means something to you and your teammates."

Each fall when the Cougars take the field, they carry with them the hopes of BYU fans across the nation. With each passing week and after every win, those hopes get bigger and weigh more on the players. Arriving at the gym before most people are out of bed and staying until long after most people have gone home for the night, Jay Omer takes those hopes very seriously. It's his job to make sure the players are strong enough to carry those hopes to one more victory, one more title, one more bowl.

"I like to see kids work hard, make something of themselves and improve their abilities. That's the joy of this job. I'm also on the same page with coach Mendenhall. We believe a team can only be successful if it prepares well and has team chemistry. You can have a team of super stars, but I'd rather have a team of less talent that works hard, cares about each other, has team chemistry and will go to war because they believe in each other. That's what it's all about and that's what we're trying to get done here."

Academic Achievement

BYU student-athletes are seeking to excel academically, athletically, and are preparing for life after they graduate. The transition into university life can be challenging for any student. This is especially true for student-athletes who are expected to be good students and outstanding athletes. They are also under obligation to understand and comply with a variety of NCAA rules and regulations in order to be eligible to compete. The Student Athlete Academic Center was created to provide a place where student-athletes can receive support and resources as they pursue their goals.

One of the main priorities of the Center is to assist student-athletes as they transition into the BYU culture and the world of college athletics. Student-athletes are assigned an academic advisor to help them register for classes and monitor their progress toward graduation. The advisor is the contact person for student-athletes who have academic or eligibility questions and concerns. The advisor also helps student-athletes make connections with other campus resources such as the Counseling and Career Center, Multicultural Student Services, University Accessibility Center and College Advisement Centers.

ACADEMIC ADVISEMENT

The main focus of the Student Athlete Academic Center is to help student-athletes graduate on time. To achieve this goal, academic advisement is provided to all student-athletes. Advisors are available to help students-athletes register for classes, monitor athletic eligibility, secure tutorial help, and provide on-going support and encouragement. The academic advisors assist student-athletes by having them set weekly and semester goals, teaching them time management and academic success strategies and helping them communicate effectively with their professors. Advisors also assist the coaching staff in monitoring the day-to-day progress of student-athletes who struggle academically.

TUTORING

Personal tutors are provided for athletes through the Student Athlete Academic Center with funds made available by the Cougar Club. Tutors are hired to tutor multiple subjects. To obtain a tutor, student-athletes may contact their academic advisor.

MENTORS

Mentors are available for any student-athlete through the Student Athlete Academic Center. Incoming freshmen will be assigned a mentor for their first semester. Mentors are most often fifth-year student-athletes or graduate students. Mentors provide time management help, study skills, test taking tips, help adjusting to college, etc. To obtain a mentor, see the academic advisor assigned to your team.

COMMITMENT TO ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

A primary goal of the Student Athlete Academic Center is to ensure that every student-athlete graduates with a Bachelor's degree in their chosen field of study. To achieve this goal, the Center provides a team advisor as part of the comprehensive academic support program. Each athlete has regular visits with his/her team advisor who assists with registration and monitors progress toward graduation. Tutoring is also available for every student-athlete. The Student Athlete Academic Center is conveniently located on the third floor of the new Student Athlete Building.

COMMITMENT TO PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Student Athlete Academic Center personnel are also active in teaching classes designed to promote leadership, emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills. Student-athletes are taught about some of the unique issues they face in the world of college athletics and how to thrive in the university setting and beyond.

COMMITMENT TO CAREER DEVELOPMENT

A career specialist is available to assist student-athletes with a variety of career issues. They receive help in choosing a major, building their resume, establishing a career network and preparing for their transition from college athletics into the world of work. These services are available through individual consultation, workshops, computer programs and University courses. Career exploration and career transition classes are highly recommended to all student-athletes. Internship and employment opportunities are also made available through the Career Network, which is made up of Varsity Club and Cougar Club members.

SERVICES AVAILABLE IN THE STUDENT ATHLETE CENTER INCLUDE:

- Academic Advising
- Career Counseling and Testing
- Community Service Opportunities
- Computer Lab
- Group Study Sessions
- Laptop Computers
- Leadership Opportunities (Cougar Council)
- Mentoring
- Sport Psychology
- Study Facilities

WORLDWIDE, WORLD-CLASS UNIVERSITY

Established in 1875, Brigham Young University provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the ideals and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. With more than 30,000 students gathered from all 50 states, the District of Columbia and more than 120 countries, BYU is the largest privately owned, church-sponsored university in the United States. The university has an additional 2,800 part-time and 1,000 evening students, as well as 2,400 students enrolling at BYU-Hawaii and 10,000 others attending BYU-Idaho. Known for its multicultural and academically-minded student body, its world-class teaching and its beautiful mountain location, BYU is also recognized for its extensive language programs, talented performing arts ensembles, outstanding sports programs and devotion to combining solid scholarship with the principles of the restored gospel of Jesus Christ.

EXCELLENT LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

BYU students benefit from a campus environment ranked above the 90th percentile nationally in being supportive, being academically challenging and fostering active and collaborative learning as measured in the 2004 National Survey of Student Engagement. It's no surprise that our graduates leave BYU with the skills and desire to make meaningful contributions all across the globe. Furthering their education in a highly supportive environment, an impressive number of undergraduates have the chance to become involved in research that enhances their course work. The BYU experience ensures that students are well prepared to pursue advanced degrees, enjoying strong acceptance rates into leading graduate programs. BYU graduates are also highly recruited among top employers.

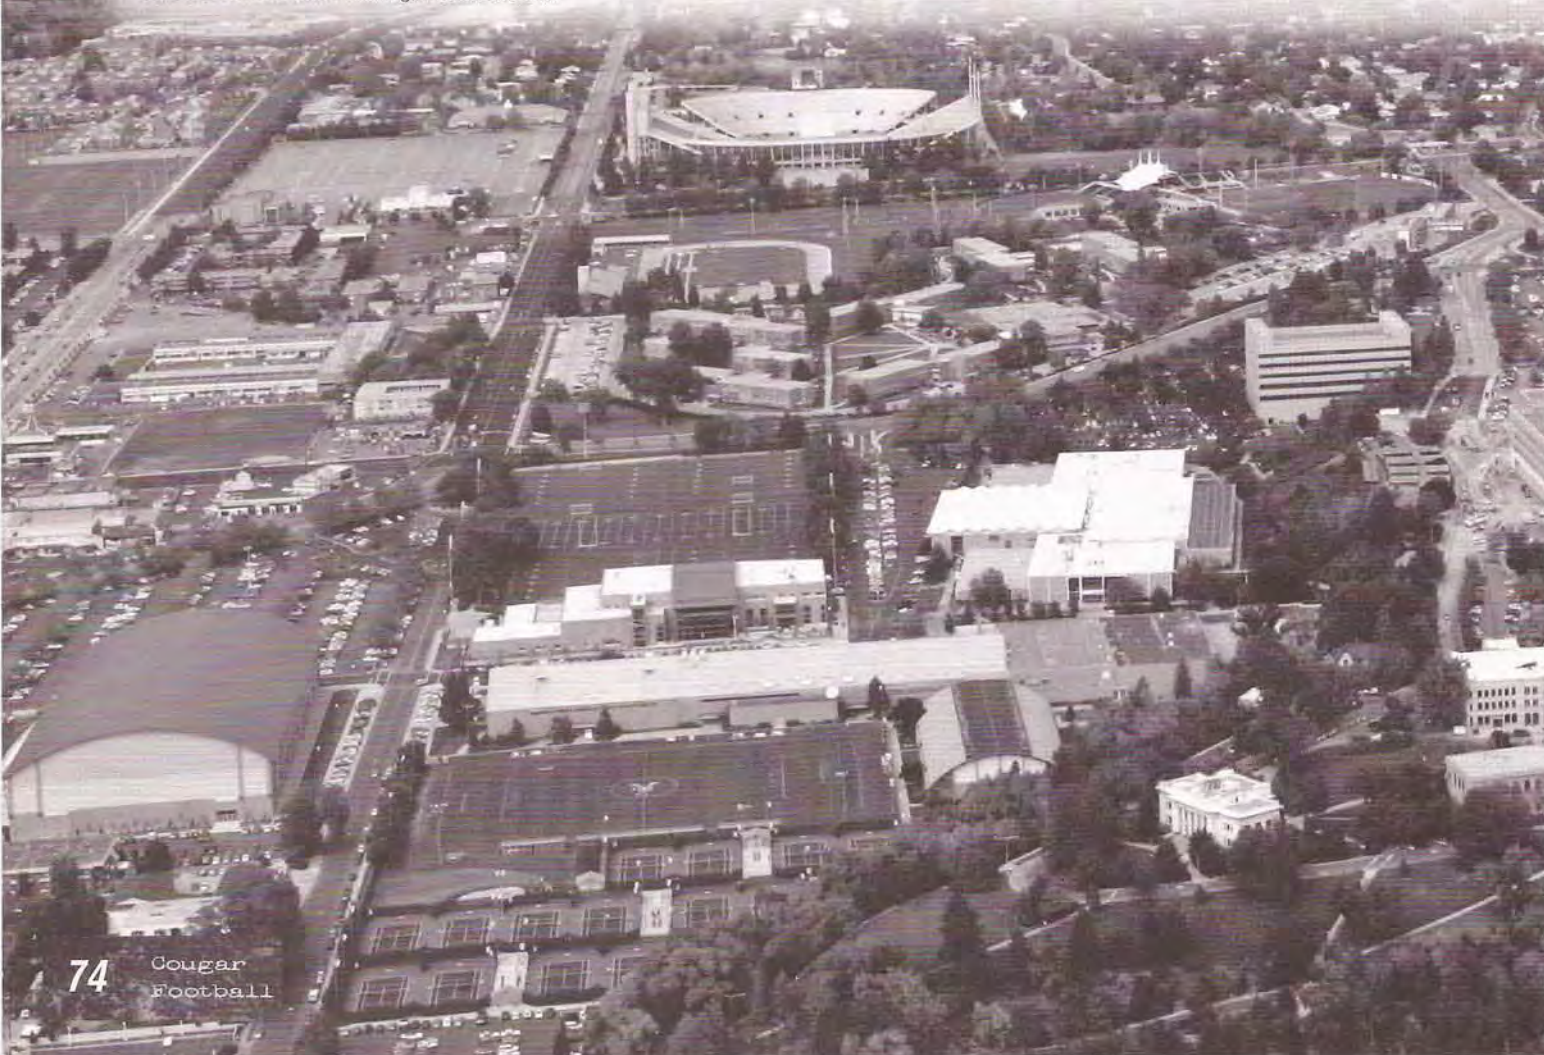
"EDUCATION IS THE POWER TO THINK CLEARLY, THE POWER TO ACT WELL IN THE WORLD'S WORK, AND THE POWER TO APPRECIATE LIFE."

— BRIGHAM YOUNG

This survey also shows that significantly more BYU undergraduates (86 percent) participate "very often" in activities to enhance their spirituality than do undergraduates nationally (18 percent). Also, 74 percent of BYU undergraduates rate their overall education as being "excellent," with the national rate at 33 percent. Consumers Digest ranked BYU as the second-best value in American private education. The Princeton Review awarded the university the top spot in the categories of "great college library" and "stone-cold sober," sixth in "best quality of life" and seventh in "happiest students." And Institutional Research and Evaluation Inc. named BYU the safest campus in the nation for schools of its size.

EXCEPTIONAL ACADEMICS

BYU ranks among the top 20 in National Merit scholars enrolled; among the nation's leaders in National Science Foundation fellowships (and fellows who go on to earn science and engineering doctorates); third among accounting programs; fourth in the number of Advanced Placement examination scores; and among the top 10 percent in nursing programs. BYU students garner distinction as Fullbright scholars, Mellon fellows, and Barry M. Goldwater scholars. The University consistently achieves national recognition. U.S. News & World Report ranks BYU's law and business schools among the top 40 in the United States. In the July 2002 edition of the Chronicle of Higher Education, BYU was recognized as the best in the nation at turning research dollars into inventions and new companies.



A BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS SETTING

BYU is located 45 miles south of Salt Lake City in Provo, Utah, a city of more than 115,000 situated 4,500 feet above sea level. The campus sits at the western base of the Wasatch Mountains, part of the Rocky Mountain Range. Surrounded by mountains, Provo is at the heart of Utah Valley with a combined population of more than 440,000. Utah Valley is framed by the 23-mile-long Utah Lake on the west and 11,750-foot Mount Timpanogos on the east. BYU also has campuses in La'ie, Hawaii (Brigham Young University-Hawaii) and Rexburg, Idaho (Brigham Young University-Idaho) serving an additional 12,000 students. The main campus sits on approximately 600 acres at the foot of the Wasatch Mountains and includes 333 buildings. Additional facilities include the BYU Jerusalem Center, the BYU Salt Lake Center, LDS Business College, and the Missionary Training Centers around the world.

OUTSTANDING STUDENT BODY

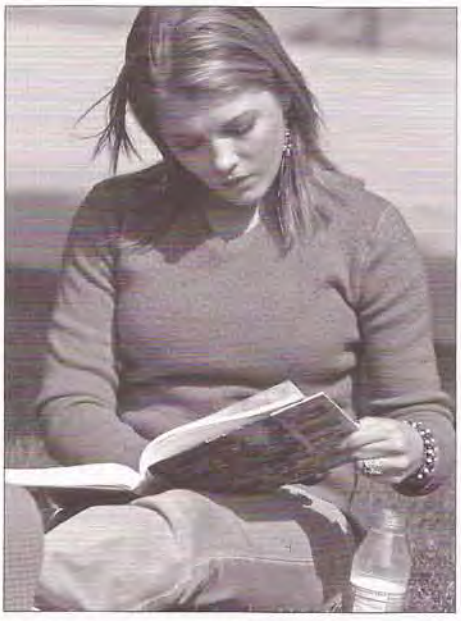
BYU students arrive with superb preparation. The entering class has an average high school GPA of 3.71 (on a 4.0 scale) and an average ACT score that ranks in the 89th percentile nationally. The University consistently places in the top 20 for enrollment of National Merit Scholars. In addition to their academic excellence, students bring and share high values and ideals. Students come to BYU from all 50 states and more than 120 countries, bringing many international cultures and experiences to the campus.

Nearly half of these scholars have lived outside the United States, and three-fourths are fluent in at least two languages. The variety of cultures and backgrounds, coupled with an institutional commitment to the gospel of Jesus Christ, adds to an already rich academic experience that challenges the mind while feeding the spirit.

"THIS INSTITUTION IS UNIQUE. IT IS REMARKABLE. IT IS A CONTINUING EXPERIMENT ON A GREAT PREMISE THAT A LARGE AND COMPLEX UNIVERSITY CAN BE FIRST-CLASS ACADEMICALLY WHILE NURTURING AN ENVIRONMENT OF FAITH IN GOD AND THE PRACTICE OF CHRISTIAN PRINCIPLES."

— Gordon B. Hinckley,

President, Board of Trustees of BYU and LDS Church President



QUALITY PROFESSIONAL PREPARATION

A strong curriculum delivered by outstanding faculty is key to the academic excellence of BYU graduates. From business management to nursing, from the humanities to engineering, the University's 11 colleges — supported by comprehensive offerings from religious education — continue to be internationally recognized for the quality of their education and the professional preparation they provide. In addition to the challenging course work and hands-on research, numerous programs offer academic and service outreach opportunities. Study abroad centers, distance-learning courses, and worldwide performing arts tours are a few of the offerings that enrich BYU's academic experience.

INTERNATIONAL CENTER OF LEARNING

BYU has been selected as a Center for International Business Education Research (CIBER), a program designated to promote the competitiveness of United States business through an integrated international curriculum, faculty and student international research and outreach programs. BYU's David M. Kennedy Center for International Studies provides support to colleges and departments in pursuing their international interests.

BYU runs the largest study abroad program in the United States, with satellite centers in London, Jerusalem, and Paris, as well as more than 20 other sites. The Institute of International Education ranks BYU as the number one university in the US to offer students study abroad opportunities; nearly 2,000 students take advantage of more than 50 BYU study abroad programs yearly. BYU's motto is "The World is Our Campus."

Many factors contribute to the diversity and depth of language expertise at BYU. More than three-fourths of BYU students speak a language other than English—107 languages in all. Six percent of the student body is from outside the United States, representing more than 120 countries. Additionally, 82 percent of the men and 13 percent of the women at BYU have served church missions, which often entails gaining fluency in a second language. The variety of language skills among the student body allows the University to provide a rich forum for language instruction.

Regular classes are offered in 43 languages, with an additional 23 available with sufficient student interest—among the most offered anywhere in the country. The number of enrollments in language courses at BYU equals 31 percent of the student body, compared to the national average of 8 percent. The prior experience of most of the students allows for a higher standard of instruction, using the language to teach other ideas—literature, history, culture—as well as to enhance their opportunities outside the lab and classroom.

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY

Faculty members hold advanced degrees from universities around the world. Their achievements are compelling and broad ranging as they pursue consequential research work that is making a real difference. Alleviating hunger worldwide through more efficient agriculture, finding low-pollution energy alternatives, and making significant contributions to the strengthening of families are among their many pursuits. Faculty members are regularly called upon to head national and international professional organizations and to consult with corporate and governmental entities. Above all, these high-principled men and women share an unmatched devotion to bringing the best possible education to their students.

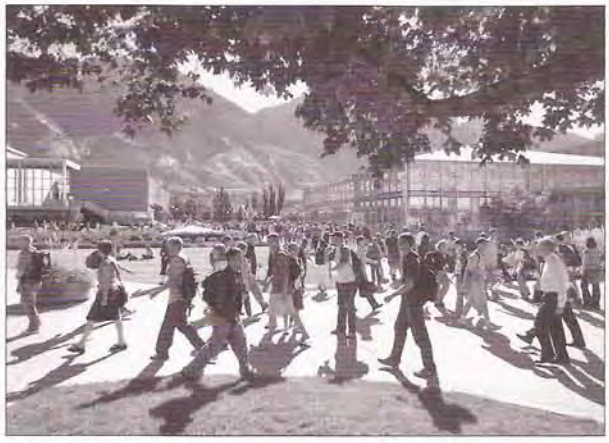
NATIONAL RANKINGS AND RECOGNITION

U.S. News and World Report gave BYU high marks in several categories in its 2005 "America's Best Colleges" issue, ranking BYU in the second tier in the category of "Best National Universities," 25th in the "Great Schools at Great Prices" among national universities with doctoral programs and among the top 10 with the least student-incurred debt.

The J. Reuben Clark Law School was ranked 34th in the 2005 issue of U.S. News & World Report's "Best Graduate Schools." The law school also earned the fourth spot in The Princeton Review's ranking of law schools' "overall academic excellence." The Marriott School of Management's MBA program was ranked 39th in the nation by U.S. News & World Report, fifth among regional schools by The Wall Street Journal, and 49th in the world—moving up 26 spots—by the Financial Times. The Journal also rated the Marriott School second in the national category "best for hiring graduates with ethical standards" and fifth for excellence in accounting. Also rated in U.S. News & World Report's "Best Graduate Schools" 2005 issue, BYU's College of Nursing was 58th among graduate nursing programs, and the University's Ira A. Fulton College of Engineering 81st among graduate engineering programs, with specific graduate programs in mechanical engineering ranking 53rd and in electrical and computer engineering ranking 68th.

BYU'S CODE OF HONOR

BYU exists to provide a university education in an atmosphere consistent with the principles of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. This environment is preserved through adherence to a code of conduct called the Honor Code that reflects those ideals. Initiated by students in 1949, the Honor Code emphasizes being honest, living a chaste and virtuous life, abstaining from alcohol and tobacco, using clean language and other values encompassed in the doctrines of the Church. The code is supplemented by additional guidelines on dress, grooming and housing. Students and faculty are attracted by the opportunity to study and work among those who share their faith and standards. In a survey of BYU alumni, 77 percent cited their desire to "obtain a spiritual, religiously based education" as a very important or extremely important factor in their decision to attend BYU.



In 2004, BYU football had 31 Academic All-MWC honorees—17 more than any other school in the Mountain West Conference.

Cougars on Missions

One of the first questions Bronco Mendenhall was asked after becoming the head coach at BYU was what he thought about the missionary program, and if he felt it helped or hurt the BYU football program.

"Serving missions is what makes this team, this university and the church unique," Mendenhall said. "These unique characteristics are based upon sound principles and values. Why would we not embrace them?"

Of the 105 student-athletes slated to participate in fall camp, 62 (59 percent) have served full-time, two-year missions in a combined total of over 21 different countries around the world, including Australia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Ecuador, England, Germany, Guatemala, Norway, Philippines, Portugal, Russia, Samoa and Tonga—just to name a few.

Brigham Young University is owned and operated by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The missionary emphasis of the Church is perhaps one of its most recognized characteristics.

The Church operates more than 330 missions around the world. A mission covers a geographic area and has a central headquarters. Each is presided over by a mission president who is called from the ranks of the Church membership to serve for a period of three years. The mission president directs the work of the missionaries assigned to his mission.

Approximately 56,000 missionaries, representing the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, are serving proselytizing missions in 330 missions around the world. Seventy-five percent of the Church's proselytizing missionaries are young men between the ages of 19 and 26. A substantial number of young women and older couples also serve proselytizing missions.

Missionaries work long hours—seven days a week for two years, or 18 months for women and couples—teaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ and participating in community service.

In addition, about 5,100 individuals (including couples) are given special service assignments. Health specialists and doctors go to developing countries where the Church's health services program teaches preventive care. Craftsmen, artisans and construction supervisors train members in local building projects. Agricultural experts train people to produce food more effectively and economically. Other mission assignments include education, family history research and leadership training.

The missionaries or their families donate money to the Church to pay for their personal expenses. When his or her assignment is completed, the missionary returns home to pursue vocational, academic or other personal goals.

Aside from their brief orientation at a missionary training center, missionaries receive little formal training for their ministry. Missionary preparation comes primarily from personal study and, in many cases, from examples taught in the home from childhood.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was officially organized on April 6, 1830 with six members. Today, congregations of the Church are found in more than 160 nations and territories. With over 12.2 million members, it is one of the fastest growing religions in the world, and one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is Christian, but is neither Catholic nor Protestant. Rather, it is a restoration of the original church established by Jesus Christ.

The Book of Mormon: Another Testament of Jesus Christ is regarded as divinely inspired scripture, as is the Holy Bible. Both volumes of scripture are used by Latter-day Saints, side by side.

For more information on the beliefs of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, visit www.lds.org.

AMONG THE VERY BEST

BYU's 10 NCAA team championships, 1,026 All-Americans, and 282 conference championships have created a tradition of excellence. The Cougars consistently rank among the nation's top 25 athletic departments in the nation, according to the NACDA Director's Cup standings which measures the overall performance of athletic departments. BYU's 21 athletic teams continually establish themselves among the top teams in the nations.

PRIDE OF THE MOUNTAIN WEST

In the six-year history of the MWC, the Cougars have won 61 of 114 conference championships. That is 54 percent of all championships awarded by the conference—more than all other conference schools combined. In 2000-2001, BYU won all but three conference championships (16 of 19). From 1962 to 1999, BYU also dominated the Western Athletic Conference, winning more championships than any other WAC School. In fact, during the last three decades in the WAC, the Cougars won 60 percent of the WAC Championships—more than all other conference competitors combined. For the third straight season, BYU teams claimed eight MWC Championships during the 2004-05 season.

SEVEN YEARS OF SUCCESS: BYU's 21 athletic teams consistently rank among the best in the nation. Over the past seven years BYU teams have finished their respective seasons ranked in the nation's top 25 on 69 occasions and in the nation's top 10 on 32 different occasions. During that span BYU averages 9.9 top-25 finishes and 4.6 top-10 finishes. BYU has also produced six national champions in the last seven years.

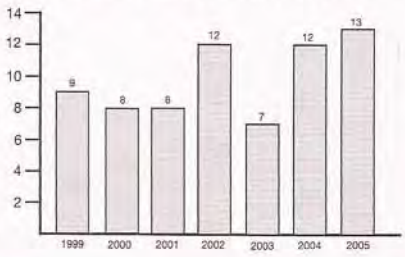
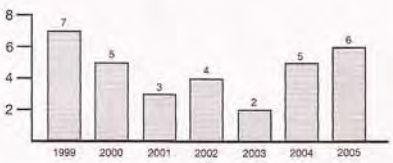
BYU TEAMS IN NATION'S TOP 25



BYU TEAMS IN NATION'S TOP 10



All-American Josh Rohatinsky helped lead BYU's men's cross country team to a fifth-place finish at the 2004 NCAA Cross Country Championship. BYU has finished in the nation's top 20 each of the past four seasons.

BYU baseball led the nation in slugging percentage during the 2005 season with a .545 percentage. The Cougars' were led by batters Jeff Hiestand (above) and All-American Brandon Taylor.

2005 NCAA triple jump champion Rodrigo Mendes (above) and NCAA pole vault champion Robison Pratt led BYU to a fourth-place finish at the 2005 NCAA Track & Field Championship.

For the second consecutive year, BYU's men's golf team finished in the top 10 in the nation. Led by All-American Oscar Alvarez's seventh-place individual finish, BYU placed 4th at the 2005 NCAA Golf Championship.

BYU's women's cross country team has been simply dominating the past decade, winning the national championship in four out of the last seven years (1997, 1999, 2001, 2002) and finishing second in 1998, 2000 and 2003.

All-American first baseman Ianeta Le`i helped BYU upset No. 2 California in the first round of the NCAA Softball Championship. The Cougars finished the season as Mountain West Champions and ranked No. 25 in the nation.

After placing second at the 2005 NCAA West Regional, BYU gymnastics concluded its season at the NCAA Championship where it finished in 11th place. It was the 13th time BYU has finished in the top 20 nationally.

After its second consecutive MWC Championship, BYU just missed a trip to the sweet sixteen and finished the season ranked No. 22. BYU has won 20 women's tennis conference championships in the last 29 years.

PICTURE PERFECT

With its 64,045-seat capacity, huge video scoreboards and immaculate press boxes, LaVell Edwards Stadium is home to legendary BYU football. Since its expansion in 1982, the stadium has consistently ranked among the nation's top 25 in attendance every year. Some of the stadium's well-known features include a box-bowl seating configuration, a grass playing surface and a four-level press box.

THE FIELD

The field is covered with a sand-based natural turf capable of draining eight inches of rain per hour. The well-kept grass field is consistently deemed one of the best in the country.

LAST EXPANSION

As a result of increased seating demands, BYU made yet another renovation in 1982, adding stands to the north and south end zones, lowering the field eight feet and removing the track surrounding the field (which hosted the 1967 and 1975 NCAA Track and Field Championships). The stadium expansion increased the seating capacity to over 65,000. The crowd of 64,253 that gathered for BYU's first game in the expanded stadium on September 25, 1982 was reportedly "the largest gathering ever in Utah history" at the time. In 2003 BYU added a luxury "Club Seating" area to the east stands taking the capacity of Edwards Stadium down to 64,045.

PRESS BOX

In 1982, 1988 and 1997, the Football Writers Association of America cited BYU for its "outstanding press box working area." Rising over 10 stories high, the four-level press box is located on the west side of the stadium and runs the entire length of the stands. Levels one and two of the press box contain 42 private loges, each equipped with 12 padded chairs, a television, radio, telephone, refrigerator, sink and game programs. The BYU President's box, which includes 163 padded chairs, five television sets and a buffet area, is also located on the first floor. Level three is reserved for the print and electronic media along with all the game operators. The statistics, public address, sound and scoreboard controls are all located on the third level. Altogether, approximately 300 people work on the third level during games. Level four is primarily used for television game filming.

VIDEO SCOREBOARD

In 1996, a 23 x 31 foot video scoreboard wall, showing both live action and instant replays, was added above the stands on the south end zone. A new animation board and sound system was also added to the scoreboard above the north stands.

COUGAR ROOM

The BYU Athletic Hall of Fame in the Cougar Club Room is located in Edwards Stadium. The room is used for pre- and post-game activities as well as for meetings and banquets during the year. In addition to the many office areas, Edwards Stadium stores campus surplus furniture and maintenance vehicles.

"YOU GUYS WILL AGREE THAT [LAVELL EDWARDS] STADIUM IS ONE OF THE PRETTIEST SETTINGS OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL. THIS STADIUM IS JUST UNBELIEVABLE."

THE EDWARDS STADIUM EXPERIENCE

Hours before kickoff, fans gather across the street from LaVell Edwards Stadium for food and soft drinks, sharing stories of past football heroics and anticipating another triumphant victory. With the Wasatch Mountains serving as a picturesque backdrop, the stadium is filled with 64,045 of some of the nation's best fans, young and old alike. The BYU marching band entertains the blue and white clad crowd with spirited tunes and the Cougar Fight song, amplified by the voices of BYU fans. The BYU cheerleading squad, Cosmo the BYU mascot, and halftime shows with the Cougarettes, the defending national champion dance team, all help make LaVell Edwards Stadium one of a kind. The offense is high-powered and the fans await the boom of the Army ROTC cannon after every scoring play.

"Probably the loudest and best stadium is whenever things are going good for BYU, and their fans start beating on the metal bleachers. That can be a very tough place to play."

— Air Force head football coach Fisher DeBerry on why Edwards Stadium is one of the toughest places to play in the West.

"Running out of the tunnel before every game ... The first time I ran out, I felt like Rudy. You get the chills, you get the butterflies, you're running with the band and the fans are cheering. That's something that is special. And to be running with your brother is something else that's special and that's something that'll be remembered."

Y MOUNTAIN

Preparations for placing the initials BYU on the mountainside began in April of 1906 when president George H. Brimhall commissioned surveyors for the letters "B," "Y" and "U." The letter "Y" was first laid out to ensure that the initials were properly centered on the mountain. Beginning in the early morning, students formed a line that zigzagged up the mountain. Standing eight feet apart, each student would carry a load up to the next and then return for another.

The project, which many expected to be completed by 10 a.m., lasted until 4 p.m. and only the "Y" was covered. After such a laborious day of work, plans to fill in the other two letters were scrapped. Covered with a thin layer of lime powder, the letter was in need of constant repair. Hoping to make it more permanent, a layer of rock was added in 1907. The next year, 20,000 pounds of sand and cement were carried up the mountain to form a three-foot high wall around the letter to hold it together. Several years later the letter underwent a facelift as the blocks, or serifs, were added to it to give it its current appearance.

A nationally recognized symbol of BYU, Y Mountain is a featured shot of almost every Cougar game broadcast on television. Located about half a mile east of campus and halfway up the mountain, the "Y" looks out over the valley and is one of its most prominent features.

COSMO

The cougar, chosen as BYU's mascot by former coach Eugene L. Roberts in the early 1920s, has undergone a tremendous evolution since its inception to become what is now known as the feline phenomenon of Cosmo the Cougar. Beginning in 1924 when BYU purchased a pair of cougar cubs for 50 cents each to excite BYU fans at athletic events, live cougars prowled the sidelines of BYU games on a regular basis through the late 40s and on special occasions through the 60s.

The original cubs were housed on the south side of campus until 1929 when they managed to break out of their cage, kill two dogs and began stalking livestock on nearby farms. Both were recaptured later the same day. Three weeks later, one cougar died and the other was taken to the old Salt Lake Zoo. BYU procured its mascots from nearby zoos and local bounty hunters but never owned its own cougars again.

Cosmo the Cougar, the brainchild of pep chairman Dwayne Stevenson, made his first official appearance before BYU fans on October 15, 1953. At a cost of 73 dollars for the costume, Daniel T. Gallego, Stevenson's roommate, became the first man under the fur. The name given the big cat was derived from BYU's diverse student body.

"BYU was a very international, cosmopolitan school and that is where we got the name Cosmo," said Gallego.

With over a half-century of service to the BYU community, Cosmo has become an icon of Cougar sports to fans and foes across the country. Through Cosmo's Kids Club and Cosmo's Corner, he is helping raise another generation of BYU fans. Prowling the sidelines for the Cougars, his antics add to the experience of game day at BYU. Cosmo brings out the best of Cougar spirit in fans at athletic competitions both home and away.

THE BEEHIVE BOOT

First instituted in 1971, the Beehive Boot is the symbol of gridiron supremacy in the state of Utah. The idea for the rotating trophy originated with Dave Schulthess, former Sports Information Director (SID) of BYU, and was agreed upon by SIDs from Utah, Utah State and Weber State. As the trophy would represent dominance within the confines of the Beehive State, it was decided that the trophy should be symbolic of the people Utah was built by—the Mormon pioneers.

Finding a suitable pioneer boot for use as a trophy proved to be a difficult task. As pioneers wore their boots until there simply wasn't much left of them, there weren't many pioneer boots lying around. After an arduous search that included numerous personal calls and radio announcements, Tom Beasley, an antique dealer living in Cache Valley donated a pair of boots for use as the trophy. Estimated to be 100 or more years old, the Beehive Boot is an authentic piece of Utah History.

The Beehive Boot has been awarded to the Cougars 19 times since 1971.

Awarded to the team with the best record against in-state opponents, the Beehive Boot lived its first four years at Utah State University. BYU then began a dominant run as it ascended into the realms of football's elite, claiming the Boot 19 times in the past 30 years. Utah has won the boot nine times. The longest streak in the history of the Beehive Boot is a five-year span from 1983 to 1987 by BYU. After a two-year stint in Provo, the Boot currently resides in Salt Lake. The Cougars look to bring it back home this season.

If Utah's teams should end the season with identical records against in-state opponents, a winner is chosen by vote of the in-state media who covered the schools' games. This situation has occurred twice in the history of the boot (1973 and 1997) and Utah State was given the trophy each time.

COUGAR FIGHT SONG

Penned in 1932 by Clyde D. Sandgren, "The Cougar Song" is the anthem of BYU sports. Sung after each touchdown and field goal at football games, its words can frequently be heard ringing out across Utah Valley on Saturday afternoons in the fall. Traditionally, fans remain seated through the verse and then stand, chant and shout through the chorus. Carried by 64,000 voices "The Cougar Song" can be an intimidating musical number to an opposing team as LaVell Edwards Stadium thunders to its tune.

Although written and composed in 1932, the song was not copyrighted and presented to the University until 1947. In addition to "The Cougar Song" Sandgren wrote and composed "The Old 'Y' Bell" which was sung at the dedication of the upper-campus bell tower that housed the Victory Bell before it was moved its current location outside the Marriott Center.

A 1937 graduate of BYU, Sandgren went on to obtain a law degree from St. John's University. He then became a partner of the New York law firm Burroughs and Brown until 1947 when he decided to return to his native Provo to establish his own law practice. Sandgren later served as general counsel and vice president of BYU. Although he passed away in 1989, Sandgren's memory lives on through the voices of Cougar fans across the nation.

The Cougar Song
By Clyde D. Sandgren,1932

Rise all loyal Cougars and hurl your challenge to the foe.
You will fight, day or night, rain or snow.
Loyal, strong, and true
Wear the white and blue.
While we sing, get set to spring.
Come on Cougars it's up to you. Oh!

Rise and shout, the Cougars are out along the trail to fame and glory.
Rise and shout, our cheers will ring out
As you unfold your victr'y story.

On we go, to vanquish the foe for Alma Mater's sons and daughters.
As we join in song, in praise of you, our faith is strong.
We'll raise our colors high in the blue,
And cheer our Cougars of BYU.

THE VICTORY BELL

The original Y bell traveled across the plains with the early pioneers of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and was used to call meetings among the saints and to announce any deaths in the community. Donated to the Brigham Young Academy in 1875, it was used to begin and dismiss classes until it was destroyed in a fire in 1884. The Academy went without a bell for the next 28 years, using instead a variety of instruments as a class bell.

Rung after each BYU victory, the bell was quieted in 1949 after a basketball win over rival Utah. Several overzealous students climbed the tower and vigorously beat upon the bell until it cracked. Repaired with a bronze patch in 1954 by Frank Hemingway, the bell was removed from the education building and mounted on a trailer so it could travel with BYU's teams to away games.

Its mobility proved its downfall as it was stolen in 1958 to be found six months later in nearby Springville. The theft prompted the construction of a bell tower on BYU's upper-campus overlooking the Smith Fieldhouse. Dedicated in 1959, the tower served well until 1973 when the bell fell while ringing in the dedication of the Marriott Center. The supporting yoke above the bell was broken and the bell shattered. The bell was soon repaired by Ray Mortenson of the BYU Maintenance shop using electric welding—miraculously maintaining its previous tone—and was remounted in the tower.

In 1978, the bell was moved to its current home on the southwest corner of the Marriott Center. The open arch tower was designed by BYU landscape architect Boyd Dawler and is made of the same cast stone as the exterior pillars of the Marriott Center. Although the old bell tower above the Smith Fieldhouse no longer stands, the massive steel I-beams that supported the tower have now been converted into the strongest park benches in the Intermountain West.

Over the years the ringing of the bell has come to represent honor, achievement and spirit, and has inspired several poems and songs from BYU faculty and alumni. Clyde D. Sandgren, who composed the Cougar Fight Song, penned a verse that was sung at the dedication of the upper-campus bell tower. As BYU victories have become more and more commonplace in recent decades, the ringing of the "Y bell" after each win has renamed it the "Victory Bell."

CECIL SAMUELSON
University President

Cecil O. Samuelson began his work as the 12th president of Brigham Young University on May 1, 2003.

Dr. Samuelson is a Salt Lake City native who served at the University of Utah as professor of medicine, dean of the School of Medicine and vice president of health sciences. Prior to his call as a full-time General Authority of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, he was senior vice president of Intermountain Health Care. He holds a bachelor of science degree, a master's degree in educational psychology and a medical degree from the University of Utah.

He fulfilled his residency and held a fellowship in rheumatic and genetic diseases at Duke University Medical Center in Durham, North Carolina. He has received numerous scholastic honors and is the author or co-author of 48 original publications, eight books or chapters of books and 13 abstracts. He also has served as a director, officer or member of several national medical and hospital organizations.

Dr. Samuelson was called in 1994 to serve the Church of Jesus Christ as a member of the First Quorum of the Seventy. At the time of his assignment to BYU, he was a member of the Presidency of the Seventy. He has served the Church of Jesus Christ also as a regional representative, stake president, stake high councilor, branch president and missionary. He has served as president of two areas of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints: the Utah North Area and the Europe North Area.

He and his wife, Sharon Glauque Samuelson, have five children and five grandchildren.

K. FRED SKOUSEN
Advancement Vice President

Dr. K. Fred Skousen is in his sixth year as advancement vice president of Brigham Young University. Previously, he was Dean of the Marriott School of Management and Director of the School of Accountancy at BYU. He earned a Bachelor's degree from BYU and Masters and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Illinois.

Dr. Skousen has been a consultant to the Financial Executive Research Foundation, the Controller General of the United States, the Federal Trade Commission and to several large companies. During the summer of 1969, he was a Faculty Resident on the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington, D.C. During the summer of 1973, he was a Faculty Fellow with Price Waterhouse & Co., in Los Angeles. Dr. Skousen currently serves on the board of directors of several corporations.

Dr. Skousen taught at the University of Illinois and the University of Minnesota prior to joining the faculty at BYU. Professor Skousen was appointed to a nine-member National Commission on Professional Accounting Education in 1982. Dr. Skousen held the J. Willard and Alice S. Marriott Chair of Management at BYU from 1989-1998. Dr. Skousen is the author or co-author of more than 50 articles, research reports and books, including: "An Introduction to the SEC," "Intermediate Accounting," "Accounting: Concepts and Applications," and "Financial Accounting." Fred and his wife, Julie, have five sons, one daughter and 20 grandchildren.

TOM HOLMOE
Athletics Director

On March 1, 2005, President Cecil O. Samuelson announced the appointment of Tom Holmoe as Director of Athletics at Brigham Young University. Holmoe is the 12th athletics director in school history and the first to oversee both the men's and women's sports programs.

A former Cougar defensive back from 1978-82, Holmoe returned to BYU in July 2001 as Associate Athletic Director of Development. As part of his responsibilities, he supervised the Cougar Club, served as the department's liaison with the LDS Foundation and worked on the capital campaign to raise funds for the University's new athletic facilities. Holmoe took over an athletic department that was consolidated from separate men's and women's programs in September 2004. For nearly six months until his appointment, Holmoe served as co-chair of a transitional team given the responsibility of merging the two athletic programs – including 21 athletic teams – into one organizational structure.

A native of La Crescenta, Calif., Holmoe came to BYU on a football scholarship in 1978. He became a starter as a sophomore in 1980 and led the Western Athletic Conference with seven interceptions. Holmoe went on to earn first-team Western Athletic Conference honors as a senior in 1982 and was selected in the fourth round of the 1983 NFL draft by the San Francisco 49ers. During his five years at BYU, the Cougars won five straight WAC titles. In his seven-year NFL career, Holmoe played on three Super Bowl teams with the San Francisco 49ers in 1984, 1988 and 1989. In addition, he won a fourth title as the 49ers secondary coach in 1994.

After retiring from pro football, Holmoe entered the coaching ranks, returning to BYU to serve as a graduate assistant under LaVell Edwards in 1990 and 1991. Holmoe then accepted an offer from Bill Walsh to become the Stanford secondary coach in 1992, where he remained for two seasons. The Cardinal was PAC-10 tri-champions in 1992 with a 10-3 overall record, including a win over Penn State in the Blockbuster Bowl. In 1994, Holmoe returned to the 49ers, serving as George Seifert's defensive backfield coach for two seasons. Two years later in 1996, Holmoe joined the University of California staff as defensive coordinator under Steve Mariucci. Following Mariucci's departure to the NFL, Holmoe assumed duties as head coach of the Golden Bears' football program from 1997 until resigning after the 2001 season.

Holmoe graduated from BYU with a degree in zoology in 1983 and received a Master's degree from BYU in athletic administration in 1995. He and his wife, Lori, live in Provo with their four children.

THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West Conference has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MWC continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its seventh year, the MWC has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West Conference is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West Conference boundaries, including the unparalleled Rocky Mountain range, which borders four MWC schools (Utah, BYU, Air Force and Colorado State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet - the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert city of Las Vegas (the fastest growing metropolitan area in the West), the Pacific Ocean locale of San Diego State and the southwestern flavor of New Mexico and Texas. The Mountain West Conference was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions - Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming - decided to form a new NCAA Division IA intercollegiate athletic conference.

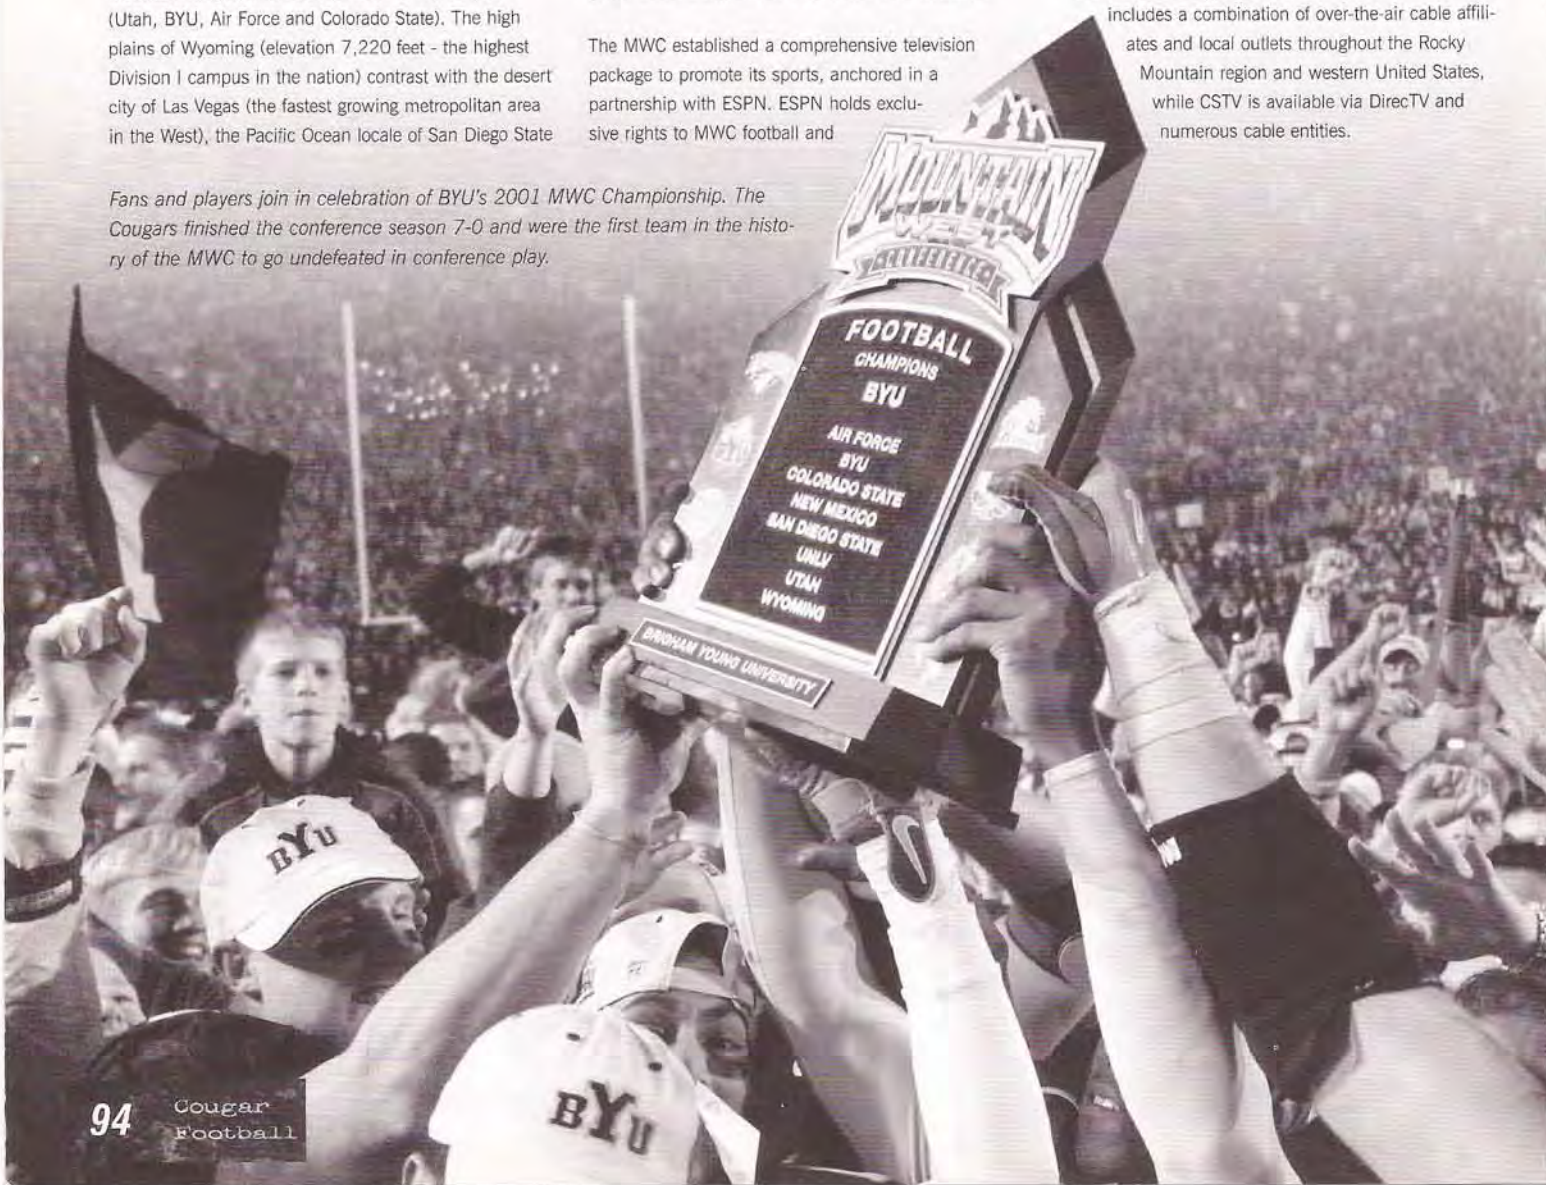
The split from the former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long standing athletic rivalries. Five of the MWC's eight members have been conference rivals since the 1960's (BYU, Utah, New Mexico, Wyoming, Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longstanding members as well. UNLV entered the fold in 1996, and TCU in 2005.

The MWC established a comprehensive television package to promote its sports, anchored in a partnership with ESPN. ESPN holds exclusive rights to MWC football and men's basketball, distributing the league's football and men's basketball games through ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication via ESPN Regional Television. MWC men's basketball is also featured in ESPN's Big Monday lineup.

Through the league's first five years, excluding institutional local packages, 423 football, volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball events have aired on television, with 95 football games and over 85 men's basketball contests broadcast nationally.

With the advent of MWC Television Network, the in-house production entity of the MWC and the league's partnership with College Sports Television (CSTV), the MWC assured itself of a wide-range of television exposure for various Olympic sports. The MWC-TV Network includes a combination of over-the-air cable affiliates and local outlets throughout the Rocky Mountain region and western United States, while CSTV is available via DirecTV and numerous cable entities.

Fans and players join in celebration of BYU's 2001 MWC Championship. The Cougars finished the conference season 7-0 and were the first team in the history of the MWC to go undefeated in conference play.



WINS AGAINST BCS OPPONENTS

With eight wins vs. automatic-qualifying BCS conference teams in 2004, the MWC ranked tied for third among the 11 Division I-A leagues in non-conference wins against BCS opponents.

The Mountain West Conference is made up of nine Universities from seven Western states. TCU was added to the conference on 2005.

RETURNING STARTERS

Wyoming leads the MWC with 19 returning starters heading into the 2005 season, including nine on offense. Below is a breakdown of key returnees.

	Total	Off.	Def.	Spec.
Air Force	14	7	5	2
BYU	13	7	5	1
Colorado State	18	10	8	0
New Mexico	17	9	6	2

Wyoming	19	9	8	2

COUGARS LEAD MWC IN HOME ATTENDANCE

BYU, which boasts the largest on-campus home stadium in the Mountain West Conference, has led the MWC in home attendance in all five years of the league's existence, averaging 61,401 fans per game since the 1999 season. In fact, Edwards Stadium has been the site of the league's all-time top-seven crowds.

MWC CAPTURES 2004 BOWL CHALLENGE CUP

The Mountain West Conference posted a 2-1 record (.667) during the 2004 bowl season to lead all conferences in bowl-game win percentage. The MWC will receive the ESPN Bowl Challenge Cup, sponsored by Cooper Tire, as a result of the nation's best bowl-game win percentage. The MWC finished ahead of Conference USA and the Pac-10 who both had a .600 winning percentage while the Big 12 finished with a .571 percentage and the ACC, Big 10, SEC, and WAC all had .500 winning percentages.

MWC COACHES

Air Force head coach Fisher DeBerry carries the torch in terms of longevity in the Mountain West Conference. DeBerry has coached 20 seasons at the Academy, followed by Colorado State's Sonny Lubick with 11 seasons under his belt in Fort Collins. Rocky Long of New Mexico is third on the list as he enters the eighth season at the helm of his alma mater. TCU enters the MWC fold in 2005 with head coach Gary Patterson in charge of the Horned Frogs for each of the last three seasons. Patterson ranks tied for fourth in terms of longevity with San Diego State's Tom Craft, who has been at his alma mater since 2002. Wyoming's Joe Glenn rounds out the list of returning coaches as he enters his third campaign in Laramie.

The MWC welcomes three first-year coaches this season in Bronco Mendenhall of BYU, Mike Sanford of UNLV and Utah's Kyle Whittingham. The three new coaches have strong ties to the MWC having served in a coordinator position at a respective conference institution prior to being named head coach. Mendenhall and Whittingham didn't have to worry about moving expenses after both were promoted to head coach from their defensive coordinator positions at BYU and Utah, respectively. Sanford served as offensive coordinator at Utah in 2004 before taking the helm at UNLV in December.

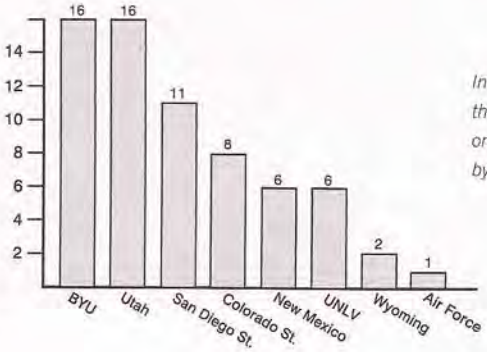
MWC REGULAR SEASON TITLES

(does not include football)



In the six year history of the Mountain West Conference, the Cougars have won 61 of 114 conference championships. That's 54 percent of all championships awarded by the conference—more than all other schools combined.

POINSETTIA BOWL

The NCAA's newest bowl–the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl–will match a team from the Mountain West Conference against an at-large opponent. A 7pm kickoff is set for this year's inaugural game that will be played on Thursday, December 22 at Qualcomm Stadium. The Poinsettia Bowl was established by the organizers of the Holiday Bowl.

LAS VEGAS BOWL

The Pac-10 and the Mountain West meet in the "Entertainment Capital of the World" Las Vegas on December 22 at Sam Boyd Stadium. Last year, Wyoming rallied to beat UCLA 24-21 in the 13th annual Las Vegas Bowl. The win improved the Mountain West Conference to 4-2 in the Las Vegas Bowl since the league was formed.

EMERALD BOWL

The three-year old Emerald Bowl will also bring the Pac-10 and the Mountain West Conference together in a head-to-head battle at SBC Park in San Francisco. The Diamond Nut Company will continue as the game's title sponsor, extending its contract for an additional three years. Air Force won the inaugural Emerald Bowl in 2002, but the Mountain West has lost the last two bowl games.

THE MWC AND THE BCS

Currently the MWC champion must finish sixth or higher in the BCS standings in order to qualify for a BCS bowl game. In 2004 Utah became the first non-automatic qualifying school to compete in a BCS bowl game in 2004 - the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. Last year, Utah finished sixth in the BCS standings – ahead of the champions of the Big East, Big Ten and ACC. BYU is the only school outside the present BCS automatic qualifiers to win a National Championship (1984), in the last 21 years. MWC champions boast a 14-4 record (.778) against respective non-conference automatic qualifying BCS conferences in the past six years. Only the Big 12 (8-2; .800) has a better win percentage than the MWC, while the Pac-10 is the only conference with more victories (17).

It all started on October 14, 1922. Well, according to BYU, anyway. Utah claims the first meeting between the schools was on April 6, 1896, when BYU was still Brigham Young Academy.

It's just one of many things the two schools don't agree on. The Academy played Utah six times between 1896 and 1898, before Provo could officially boast its own full-fledged university. Each team won three games.

The Cougars and the Utes have built a strong tradition of intense competition in the 83 years of the rivalry. With the exception of the war years from 1943-45, the two schools have faced each other every year since 1922.

The Utes dominated the series early on, avoiding defeat until 1942, when the Cougars finally won, 12-7, in Salt Lake City behind Coach Floyd Millet. The success was short-lived, however, as it took BYU another 16 years to win another contest, 14-7, again in Salt Lake City in 1958. In all, Utah won 34 of the first 40 contests, four of which were ties.

In 1965, the momentum began to turn in BYU's favor. The Cougars took three in a row from the Utes from 1965-67, and although Utah won the next four, the competition had become much more interesting.

In 1972, the series took on an entirely different feeling with the arrival of LaVell Edwards as BYU's new head coach. He took on a program that had gone 5-38-4 (.149) against its fiercest rival and proceeded to post a 22-7 (.757) record against Utah in 29 years, including wins in 15 of his first 16 meetings with the Utes. In the Edwards era, the Cougars outscored the Utes an average of 34.9 to 20.9 per contest. Coach Edwards' career included winning streaks of nine (1979-87) and six (1972-77) games against Utah.

The annual showdown generates considerable interest throughout the state, making it a virtual certainty that whatever stadium the teams play in will be sold out well in advance. In all, seven of Utah's top ten home crowds before the expansion of Rice-Eccles Stadium were for games against BYU.

Meanwhile, 45 miles south in Provo, the grudge match has accounted for five of the 20 largest crowds in the history of LaVell Edwards Stadium.

One of the more memorable moments in the rivalry was the 1989 contest in which the Cougars pasted the Utes, 70-31, in Provo. It was a game in which the home team scored touchdowns in each of its first seven possessions and in all eight with Ty Detmer as quarterback. In a move of mercy, Detmer was replaced by backup Sean Covey late in the second quarter.

BRANDON DOMAN, 2000

In 2000 the Cougars led throughout the game only to fall behind 26-27 on a Matt Nickel TD reception with 2 minutes to play. Behind the heart of Brandon Doman and a little fate, BYU converted on a 4th down conversion with less than a minute to play. Then Doman connected with senior Jonathan Pittman along the sideline before Luke Staley took the ball inside Utah's 10-yard line. From there Doman scored with 23 seconds remaining on a quarterback sweep right to give BYU the miraculous come-from-behind victory (photo above).

Then there were the infamous back-to-back, 34-31, losses at the hands of the Utes in 1993 and 1994, giving rebirth to a rivalry that had become ridiculously lopsided in the 80s and early 90s. In all, the Utes won three in a row (1993-95) under coach Ron McBride.

The Cougars responded to the new aggression in 1996 with a dominating, 37-17, victory in Salt Lake City. BYU employed an extremely unconventional approach, gaining 376 yards in 63 attempts on the ground and attempting only 12 passes.

In 1998, a well-placed ESPN microphone picked up an audible "clank" as the potential game-winning kick bounced off the right goal post, allowing BYU to escape with a, 26-24, victory — despite Ron McBride's sideline prayer, as captured on national television.

BYU let the Utes back into the game after having seemingly put the game away in the fourth quarter, allowing Utah to set up a 32-yard field goal to win the game. BYU fans gave credit to divine intervention as the chip shot mysteriously hooked to the right at the last possible moment.

In 2000 LaVell Edwards worked his magic for the last time as Brandon Doman's touchdown with 23 seconds remaining finished an amazing last minute comeback to send the legendary BYU coach out a winner.

Provo has been much more friendly to the Cougars over the years, as BYU has posted a 13-16-1 record overall at home but has only managed a 15-31-3 record on the road against the Utes. Lately home field advantage seems to have become less of a factor, as the Utes won three straight at Edwards Stadium (1995, '97, '99) and the Cougars won three in a row in Salt Lake City (1996, 1998, 2000).

In 2001, BYU changed the trend in a miraculous, come-from-behind victory in Provo. With less than four minutes left in the game and down 11 points, BYU's hopes for a perfect season seemed dim. But Luke Staley scored two touchdowns in just over two minutes to erase the deficit and give the Cougars the 24-21 victory. The game was far from over after Staley's 30-yard touchdown. Lance Rice led Utah on a final drive in the last minute. Rice converted a key fourth-and-10 with a trick play, advancing the ball to the BYU 30-yard line. But on the very next play, Jernaro Gilford stepped in front of a Rice pass and intercepted the ball to seal the game

In 2002 Utah beat the Cougars for the first time since 1994 in Salt Lake. The 13-6 Ute victory was not without controversy. BYU quarterback Lance Pendleton was stripped of the football on the goal line, but replays later showed that his knee was down before the strip

In 2003 BYU held Utah to just three points on a snowy day in Provo. Only problem was, BYU was without offensive threat Reynaldo Brathwaite and its top quarterbacks. BYU's offense sputtered and the Utes gave BYU its first shutout since 1975 (Ending an NCAA record 361 consecutive games without a shutout). Meanwhile the win also gave Utah its first outright league championship since 1957. In 2004 BYU trailed by seven at halftime against the fifth-ranked Utes only to let turnovers help the Utes go on to post a 52-21 victory in Salt Lake City.

"I think people from the South and from the Midwest ought to see this. This is a big-time football rivalry."

— Bill Curry, ESPN College Football Analyst

The BYU vs. Utah rivalry has become one of the most-heated and most-anticipated match-ups in the nation. The Utes and the Cougars have met 79 times since 1922. Utah dominated the rivalry until 1965 when the Cougars began to hold the advantage over the Utes. Since 1965 BYU is 26-14 against the Utes. Except for 2004, the last seven meetings in this rivalry have been decided by seven points or less including two last-minute comebacks by BYU in 2000 and 2001.

BYU has won two out of the last three games against the Irish including last year's season-opening thriller on ESPN where BYU's defense limited Notre Dame to just one offensive touchdown. Todd Watkins came up with several big catches for the Cougars including a 37-yard grab in the fourth quarter that sealed the game.

2004 SEASON REVIEW

The Cougars entered the 2004 season coming off two straight losing seasons for the first time since the Nixon administration. During the 2003 campaign, BYU struggled offensively. They averaged just 314.6 total yards per game, including a paltry 215 yards passing, while scoring only 16.3 points per game.

The coaching staff looked to beef up the offense during the off-season. They landed 14 offensive players, including seven receivers. Among those were Junior College All-American Todd Watkins and highly-recruited prep standout Austin Collie.

Watkins and Collie made an impact on the Cougars almost immediately. In the first game against Notre Dame, Watkins caught a 50-yard pass from John Beck to set up BYU's first touchdown of the season. Collie on the other hand, caught a game-winning, 42-yard touchdown pass from back-up quarterback Matt Berry

Watkins and Collie combined for eight catches for 169 yards and one touchdown as the Cougars exacted revenge on the Irish for a loss in 2003 in South Bend.

The Cougars struggled over their next three games, however, dropping their next three non-conference games against Stanford and Boise State on the road and eventual national champion USC at home.

Following injuries to Beck and Berry, BYU was forced to use third-string quarterback Jason Beck in the loss to Stanford. Jason Beck played well in his college debut, throwing for 232 yards, but he couldn't match Stanford quarterback Trent Edwards who threw for 297 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Cardinal to a 37-10 victory.

The following week against the Trojans, BYU kept the game close for the first half before top-ranked USC pulled away for an easy 42-10 victory. One bright spot for the Cougars was Watkins' first touchdown of the season, a 69-yard bomb from John Beck, on BYU's first play of the second half.

The competition didn't get any easier in the Cougars' next game when they faced off against nationally ranked Boise State which came into the game riding a nation's-best 14-game winning streak in a game that came down to the wire.

Trailing by just one point with 19 seconds left in the game, the usually sure-footed Matt Payne entered the game to attempt the game-winning 37-yard field goal, but he pushed the ball to the left as BYU lost 28-27.

Despite the loss, John Beck put together his best game as a collegian, throwing for 390 yards and two touchdowns, including a 79-yarder to Todd Watkins, who finished the game with nine receptions for 211 yards.

The Cougars entered MWC play with a 1-3 record, needing to win five of their final seven games to become bowl eligible. They began their quest for the MWC title with a game against Colorado State in Fort Collins—a place BYU had not won since 1995.

Behind the running of Fahu Tahi and Curtis Brown, who combined for 191 yards and three touchdowns, BYU picked up a much-needed 31-21 victory to open conference play.

Brown followed up his excellent game against the Rams with his first 100-yard performance since Utah State in 2002. Brown finished the game with 102 yards on just eight carries, but it wasn't enough as BYU fell to UNLV, 24-20.

The Cougars rebounded the following week against Wyoming, defeating the Cowboys 24-13. Brown continued his dominance during MWC play as the sophomore rushed for 159 yards and another score.

BYU hit the road again to take on the Air Force Academy. The Falcons took an early 10-3 lead going into halftime before the Cougars exploded for a season-high 38 points in the second half.

John Beck and Brown led the Cougars back with Beck throwing for 319 yards and four touchdowns, including an 80-yard strike to Watkins. Brown finished the game with 128 yards to record his third-straight 100-yard game.

The Cougars offense continued to roll when they faced off against San Diego State. BYU racked up a season-high 49 points en route to a 49-16 victory. Senior place kicker Matt Payne connected on three field goals in the game, including two from beyond 40 yards, which extended his NCAA record of consecutive made field goals from 40-49 yards to 14.

Payne's streak was snapped the following week when he missed a 43-yarder in the second quarter against New Mexico. Prior to the miss, Payne gave the Cougars an early 7-0 lead over the Lobos, when he hit Riley Weber for a 12-yard touchdown pass on a fake field goal. But New Mexico proved too much for the Cougars as the Lobos earned a 21-14 victory.

Entering the final game of the season against Utah, BYU needed a victory to earn its first winning season since 2001 and remain bowl eligible.

The Cougars kept the game close early, trailing by only seven points going into the second half. But the Utes outscored BYU 31-7 in the second half to hand the Cougars their sixth loss of the season.

Despite recording its third-straight losing season, there were plenty of bright spots for BYU in 2004.

The tandem of Watkins and Collie combined for 1,813 yards and 14 touchdowns. For his effort, Collie was named MWC Freshman of the Year and earned Freshman All-America honors from TSN. Both were named to the All-MWC team with Watkins garnering first-team honors and Collie being named to the second team. Also named to the All-MWC first team were Brady Poppinga, Aaron Francisco and Payne.

Besides All-MWC honors, Payne was a semi-finalist for the Lou Groza and Ray Guy awards and was named to several All-America teams.

Although the Cougars didn't get all of the results they were looking for in 2004, they were able to build a solid foundation for the future.

It didn't take Freshman All-American Austin Collie long before he showed his offensive prowess. In the season opener on ESPN, against Notre Dame, Collie made an athletic 42-yard touchdown grab in the third quarter. Collie caught the Matt Berry pass in stride and BYU's defense shut down the Notre Dame offense as the Cougars pulled out the victory.

BYU VS. NOTRE DAME GAME RECAP

A few big offensive plays, a suffocating defense and tough special teams play were just enough for the Cougars to defeat Notre Dame 20-17 in the season opener and keep coach Gary Crowton's perfect home opening record intact. Receiver Todd Watkins, playing in his first game for BYU, had five receptions for 115 yards, including key catches of 50 and 37 yards. Austin Collie, another first-year receiver, caught three passes for 54 yards and a touchdown, BYU's final score, which also proved to be the difference in the game.

The Cougars jumped out to an early 13-0 lead behind a five-yard touchdown run by Fahu Tahi and two field goals of 44 and 53 yards by Matt Payne, who was named to the Lou Groza and Ray Guy Award watch lists. Payne also punted the ball nine times for an average of 46.8 yards, with six being downed inside the 20. Collie's 42-yard touchdown reception from Matt Berry, who replaced an injured John Beck, put BYU up 20-3. Notre Dame closed the gap to three at 20-17 with two second half touchdowns but the Cougars were able to run out the clock to preserve the win, thanks to a sideline-catch by Watkins that gave BYU a crucial first down.

With Matt Berry and John Beck injured, junior college transfer Jason Beck stepped in at quarterback on the road against Stanford. Beck was impressive in the first half as BYU jumped out to a 10-0 lead, but turnovers and poor pass protection led to a difficult second half. The Cougars' seven turnovers made it easy for the Cardinal offense all night long.

BYU VS. STANFORD GAME RECAP

After jumping out to an early 10-0 lead, the Cougars were outmatched the rest of the way against the Stanford Cardinal, falling 37-10. With John Beck being injured in the previous game and Matt Berry going down on the first possession, Jason Beck got most of the playing time at quarterback. He completed 23-of-46 pass attempts for 232 yards and three interceptions. Todd Watkins caught six passes for 89 yards while Curtis Brown picked up 47 yards on 16 carries.

Brady Poppinga recovered a Stanford fumble early in the first quarter on the Cardinal 35 and Fahu Tahi scored the game's first touchdown on a three yard run minutes later. Matt Payne added a 40-yard field goal later in the first quarter to put BYU up 10-0. Stanford's T.J. Rushing started the scoring for the Cardinal, returning the ensuing kickoff 99-yards for a touchdown. From there Stanford scored the next 30 points to take the game 37-10. The Cardinal only out gained the Cougars by 40 yards but turnovers plagued BYU.

BYU's defense shut out top-ranked USC in the first and third quarters, but Reggie Bush and the Trojan big-play machine proved too much for the Cougars. Todd Watkins' 69-yard touchdown in the third quarter cut the Trojan lead to 21-10, but USC owned the fourth quarter in Provo.

BYU VS. NO. 1 USC GAME RECAP

The Cougars dropped their second strait game against a Pacific 10 Conference foe, falling to the No. 1 ranked USC Trojans 42-10 at LaVell Edwards Stadium. BYU held the Trojans scoreless in the first quarter and struck first on a 46-yard Matt Payne field goal in the second quarter. John Beck played the entire game, completing 18-of-34 passes for 194 yards, one touchdown, and three interceptions. The touchdown, the Cougar's only in the game, was a 69-yard pass to Todd Watkins in the second quarter. Watkins finished the game with four receptions for 94 yards.

USC came on strong in the second quarter, scoring 21 points. Reggie Bush scored two touchdowns, one on a 21-yard pass from Matt Leinart and the other on a 66-yard run. After a scoreless third, the Trojans scored another 21 points in the fourth quarter. A bright spot for the Cougar defense came in the first quarter when John Burbidge picked off Leinart. It was the first BYU interception of the season and the first interception Leinart had thrown in 111 pass attempts. Along with his second quarter field goal, Matt Payne blasted a 79-yard punt in the third quarter. The punt set a career best and was one yard shy of setting a school record.

On the road against No. 21 Boise State, BYU showed its strength. John Beck led BYU down the field in the final minute setting up a 37-yard Matt Payne field goal attempt. With 23 seconds on the clock Payne's kick just missed, and what could have been BYU's biggest road victory in seven years went with it. BYU's offense outperformed the highly-touted Bronco offense (414 yards to 399 yards).

BYU VS. NO. 21 BOISE STATE GAME RECAP

After falling behind 16-0 to No. 21 Boise State, the top scoring team in the nation, the BYU offense came alive but fell just short in a 28-27 loss to the nationally ranked Broncos. John Beck completed 20-of-35 passes for a career-high 390 yards and two touchdowns. Todd Watkins caught nine passes for 211 yards and one touchdown, a 79-yard grab in the third quarter. Austin Collie, who had five receptions for 94 yards, caught a 57-yard touchdown pass that put the Cougars up 27-22, a lead that would slip away late in the fourth quarter. It was by far the best offensive performance of the season as BYU finished with 416 yards of total offense and zero turnovers.

The first Cougar score came late in the first quarter on a two-yard run by Curtis Brown that was set up by a Brandon Heaney fumble recovery. Matt Payne added field goals of 32 and 42 yards in the second. Payne had a chance to win the game, but his 37-yard field goal with 23 seconds left in the game sailed wide left. The defense also put in a strong performance, recording six sacks while holding the No. 1 offensive team in the country, which had been averaging 55 points, to just 28.

BYU VS. COLORADO STATE GAME RECAP

The Cougar running game showed what it was capable of in helping BYU win its Mountain West Conference opener at Colorado State, 31-21. Curtis Brown ran for 93 yards and two touchdowns and Fahu Tahi had 98 yards and one touchdown. As a team, the Cougars finished with 207 yards on the ground, easily surpassing the previous season high. John Beck completed 24-of-42 pass attempts en route to 238 yards, one touchdown and one interception. After a scoreless first quarter, the Cougars scored 10 in the second, three on a 52-yard Matt Payne field goal and the other seven on a 14-yard touchdown run by Curtis Brown.

The Cougars lost the 10-0 advantage as the Rams scored a touchdown with less than one minute left in the first quarter and added another trip to the end zone early in the third to go up 14-10. The Cougars took the lead back with just over two minutes left at 17-14 in the third on Brown's second score of the night, only to see it slip right back to Colorado State, which scored a touchdown early in the fourth to go up 21-17. BYU responded just one minute later on a 40-yard touchdown pass from Beck to Austin Collie, giving the Cougars the lead for good at 24-21. Fahu Tahi scored his touchdown with 2:25 to play to seal the victory.

BYU VS. UNLV GAME RECAP

Despite holding the lead at three different points in the game, the Cougars could not hold on as the UNLV Rebels escaped Provo with a 24-20 win. The story of the game was turnovers. The Cougars threw one interception and lost four fumbles while the Rebels had just two turnovers. BYU did gain almost 200 more yards than UNLV, 449-259, but it was not enough. John Beck finished the game completing 34-of-67 pass attempts for 358 yards, one touchdown and one interception. The 67 pass attempts were both BYU and MWC records. Curtis Brown had a strong game on the ground, running the ball eight times for 102 yards. It was the first time all season a Cougar had eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark.

BYU scored first on a 47-yard field goal by Matt Payne in the second quarter. UNLV came right back, scoring a touchdown to take a 7-3 lead. The Cougars struck again 14 seconds before halftime when Beck found Todd Watkins on a seven-yard scoring play. The lead would change hands again when UNLV running back Dominique Dorsey scored early in the third quarter to give the Rebels the 14-10 advantage. Later in the third, BYU scored 10 points in a matter of eight seconds on a Payne field goal and an interception return for a touchdown by Cameron Jensen to take the lead back at 20-14. The Rebels would not trail for long, however, scoring another touchdown late in the third and adding an insurance field goal in the fourth to go up 24-20. BYU threatened twice late in the fourth but the first chance ended in a lost fumble and the second ended as time expired.

Curtis Brown was unstoppable in the second half against Wyoming. He finished the night with 159 yards and a touchdown. He also completed a 40-yard touchdown pass in the first half to Austin Collie. The BYU defense forced four interceptions and held Wyoming's potent passing attack to just 219 yards.

BYU VS. WYOMING GAME RECAP

The BYU running game and defense led the way as the Cougars won their second conference game, a 24-13 victory over the Wyoming Cowboys in Provo. The defense limited the Cowboys to 322 net yards and picked off four passes while the running game amassed 237 yards. Curtis Brown led the way, running for 159 yards and one touchdown while Fahu Tahi chipped in 70 yards and one touchdown. Brown also was a threat throwing the ball, completing a 40-yard touchdown pass to Austin Collie in the first quarter for BYU's first score. Brown accounted for 95 of the Cougar's 96 first-quarter yards.

The Cougars and Cowboys exchanged field goals, putting the score at 10-3 before Wyoming scored 10 unanswered points, a 40-yard field goal and a 35-yard touchdown play, to take the 13-10 lead. After the Wyoming touchdown, BYU answered with a touchdown of its own, a nine-yard run by Curtis Brown. The score capped a nine play, 80-yard drive that did not include a single passing play. The defense preserved the 17-13 lead the rest of the way and the offense added another touchdown with 2:06 remaining on a 15-yard run by Fahu Tahi to seal the victory. With the win, the Cougars improved to 17-1 in the last 18 games when rushing over 150 yards.

In arguably the best overall performance by the Cougars of the season, John Beck led BYU to a 41-24 road victory over Air Force. Beck passed for 319 yards and four touchdowns while the offense rolled up 527 total yards. The defense shut down the Falcon's rushing attack and added a touchdown on a blocked punt.

BYU VS. AIR FORCE GAME RECAP

It was a tale of two halves as BYU scored 38 points in the second half to defeat Air Force, 41-24, at Falcon Stadium. It was the first Cougar win at Air Force since the 1994 season and the first time BYU had won back-to-back games since the 2002 season. With the win, the Cougars took sole possession of second place in the Mountain West Conference at 3-1. Curtis Brown rushed for 128 on 22 carries, his third 100-yard rushing game of the season. John Beck got hot in the second half to finish 20-of-31 for 319 yards, a career-high four touchdowns and one interception. Todd Watkins torched the Falcon's secondary for six receptions for 153 yards and one touchdown.

The offensive showcase did not start right away. The Cougars offense sputtered in the first half, only scoring three points on a 23-yard, Matt Payne field goal in the first quarter. Air Force went into the locker room up 10-3 at halftime, having scored on a 29-yard run by Darnell Stephens and a 48-yard field goal by Michael Greenaway. The second half was a different story. Thirty-three seconds into the third quarter, the Cougars scored on a 70-yard pass from Beck to Watkins. Later in the quarter, Beck hit Dennis Pitta for an 11-yard touchdown pass to give BYU the lead. Two minutes later the Cougars were in the end zone again after an eight-yard blocked punt return for a touchdown by Gary Lovely, making the score 24-10. While Air Force added two touchdowns in the fourth, Austin Collie and Pitta each added touchdown receptions and Matt Payne drilled a 53-yard field goal to round out the scoring for the Cougars.

The Cougars blowout win over the Aztecs started early as John Beck hooked up with Todd Watkins for a 68-yard touchdown on the Cougars' second offensive play of the game. BYU's defense held SDSU to just three points for most of the game while the offense had nearly 400 yards of total offense for the second consecutive game.

BYU VS. SAN DIEGO STATE GAME RECAP

The Cougars followed up a strong offensive showing against Air Force with a 49-16 blowout win over San Diego State in Provo. John Beck again led the attack, completing 15-of-25 pass attempts for 313 yards and three touchdowns. Todd Watkins caught three passes for 135 yards, including a 68-yard reception for the Cougars' first touchdown early in the opening quarter. Austin Collie added three catches for 95 yards and two touchdowns. His second touchdown went for 82 yards, the longest passing play of the season for BYU. The running game was strong as well, with Curtis Brown running the ball 17 times for 106 yards and one touchdown. It was Brown's fourth consecutive game rushing for over 100 yards.

After Watkins' touchdown early in the first, the Cougars' offense struggled to move the ball, settling for two field goals of 43 and 34 yards before halftime. Payne's 43-yard field goal was his 13th consecutive from 40-49 yards, breaking the record set by former Notre Dame kicker John Carney during the 1984-85 seasons. The defense was strong in the first half, shutting out its opponent in the first quarter for the fifth consecutive game and holding the Aztecs to a field goal. The second half explosion started with 8:45 left in the third quarter when Brown scored from three yards out, putting the Cougars up 20-3. BYU added two more touchdowns and a field goal in the third to take a 36-3 lead. Each team added two touchdowns in the fourth, including Collie's 82-yard strike.

BYU VS. NEW MEXICO GAME RECAP

In the final home game of the regular season, the Cougars fell short against the New Mexico Lobos, 21-14, ending their hopes of winning a share of the MWC title. The Lobos' defense was too strong, limiting BYU to just two touchdowns and forcing mistakes at key moments. Despite the constant defensive pressure, John Beck was solid for the Cougars, completing 22-of-37 pass attempts for 247 yards, one touchdown and one interception. Austin Collie was the top receiver for BYU, catching four passes for 83 yards. Fahu Tahi caught Beck's touchdown pass, a seven-yard play with six minutes remaining in the game.

The Cougars jumped out to a 7-0 lead with 3:02 left in the first on a trick play by the special teams unit. Facing fourth and 11 from the New Mexico 12-yard line, the Cougars came out in field goal formation with Riley Weber, the holder, lining up on the sideline. BYU snapped the ball and Matt Payne threw to a wide-open Weber for the touchdown. The Lobos responded quickly, scoring on a three play, 80-yard drive with 2:23 left in the first to tie the game at seven. New Mexico added another score with 47 seconds left in the first on a 29-yard pass from Kole McKamey to Hank Baskett. The Lobos recovered a Fahu Tahi fumble on the Cougar 36-yard line to set up the touchdown. Both teams went cold for the next two quarters before New Mexico finally scored again on a one yard-run by DonTrell Moore with 8:37 to go in the game. BYU scored with 6:00 left and had a chance in the final minutes but Antwuan Harris fumbled the ball away and the Lobos ran out the clock.

Curtis Brown and Todd Watkins celebrate Brown's six-yard touchdown run which tied the score in the second quarter against the No. 5-ranked Utes. BYU played head to head with the Utes until two key turnovers in the third quarter doomed the Cougars in Salt Lake City.

BYU VS. UTAH GAME RECAP

The Cougars concluded the 2004 season with a 52-21 loss to the nationally ranked University of Utah at Rice Eccles Stadium. BYU finished 4-3 in the MWC while finishing the season with a losing record overall. Despite losing by 31, the Cougar defense played well against Heisman hopeful quarterback Alex Smith, limiting him to 184 yards. Nate Soelberg and Spencer White both registered interceptions, doubling Smith's interception total for the season. Curtis Brown picked up 84 rushing yards on 18 carries while Austin Collie caught three passes for 74 yards and one touchdown. John Beck completed 17-of-32 attempts for a game-high 213 yards and two touchdowns. Todd Watkins caught four passes for 41 yards and one touchdown. Watkins and Collie combined to finish the season with over 100 receptions, the first time since 1990 that BYU had two players finish with over 50 receptions.

BYU fell behind 7-0 early but tied the score on a five-yard pass from Beck to Watkins. After another Ute touchdown, Brown scored from six yards out to tie the game at 14. Utah's Alex Smith scored on a broken play with 1:19 remaining in the second quarter to put his team ahead 21-14. Despite the close first half, Utah blew the game open in the second half, outscoring the Cougars 31-7 to win the game 52-21.

21 TITLES

One of BYU's marquee victories came in 1990 when the Cougars opened the season by stunning top-ranked Miami in Provo. After the victory, fans stormed the field to celebrate another major victory for the BYU football program.

Modern Football History

BYU's winning tradition was built by legendary Cougar head coach LaVell Edwards. After taking over the program in 1972, Edwards erected an offensive powerhouse that rewrote the record books and established itself among the nation's elite football programs. Edwards, a two-time NCAA National Coach of the Year and the sixth winningest coach in NCAA history, taught his players and the nation what a passing offense truly was. The Cougar offense passed 103,562 yards (about 59 miles) throughout Edwards' 29 seasons as head coach, and now BYU's football stadium is branded with a namesake worth a lifetime of amazing stories. Since 1972 the Cougars have won 20 conference championships, a national championship in 1984 and 23 postseason appearances.

1972 LaVell Edwards, defensive coordinator for the Cougars, is named head coach in January... had been a member of the BYU staff since 1962... halfback Pete Van Valkenburg wins NCAA rushing title beating out All-Americans Greg Pruitt and Otis Armstrong with a 138.6 yards-per-game average... the Cougars also lead the league in defense against the rush.

1973 The Cougars begin to move offensively... quarterback Gary Sheide is runner-up in NCAA passing and third in total offense... teammate Jay Miller leads the nation in pass receiving (100 receptions for 1,181 yards)... Cougars finish second nationally in passing and eighth in total offense... Miller sets an NCAA record for most pass receptions (22) in one game... running back Steve Stratton is named the first Academic All-American in school history.

1974: LaVell's first WAC Championship

1974 Team ranks high in two NCAA statistical categories: seventh in passing offense, third in rushing defense... Gary Sheide is runner-up in passing for the second year in a row (behind Steve Bartkowski of California) ... Sheide's career completion percentage is fourth all-time.. Bartkowski's final pass completion edged Sheide (182-181) for title... LaVell wins first WAC championship and a trip to the Fiesta Bowl against Oklahoma St.—BYU's first bowl.

1975 A year of adjustment: the Cougars falter through the first part of the season, then win six of their last eight games... Gifford Nielsen, a sophomore reserve, comes off the bench in the fourth game (New Mexico) to spark a come-from-behind victory... Nielsen sets WAC record with 10-of-12 passing... becomes starter... Cougars finish 10th nationally in team passing.

1976 Gifford Nielsen places fourth in NCAA completions per game (18.8) with only one-tenth completion separating him from Jack Thompson (Washington State) in second place... Nielsen finishes second to Tommy Kramer (Rice) in total offense... Cougars finish first in passing (307.8), sixth in total offense (424.4) and eighth in NCAA scoring (31.9)... Nielsen voted first team All-American... BYU ties for WAC title and plays Oklahoma State in the Tangerine Bowl.

1977 Gifford Nielsen unexpectedly exits scene with injury in fourth game (Oregon State) and Marc Wilson takes over... by the end of the year, the two have combined for 40 TD passes, 3,585 yards passing and a .605 completion percentage... Wilson finishes eighth in passing and third in total offense... Cougars lead nation in passing (341.6), finish second in scoring (39.4) and third in total offense (470.2)... BYU's 341.6 yards passing per game was third highest in NCAA history, and 41 TDs was second... Cougars top the nation in takeaways (fumbles recovered or interceptions) with a total of 56... Cougars tie for first in WAC and make a post-season trip to play two Japanese all-star teams.

1978 Both Marc Wilson and sophomore Jim McMahon see action in 10 games as they share quarterback duties... Cougars are eighth in passing and fourth in fumble recoveries... Cougars win the WAC, play their final regular-season game in Yokohama, Japan, against UNLV, and meet Navy in the first Holiday Bowl.

1979 With two all-conference quarterbacks to choose from, Edwards decides to redshirt McMahon and play senior Wilson... Cougars upset Texas A&M in season opener and go on to record 11 straight wins ... Wilson leads the nation in total offense (325.5) and is fourth in pass efficiency (147.1)... finishes the year as consensus All-American with 10 NCAA records to his credit... Cougars lead the nation in four categories: passing (368.3), total offense (521.4), scoring (40.6) and kickoff returns (26.3)...

Jim McMahon was named the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year, with Marcus Allen, after an amazing 1981 season. McMahon set 70 NCAA records at BYU, was a consensus All-American and was third in the Heisman balloting.

Cougars are 12th in scoring defense (11.4) and sixth in punting (40.1)... BYU becomes first Division I school to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season... LaVell receives the Bobby Dodd Coach-of-the-Year award... Cougars win the WAC and play Indiana in Holiday Bowl II.

1980 The school's first 12-win season... BYU leads the nation in three statistical categories: total offense (535.0), scoring (46.7) and passing (409.8)... quarterback Jim McMahon is named to the Kodak All-America team along with tackle Nick Eyre... McMahon is the first Division I player to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season (4,571)... sets or ties 26 NCAA records, most in total offense and passing... pass efficiency (176.9) was the highest ever... also led the nation in total offense (385.6)... after losing the first game to New Mexico, BYU wins 12 straight ... Cougars win WAC and defeat SMU in Holiday Bowl III by scoring 21 points in the final four minutes.

1981 Another 11-win season for the Cougars... have a 17-game win streak and rank eighth in the polls before losing to Nevada-Las Vegas... BYU leads the nation in passing for the third consecutive year... McMahon earns All-America honors and finishes his career with 70 NCAA records and sets record with all-time high in career pass efficiency (156.9) ... McMahon wins the first Davey O'Brien Award

1983: STEVE YOUNG WINS HOLIDAY BOWL

... Cougars win WAC and play Washington State in Holiday Bowl IV... LaVell coaches West team to a victory in the Hula Bowl... also coaches in the Japan Bowl... Edwards' 86-32-1 record ranks among top 10 in the nation.

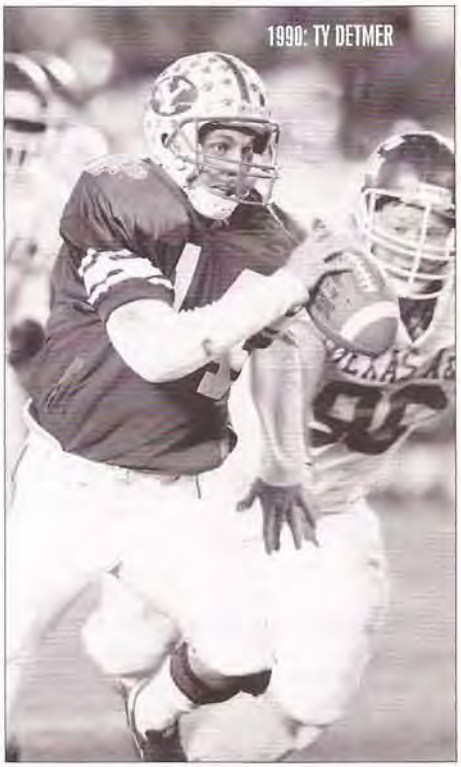
1982 BYU expands Cougar Stadium to 65,000 seats and sells out each game... loses home opener to Air Force (39-38) but comes back to win seventh straight WAC title and plays Ohio State in Holiday Bowl V... Gordon Hudson is named consensus All-American... BYU finishes third nationally in total offense... Steve Young is named WAC Offensive Player of the Year.

1983 Another 11-win season... Cougars are ranked seventh in final polls, highest ever for a BYU team... quarterback Steve Young and tight end Gordon Hudson both named consensus All-Americans... after losing to Baylor in the opening game, BYU wins final 11 games... BYU leads the nation in passing and total offense and is second in scoring... Cougars set NCAA total offense record with 584.2 yards per game... BYU wins eighth straight WAC title and defeats Missouri in Holiday Bowl VI... Edwards surpasses the 100-victory milestone...Young wins the Davey O'Brien Award and finishes runner-up for the Heisman.

1984 Cougars win the National Championship by becoming only the third team in NCAA history to win 13 games in a season... win streak is extended to 24 games... quarterback Robbie Bosco leads the nation in passing and finishes second to Doug Flutie in pass efficiency (151.8)... defensive back Kyle Morrell named first team All-American... team leads the nation in passing (346.2) and total offense (486.5)... defensively, Cougars finish 10th in scoring defense... another WAC championship and a victory over Michigan in Holiday Bowl VII... Edwards named NCAA Coach of the Year by most organizations ...Bosco is runner-up for the Davey O'Brien Award and third in the Heisman.

1985 Cougars' defense of the National Championship begins with win over Boston College in the Kickoff Classic... that game plus a bowl and playing at Hawaii allows BYU to become the only collegiate team to play 14 games in a season... defensive tackle Jason Buck is named third team All-American and WAC Defensive Player of the Year... Mark Bellini earns second-team All-America honors... a tie with Air Force for the WAC championship... quarterback Robbie Bosco ranks second in total offense and seventh in pass efficiency... finishes third in the Heisman Trophy balloting... BYU defense ranks 19th against the rush and 18th overall... Cougars lose to Ohio State in the Florida Citrus Bowl and end the season ranked 16th in both polls.

1984: WINNING THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP



1990: TY DETMER

1986 Edwards passes Frank Kush as the winningest coach in WAC football history... Jason Buck becomes only the third player in the Western United States to win the Outland Trophy and is named consensus All-America ... Shawn Knight is also named to several All-American teams ... Lakei Heimuli comes on strong toward the end of the season to break Jeff Blanc's record for career rushing yards... Cougars fail to win WAC championship for the first time in 11 years but post an 8-5 record and play UCLA in the Freedom Bowl.

1987 BYU defense leads the nation with 50 takeaways (28 interceptions and 22 fumble recoveries) with Troy Long getting the most defensive points... after offensive line is decimated in pre-season camp, Cougars bounce back from 1-2 start to win eight of final nine regular season games... Cougars come within a two-point conversion of another WAC title... Chuck Cutler begins the first of two years as a GTE Academic All-America first teamer... Leonard Chitty sets career records for consecutive conversions (42) and for field goals (34)... Cougars rank ninth nationally in passing offense and 22nd in scoring offense... Cougars win Gridiron Bowl (the final regular-season game against Colorado St.) in Melbourne, Australia, but injuries prove costly in the All American Bowl versus Virginia.

1988 Cougars win seven straight but drop to third in WAC race... punter Pat Thompson named All-America and finishes second nationally while team is first in punting and net punting... behind quarterbacks Sean Covey and Ty Detmer, BYU is fourth in passing, 13th in total offense and 13th in scoring... BYU plays second-ranked Miami even for three quarters... Bob Davis is a finalist for the Butkus Award as the country's top linebacker... 11th straight bowl trip (Freedom Bowl) is 20-17 upset over Colorado.

1989 BYU returns to the top of the WAC after a three-year absence... offensive lineman Mohammed Elewonibi becomes the second BYU player in four years to win the Outland Trophy and is consensus All-American... Bob Davis and Chris Smith are named to several All-American teams ... Fred Whittingham is first team Academic All-America... sophomore Ty Detmer breaks 11 NCAA records and ties two others... Cougars make 12th straight bowl appearance but drop a tough game to Penn State in the Holiday Bowl.

1990 Ty Detmer, a consensus first team All-American, becomes the first player in the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy...also wins the Davey O'Brien Award...finishes with 5,188 yards passing—the most ever—and increases his NCAA records to 47... Chris Smith also is consensus All-

1994: Mike Ulufale and the No. 10 ranked BYU Cougars

American and has more reception yards (1,156) than any tight end in history... Andy Boyce gains more yards receiving (1,241) than anyone who has played at BYU... Matt Bellini breaks the career record for catches with 204... BYU shocks the nation by upsetting top-ranked Miami but loses a shot at being number one with a loss at Oregon... BYU wins the WAC and goes to its 13th straight bowl.

1991 Cougars go undefeated in the final 10 games as Ty Detmer finishes his incredible career with 62 NCAA records, including an amazing 15,031 yards passing and a career passing efficiency of 162.7 (nearly five points above Jim McMahon's previous record)... BYU ties seventh-ranked

1994: COUGARS DEFEAT NOTRE DAME IN SOUTH BEND

Iowa, 13-13, at the Holiday Bowl, its 14th straight bowl game... Shad Hansen sets a school record with 325 career defensive points... Peter Tuipulotu winds up with the best career rushing average (5.5)... Detmer repeats as the Davey O'Brien Award winner.

1992 Cougars are forced to use three different quarterbacks (and a fourth in the bowl game) but finish fifth nationally in passing and seventh in total offense... 23rd in rushing defense... among the highlights were beating powerful Penn State (30-3 until the closing minutes), a first-ever game against Notre Dame, finally taking the series lead against Utah State and the 19th win by Coach Edwards in 21 games against Utah... Ryan Hancock finishes third in total offense and passing... BYU wins WAC title and goes to the Aloha Bowl...BYU's 15th straight bowl.

1996: No. 5 ranked Cougars defeat Kansas State in the Cotton Bowl

1993 BYU ties for the WAC title and goes to the Holiday Bowl (16th straight bowl game), nearly beating Big Ten co-champ Ohio State...Cougars win all four league games in September before injuries hit and team loses four games in October... BYU gains 20th straight non-losing season... team ranks second in passing and ninth in total offense and John Walsh is fifth in total offense and ninth in passing efficiency... freshman Alan Boardman finishes ninth nationally in punting and Eric Drage sets career records for touchdown receptions (29) and yardage (3,066)... BYU's NCAA record of 53-straight games with a touchdown pass ends at CSU, but Cougars extend the nation's longest streak without being shut out to 236 consecutive games.

1994 It's a historic season with victories over Notre Dame and Oklahoma to finish 10th in the final CNN/USA Today poll... five players are drafted, the most ever... Cougars win their first bowl game since 1988... BYU dedicates Copper Bowl effort to graduate assistant coach John Farley, who was sidelined in August with heart trouble and died in December... Cougars are third nationally in passing with John Walsh fifth in total offense... Jamal Willis becomes the all-time leading rusher and breaks the record for touchdowns...David Lauder sets a career record for consecutive PATs with 53.

1995 A first-ever multi-year contract for a BYU coach is given to Edwards... the string of 17 consecutive bowl games comes to an end... Cougars finish number two in NCAA in punt returns at 18.9, while James Dye is number one at 21.9... Steve Sarkisian is the first junior college player since 1973 to start as a BYU quarterback ... BYU finishes in a four-way tie for first in the WAC.

1996 BYU completes the longest season in Division I college football history and plays in its first ever New Year's Day bowl game with a 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory over Kansas State...BYU finishes the season with a 14-1 record and a No. 5 national ranking in both polls, its highest ranking since 1997: Kevin Feterik leads BYU over Arizona State.

1984...QB Steve Sarkisian leads the nation in pass efficiency with a 173.6 rating...the Cougars finish sixth in the nation in total offense with 478 yards per game...the defense leads the WAC in rushing yards allowed (124.6), total yards allowed (316.3) and points allowed (18.7)...James Dye finishes second in the nation in punt returns with a 17.6 average...BYU wins the inaugural WAC Championship game with a 28-25 victory over Wyoming in Las Vegas, Nevada...BYU goes undefeated in the WAC, giving LaVell Edwards his 18th career title.

1997 BYU finishes fifth in the WAC's Mountain Division with an overall record of 6-5 (4-4 in the WAC)... Cougars fail to receive a bowl bid for only the second time in 20 years... Drew Miller becomes first ever true freshman to start at quarterback for BYU... starting QB role is never quite locked up as three different quarterbacks see considerable playing time throughout the season... Brian McKenzie becomes only the fourth Cougar to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season and moves into sixth place on BYU's career rushing list with 1,954 yards.

1998 BYU runs up a 7-1 conference record (9-5 overall) to win the WAC Pacific Division title ... The Cougars meet Tulane in their first-ever Liberty Bowl appearance ... BYU's season is highlighted by its defense, ranked No. 5 in the nation, allowing only 91.2 rushing yards and 273.9 total yards per game ... After a slow start, the Cougars won seven games in a row ... Season highlights included a 26-6 thumping of Arizona State, a 13-0 shutout of San Diego State and a 26-24 victory over Utah ... Rob Morris, John Tait, Brian Gray and Daren Yancey were all named to the All-WAC first team ... John Tait was selected in the first round of the NFL Draft (14th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs ... Sophomore kicker Owen Pochman set a school record by connecting on 62 consecutive PATs.

Steve Sarkisian raises the 1996 WAC Championship trophy after an amazing come-from-behind, overtime victory against Wyoming in the WAC Championship game.

1999 Won the first-ever Mountain West Conference Championship with an 8-4 season record (5-2 conf.) ... A 27-20 win over Air Force marks LaVell Edwards' 250th victory as head coach of the Cougars ... junior kicker Owen Pochman becomes the school's all-time leading scorer, picking up 90 points on the season to give him a career total 247 ... a six-game winning streak in the middle of the season has BYU ranked as high as No. 12 in the USAToday/CNN Coaches' Poll ... running back Luke Staley is named Freshman All-American and conference Freshman of the Year, leading the nation's freshmen in scoring average with 78 points in eight games ... Rob Morris returns from a four-game absence to earn All-America status ... Morris is picked in the first round with the 28th overall pick by the Indianapolis Colts ... The Cougars finish the season ranked first in the conference in total offense and rushing defense, as well as eighth in the nation in passing offense and 14th in the nation in rushing defense ... BYU makes its first-ever Motor City Bowl appearance against Marshall ... Edwards concludes the season with his 20th career conference title and 22nd bowl appearance in 28 years.

2000 BYU won its last two games, including a memorable thriller at Utah, to send coach LaVell Edwards out with a 6-6 record in his 29th and final year as a head coach...Playing one of its toughest schedules in history, the Cougars played Mississippi State, Syracuse, Virginia and national power Florida State in the Kickoff Classic...Against Utah, BYU trailed by one point but went 80 yards on nine plays, including two dramatic passes from quarterback Brandon Doman to wide receiver Jonathan Pittman, for the come-from-behind victory...Owen Pochman, Setema Galí, Jr., Justin Ena and Aaron Edmonds were all named to the All-Mountain West Conference first team... Pochman and Tevita Ofahengaue are both selected in the NFL draft with Ofahengaue being "Mr. Irrelevant" as the last player selected in the draft.

2001 In his first season after taking over the BYU football program Gary Crowton led the Cougars to 12 consecutive victories and an outright Mountain West Conference title thanks to a dramatic come-from-behind victory over rival Utah in Provo ... Luke Staley was named a consensus All-American and became BYU's first Doak Walker Award winner for the nation's top running back ... Staley led the nation in scoring at 15.45 points per game and was third nationally in rushing at 143.82 yards per game ... The Cougars led the nation in scoring offense with 46.77 points per game and in total offense with 542.85 yards per game ... BYU was the first MWC school to go undefeated in conference games and boasted eight players being named as first-team all-league ... Staley was named Offensive Player of the Year in the Conference and set BYU single-season records for points scored, touchdowns scored and rushing yards ... injuries took Staley out of the Cougars final two games which resulted in loses at Hawaii and in the Liberty Bowl against Louisville ... BYU climbed the national polls to as high as No. 7 on Nov. 25th and finished the season ranked No. 24 in both polls ... First-Team All-MWC defensive end Ryan Denney was named to the Academic All-America team and was drafted in the second round by the Buffalo Bills ... All-MWC tight end Doug Jolley was also selected in the second round of the 2002 NFL draft by the Oakland Raiders.

2000: Cougars celebrate a wild come-from-behind win over Virginia

2001: Staley wins Doak Walker Award and leads the nation in scoring

2002 For the first time since 1973 the Cougars finished the regular-season with a sub-.500 record ... coincidentally, the '73 season was the second under legendary coach LaVell Edwards ... his replacement, Gary Crowton, just completed his second season at BYU...for the first time in the four-season history of the MWC, BYU failed to win a conference road game, going 0-3 ... the Cougars combined to post a 9-2 conference road mark through the league's first three seasons ... Matt Berry was the first redshirt freshman quarterback to start at BYU since Ty Detmer in 1988...Brady Poppinga led the MWC with eight sacks for minus 52 yards .. he averaged 0.67 sacks per game, with all of his sacks being solo stops...BYU attempted fourth-down conversions a MWC leading 42 times this season. The Cougars converted 17 times and ranked sixth in the league with a 40.5 percentage...Matt Payne led the country with a punting average of 47.6 yards ... BYU continued its NCAA record streak of not being shutout for 350 games.

2003 BYU posted back-to-back losing seasons for the first time since 1970-71 before LaVell Edwards took over the reigns of the program...John Beck became only the second true-freshman to start at quarterback for BYU when he started against Stanford ... Drew Miller was the only other true-freshman to start at quarterback...Running back Reynaldo Brathwaite recorded the longest run from scrimmage in Cougar history against San Diego State. Brathwaite, who also had an 89-yard run against New Mexico, scampered for a 95-yard score against the Aztecs on his way to 144 yards rushing on the night ... Freshman tight end Daniel Coats was named to The Sporting News Freshman All-America team after posting 30 receptions for 378 yards and four touchdowns...The Cougars' NCAA-record scoring steak ended at 361 after being shut out 3-0 against Utah in the final game of the season. The last time BYU was shut out was when Arizona State blanked the Cougars 20-0 on September 27, 1975.

2004 BYU posted its third-consecutive losing season, the longest such streak since the Cougars were sub-.500 from 1959-64 ... Despite the losing 5-6 record, BYU finished third place in the Mountain West Conference at 4-3 ... The Cougars' schedule was one of the most difficult in team history, including games against Notre Dame, the defending national champions USC, then-undefeated Boise State and an undefeated University of Utah team that won the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl ... John Beck and newcomer receivers Todd Watkins and Austin Collie combined to create one of the most potent passing attacks in the league ... Beck threw for 2,563 yards while Watkins, a transfer from Grossmont Junior College caught 52 passes for 1,042 yards and six touchdowns ... Collie, a true freshman, caught a team-high 53 passes for 771 yards and eight touchdowns ... Curtis Brown came on strong after a slow start to finish the season with 828 rushing yards ... Matt Payne finished his career as second on BYU's all-time scoring list with 312 and set an NCAA record for most consecutive field goals between 40-49 at 14, dating back to the 2002 season ... he also set the school record for most consecutive PATS with 67, dating back to 2002 ... Gary Crowton resigned at the end of the season and replaced by Bronco Mendenhall.

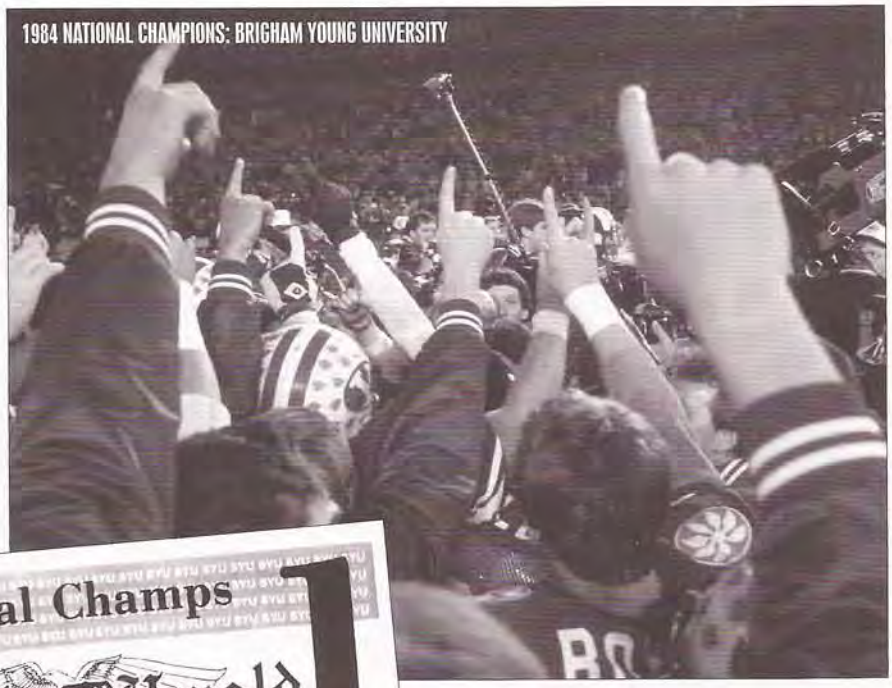
Aaron Francisco helped lead a Bronco Mendenhall defense in 2003 that ranked 14th in the nation.

BYU'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP



1984 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS: BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

After posting a perfect 13-0 season, the Cougars were awarded gold national championship rings after winning the 1984 National Championship.

The Cougars were named No. 1 by the Associated Press, the United Press International, Sports Illustrated, CNN-USA Today and the Football Writers of America. They won the Grantland Rice Trophy and the MacArthur Bowl. LaVell Edwards was selected as the NCAA National Coach of the Year and was invited to visit President Ronald Reagan in the White House.

The dream season featured plays like wide receiver Adam Haysbert's deep touchdown catch at third-ranked Pittsburgh, safety Kyle Morrell's timed leap over the center on a goal-line stand at Hawaii, tight end David Mill's catch with a clouded eye against Wyoming and running back Kelly Smith's winning TD catch against Michigan, who had been ranked second earlier in the season.

Polls Crown Cougars 'Number One'

By MARTIN DUNN
Herald Sports Editor

Agreeing all odds, Brigham Young University was named the nation's football champion Wednesday night when ranked No. 1 by the United Press International Board of College Coaches and Associated Press' board of sportswriters and sportscasters.

BYU also receive the support of the Football Writers of America by getting the 1984 Grantland Rice Trophy as the nation's champion football team and the Lombardi Trophy by the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame committee.

In addition, BYU was ranked No. 1 by all but two of the other polls conducted by magazines, television and newspapers. Only The New York Times and Sporting News chose to rank the Cougars No. 2.

BYU finished the 1984 campaign with a perfect 13-0 record and was the nation's only undefeated and untied major college team.

Despite that, there were critics who claimed BYU could never be declared national football champion because of the fact it plays in the Western Athletic Conference and not in one of the mega-powerful football leagues.

The critics were wrong.

The 40 coaches awarded BYU 38 first place votes and 976 points. Second place Washington received two first place votes and 940 points. Two coaches couldn't be reached for their votes. They were Ken Hatfield of Arkansas and Bobby Collins of SMU.

Nebraska, Boston College rounded out the top 10 in that order.

SMU, Southern Cal and UCLA are in Fair Isle Cold, where he is a touch of the West team in the Heroes All-Star game scheduled Saturday. With him are three senior stars from the national championship team, safety Kyle Morrell, defensive lineman Jim Herrmann and offensive tackle Jason Wing.

BYU became the first team to go undefeated and untied and then want to win the national championship. The 1981 Aubrey State team was tied in the final poll but was never ranked No. 1.

BYU was ranked No. 1 in the final poll of the regular season and then defeated Michigan in the Holiday Bowl to finish the season.

But being named national champion was far from a cinch, even after the bowl victory.

ROBBIE BOSCO LEADS BYU TO THE TITLE OVER MICHIGAN.

With a TV blimp in the sky over Jack Murphy Stadium, junior quarterback Robbie Bosco left the Holiday Bowl in the second quarter with an ankle injury and returned taped to play shotgun late in the second quarter. The 24-17 victory over Michigan was the first time a No. 1 team played in a non-New Year's Day bowl. Other injuries throughout the season were to offensive lineman Craig Garrick and circus-catching wide receiver Glen Kozlowski, who came through time and again.

The Cougars ascended to the number one spot on Nov. 17 following a 24-14 victory at Utah combined with a Nebraska loss to Oklahoma and a Navy upset over unbeaten and then second-ranked South Carolina.

The Cougars rose from no ranking to 12th, sixth, fourth, down to eighth, to fifth for two weeks, back to fourth, then third, back to fourth, again to third and then first in the 1984 campaign. Baylor Coach Grant Teaff, whose team lost at BYU 47-13, in game two, was the first to cast a No. 1 vote for the Cougars.

Controversy was abundant as many of the so-called experts such as NBC announcer Bryant Gumbell and Oklahoma head coach Barry Switzer, accused BYU of playing a "Bo-Diddley Tech" schedule.

Fifteen players from the 1984 team were drafted by the National Football League. Seven different teams held the No. 1 spot in 1984, but in the end it belonged to undefeated BYU.

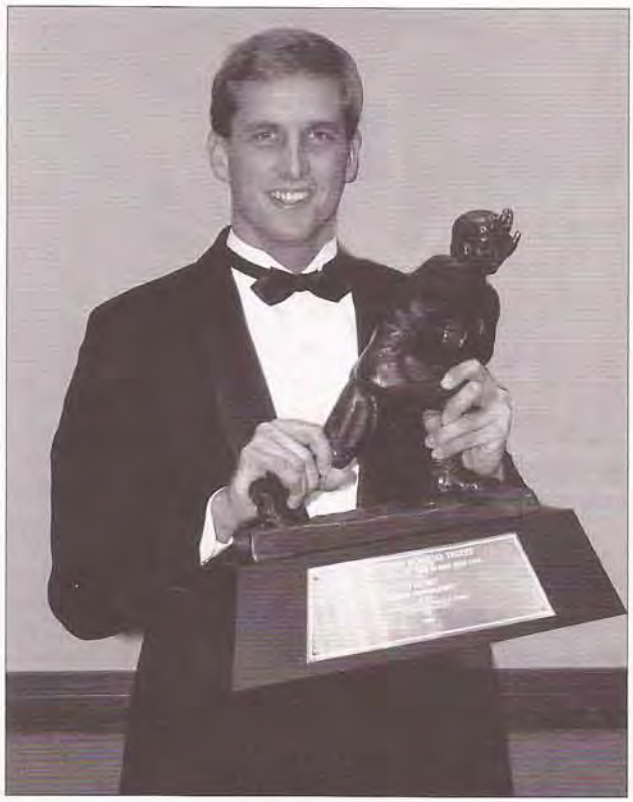
TY DETMER: 1990 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

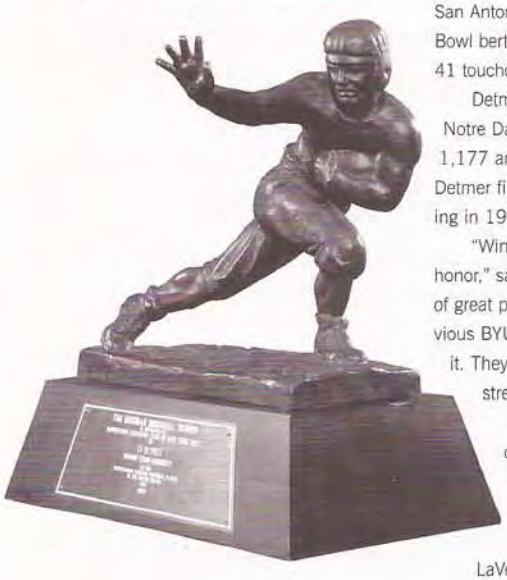
"He had me running around like a chicken with my head cut off. We didn't play that bad, Detmer is just that good."

—PENN STATE LINEBACKER ANDRE COLLINS (1989 HOLIDAY BOWL)



On December 1, 1990, Ty Detmer and his teammates gathered pool-side at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel just hours prior to kickoff with Hawaii. Via satellite hookup with national TV, Detmer and the BYU faithful waited patiently and listened as Downtown Athletic Club President C. Peter Lambos announced, "Ty Detmer, Ty Detmer of BYU," — soon Ty was doused in the pool.

Detmer, a junior, became the first collegian from the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy. Named in honor of John Heisman, the coveted 25-pound honor has been awarded annually to the outstanding college football player of the year since 1935.



A 28-21 upset over No. 1-ranked Miami in Provo vaulted Detmer to the forefront in the Heisman race his junior season. Combined with a massive public relations "necktie" campaign for Ty, the 6-0, 175, gunslinger from San Antonio, Texas, guided BYU to a Holiday Bowl berth that season and a 10-3 record with 41 touchdowns and 5,188 yards passing.

Detmer polled 1,482 points to beat out Notre Dame's Raghib "Rocket" Ismail at 1,177 and finished first in all six regions. Detmer finished third in the Heisman balloting in 1991.

"Winning the Heisman was a great honor," said Detmer. "There have been a lot of great players, like my teammates and previous BYU quarterbacks, that contributed to it. They opened the door. It shows the strength of the program at BYU."

Detmer's portrait hangs alongside other recipients on the third floor of the DAC of New York City. A duplicate portrait of Detmer also hangs on display in the Cougar Room of LaVell Edwards Stadium.

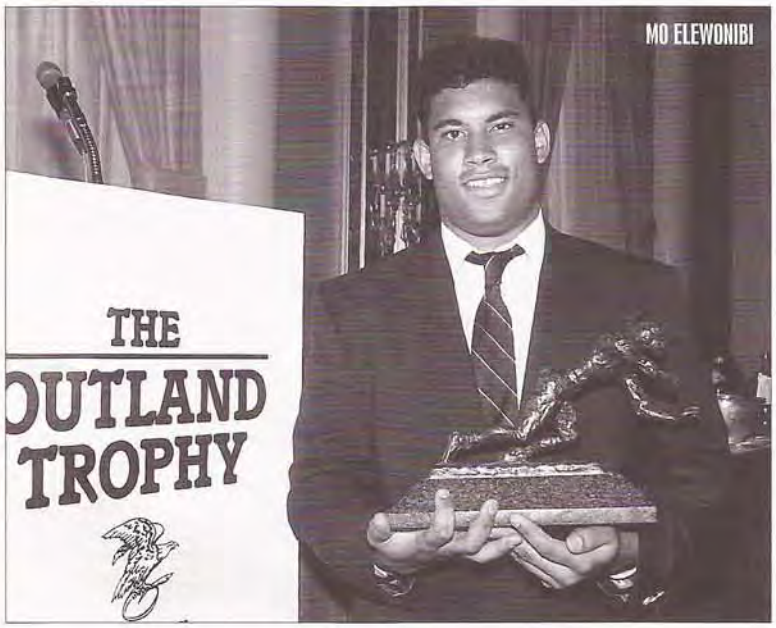
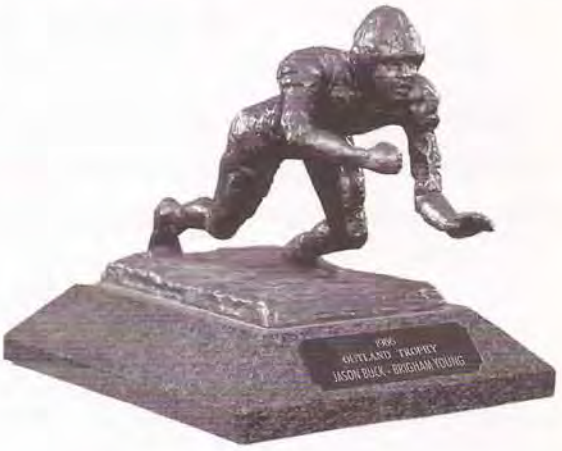
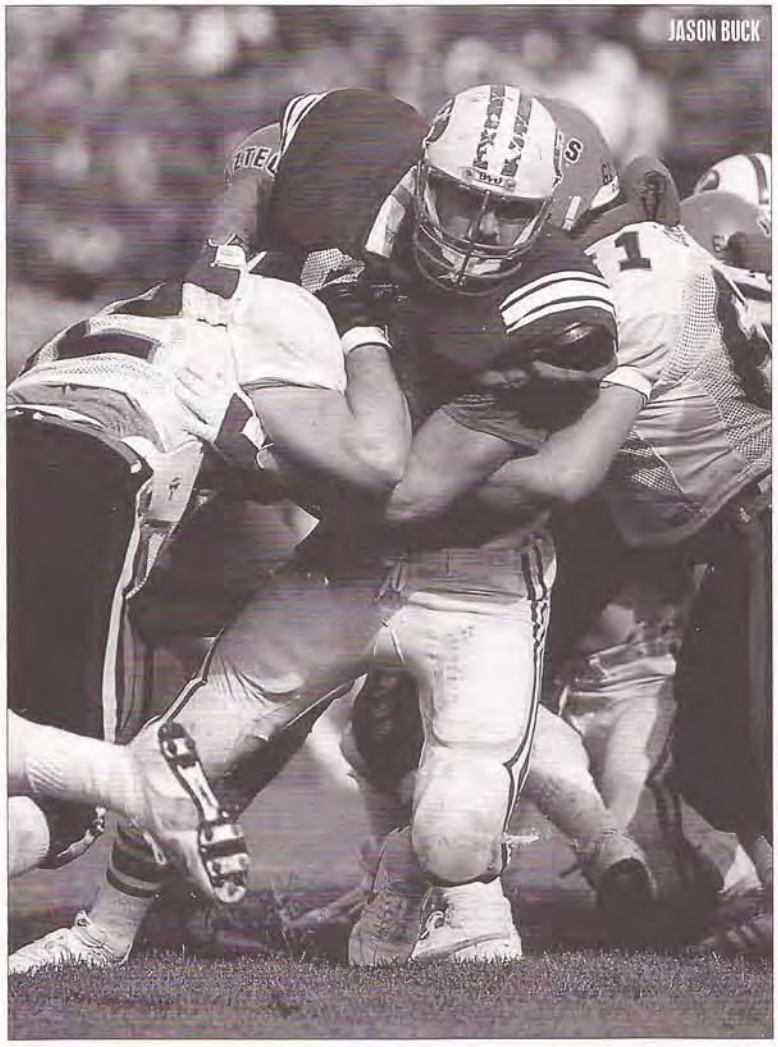
BYU'S TWO OUTLAND TROPHY WINNERS





BYU is one of only 11 schools to have two Outland Trophy winners, joining the likes of Notre Dame, Ohio State, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas.



JASON BUCK • 1986

Transfers Jason Buck, a defensive tackle, and Mohammed Elewonibi, an offensive guard, won the Outland in 1986 and 1989, respectively.

Buck, a 6-6, 270-pound senior from St. Anthony, Idaho, was a quarterback going into junior college at Ricks College. Buck led the 1986 Cougars with 218.5 defensive points and registered 26 unassisted tackles, 33 assisted tackles, 13 tackles for losses, 17 quarterback hurries and 12.5 sacks.

Buck rode a publicity campaign of "One Buck" dollar bills in leading BYU to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Freedom Bowl in 1986.

"For me it was just a thrill to be on the field every Saturday at BYU," said Buck. "To win the Outland Trophy was a dream come true."

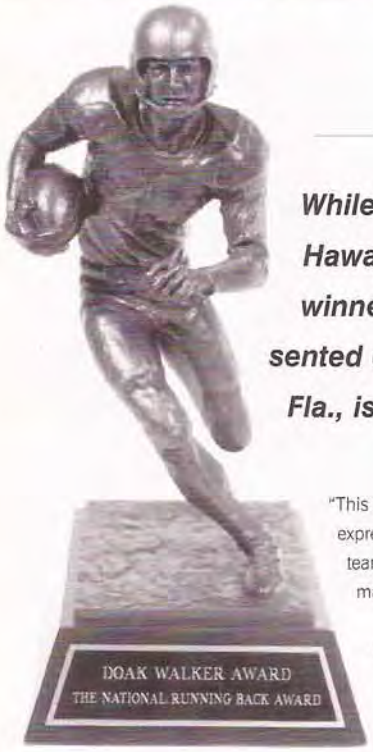
MOHAMMED ELEWONIBI • 1989

Mohammed Elewonibi, a 6-5, 290, senior from British Columbia, Canada, spent his childhood in his native Nigeria and didn't play football until after high school, at Snow Junior College. "Mount Mohammed" led BYU to a 10-3 record, a berth in the Holiday Bowl in 1989 and graded out four times with perfect pass protection as a senior.

The Outland Trophy honors the outstanding interior lineman in the nation and was first presented in 1946 by the Football Writers Association of America.

The award is named for its benefactor, Dr. John H. Outland.

Two of BYU's greatest interior linemen, Mohammed Elewonibi (top left), an offensive guard, and Jason Buck (bottom left), a defensive tackle, earned the Outland Trophy award. Elewonibi won the award in 1989 because of his outstanding protection of future Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer. In 1986, Buck, an amazing pass rusher, anchored one of BYU's strongest defensive teams ever. Both players went onto successful professional careers in the NFL.



LUKE STALEY • 2001 DOAK WALKER AWARD WINNER

While his teammates and coaches were watching in their hotel rooms from Hawaii, over 6,000 miles away, BYU running back Luke Staley was named the winner of the 2001 Doak Walker Award. The annual award, which was presented on the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show from Orlando, Fla., is presented to college football's top running back.

"This is a great honor," Staley said. "I can't express how grateful I am for my family, my teammates, my coach - everyone who made this possible."

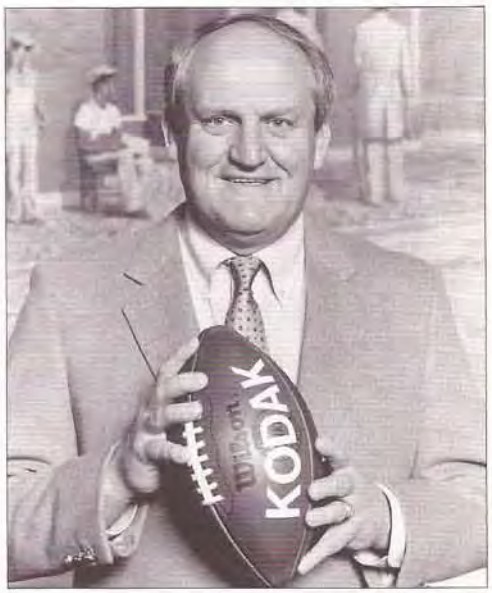
In addition to winning the Doak Walker Award, Staley was also named as a first-team member of the prestigious Walter Camp Foundation All-America Team. Staley is the first BYU consensus All-American since Ty Detmer was twice selected in 1990 and 1991. In addition to the Walter Camp Foundation All-America team, Staley was named a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, Football News and CNNSI–just to name a few.

"We're very proud of Luke and all his accomplishments," BYU head coach Gary Crowton said. "Since we started this season back in August, we have been telling these guys to work hard, stay focused and great things will happen. This award, although presented to Luke, is a tribute to the hard work and commitment each and every player and coach has made this season. Luke is probably one of the best examples we have had, in terms of working hard and staying focused. This is a great tribute for a great athlete, a great teammate and a great young man. We couldn't be more proud of him."

Staley, from Tualatin, Ore., led the nation in scoring (15.5 p/game), yards per carry (8.1 y/carry) and finished the 2001 season ranked third in the nation in rushing, averaging 143.8 yards per game. He helped pace the Cougars to a 12-2 record on the season, scoring a BYU single-season record 28 touchdowns. Staley also racked up a BYU single-season record 1,582 yards rushing on the season.

ESPN's Chris Fowler interviews an injured Luke Staley after he was awarded the 2001 Doak Walker Award at the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards show.

Legendary Cougar coach LaVell Edwards has twice been recognized as one the greatest coaches in college football. The sixth-winningest coach in NCAA football history earned the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award in 1979 and the Kodak Coach of the Year Award in 1984.



Along with his teams' successes during his coaching tenure, LaVell Edwards accumulated many personal accolades to match. Edwards' first national recognition for his coaching prowess came in 1979 when he was honored with the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award. A panel of 11 former college football coaches selected the BYU coach. On the heels of BYU's first national championship five years later, Edwards' coaching peers honored him with what he then called his greatest personal accolade, the Kodak Coach of the Year Award.

As successful as his teams were on the field, Edwards' coaching philosophy did not reflect a win-at-all-costs mentality. He didn't bark orders or rule the sideline with an iron fist. Generally, the assistant coaches were delegated the duty of handling the Xs and Os while he saw to the administrative tasks of the program. His personal demeanor also gave him the ability to relate well with his players whether teaching them about football or other more personal matters.

"Just seeing how he handles himself with the media and with people in general ... he's always genuine with them. He treats everybody well." Former BYU quarterback and current BYU athletic administrator Robbie Bosco said. "Those are the things he'll leave with me, more than winning football games."

SAMMY BAUGH TROPHY

On February 21, 1997, Steve Sarkisian became the seventh BYU quarterback in the past 22 years to win the prestigious Sammy Baugh Trophy. Presented each year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, the Sammy Baugh Award recognizes the college passer of the year. In winning, Sarkisian joined Gary Sheide (1974), Marc Wilson (1979), Jim McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983), Robbie Bosco (1984) and Ty Detmer (1991) as Cougars who have won the award. Other notables who have won the award include Bob Griese (1966), Don Strock (1972), Tommy Krammer (1976), John Elway (1982), Vinny Testaverde (1986), Steve Walsh (1988), Jeff George (1989), David Klingler (1990), Elvis Grbac (1992), Trent Dilfer (1993), Kerry Collins (1994), Danny Wuerffel (1995), Ryan Leaf (1997), Daunte Culpepper (1998), Chad Pennington (1999), Chris Weinke (2000), David Carr (2001), Kliff Kingsbury (2002), B.J. Symons (2003) and Matt Leinart. BYU has more Sammy Baugh winners than any other university in the nation.

THE DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD

In 1981, the Davey O'Brien Educational and Charitable Trust of Fort Worth, Texas, named Jim McMahon the first recipient of the annual Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award — honoring the nation's best quarterback. BYU quarterbacks have won the Davey O'Brien Award four times — more than any other school. In addition to winners McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983) and Ty Detmer (1990 & '91), Robbie Bosco finished runner-up in 1984 and Steve Sarkisian finished third in 1996. Others who have won the award include: Todd Blackledge (1982), Doug Flutie (1984), Chuck Long (1985), Vinny Testaverde (1986), Dan McPherson (1987), Troy Aikman (1988), Andre Ware (1989), Gino Torretta (1992), Charlie Ward (1993), Kerry Collins (1994), Danny Wuerffel (1995 & '96), Peyton Manning (1997), Michael Bishop (1998), Joe Hamilton (1999), Chris Weinke (2000), Eric Crouch (2001), Brad Banks (2002) and Jason White (2003 and 2004). BYU has more Davey O'Brien winners than any other university in the nation.

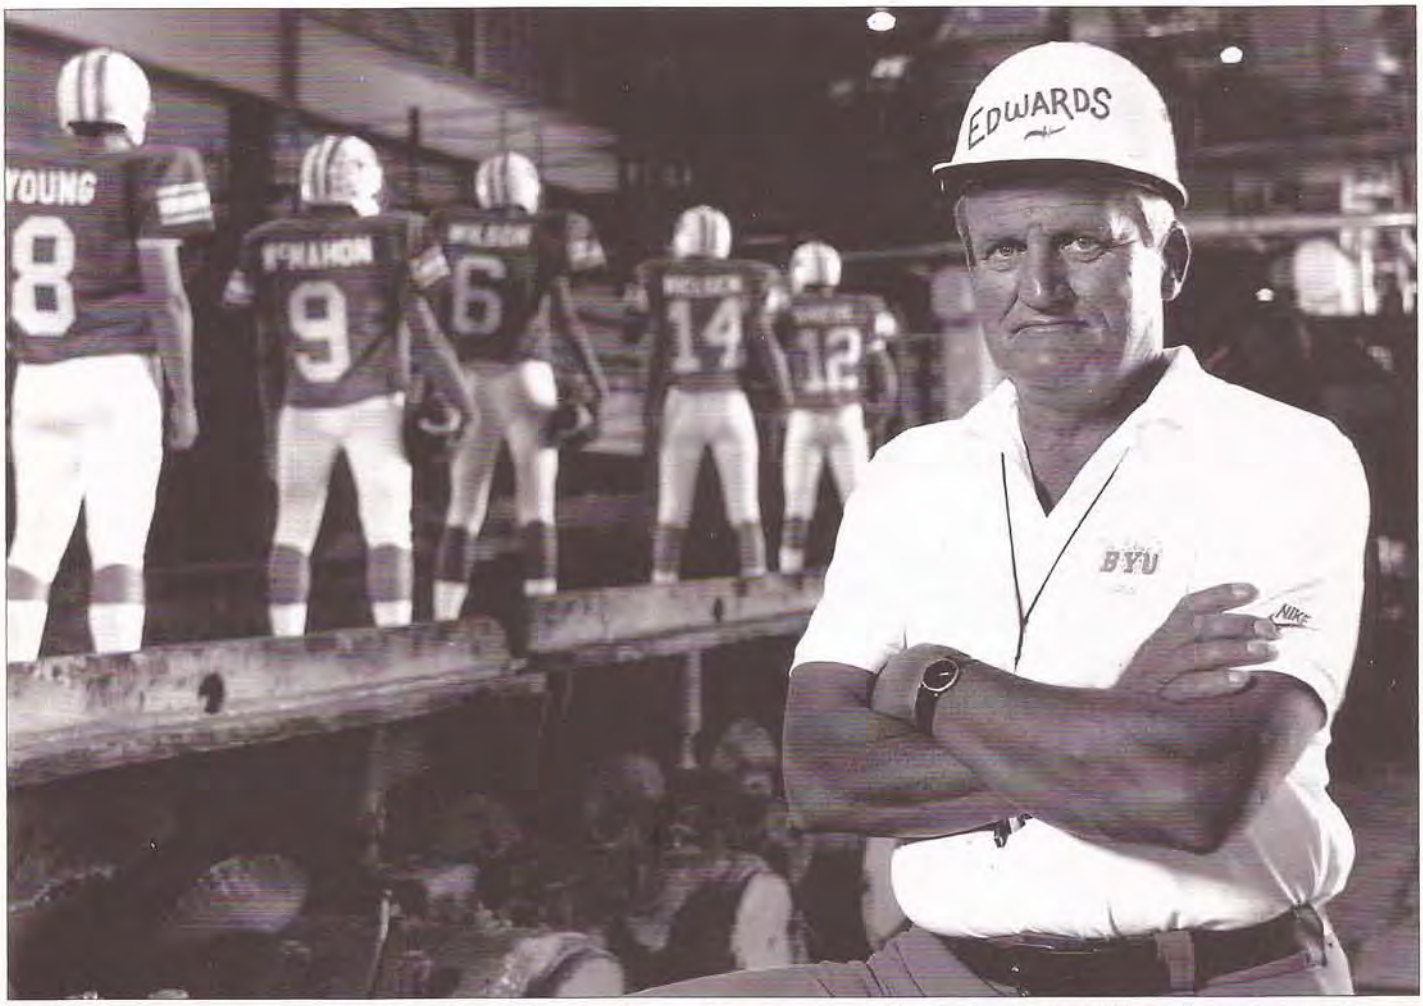
STEVE SARKISIAN SPOTLIGHT: After tutoring a Heisman Trophy winner (Carson Palmer) and winning a national championship at USC, the former Sammy Baugh Trophy winner and BYU signal caller continues to excel in the football world. In 2004 he was the quarterbacks coach for the NFL's Oakland Raiders before returning to USC as the offensive coordinator, replacing former BYU assistant Norm Chow. While at BYU, Sarkisian had a record-setting two-year (1995-96) career. Sarkisian completed 549-of-824 passes (66.6 percent) for 7,755 yards and 55 TDs in his career. As a senior in 1996, he led the nation in passing efficiency (173.6, the seventh best mark ever) as the Western Athletic Conference champion Cougars went 14-1 and won the Cotton Bowl. He was the WAC Offensive Player of the Year in 1996 and a second-team All-American. As a junior, he was All-WAC and led BYU to the WAC title. Against Fresno State that season, he set an NCAA game completion percentage record when he hit 31-of-34 passes (91.2 percent)



THE QB ASSEMBLY LINE: This publicity photo from 1984 shows Edwards with some of his prized pupils. Since then, Robbie Bosco led BYU to the National Championship, Ty Detmer won the Heisman Trophy and Steve Sarkisian led BYU to a 14 win season–the most in NCAA History.

EVER SINCE GARY SHEIDE IN 1973, BYU HAS PRODUCED AN ASSEMBLY LINE OF OUTSTANDING QUARTERBACKS IN PROVO THAT HAVE EARNED UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS IN THE MARKET OF COLLEGE AND PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL.

Volumes have been written about BYU's passing game and great quarterback tradition. BYU quarterbacks own the NCAA record books and have won the Davey O'Brien award for best quarterback in the nation four times with one runner-up and one third place finish. BYU's quarterback factory has also produced a Heisman Trophy winner in Ty Detmer and many other Heisman Trophy candidates. Quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon and Steve Young have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in recent years, and several other BYU quarterbacks will likely be added to the list. In the last 19 years, two different BYU quarterbacks (more than any other school) have led their teams to NFL championships (Jim McMahon and Steve Young).

On seven different occasions, BYU quarterbacks have finished as the NCAA total offense leaders. Three of the top five career passing efficiency leaders are from BYU. In the 29 years Edwards coached at BYU, the Cougars have led the nation in passing eight times and finished in the top five 17 times.

When Edwards was named head coach at BYU in 1972, he realized he couldn't compete initially with the big schools for the big-time athletes. So he installed a passing attack that allowed smaller, less physical-type players to win with finesse, rather than muscle.

The offense worked, and the Cougars began passing the competition. BYU became one of the first universities to use the forward pass consistently and effectively in a time when throwing the football was a mere alternative to running the ball.

The pass has been good to BYU. Prior to Edwards, the program had won a total of 171 games and had only 16 winning seasons. Since 1972, BYU has won or tied for the WAC or MWC championship 20 times, played in 23 postseason bowl games and won the national championship in 1984.

Polynesian Tradition

GO COUGARS

BYU's football program has tapped into the Pacific Islands to find players since 1951 when Harry Bray of Hilo, Hawaii\i transferred from Weber College to play for the Cougars. Other Pacific Islanders who followed included: Famika Anae (1954-55; father of current BYU Offensive Coordinator Robert Anae), John Kapele (1957-59), John Kawaa (1962-1963); John Lupoi (1967-1969) and Henry Nawahine (1964-1965). Some of BYU's most celebrated and decorated players have come from the Pacific islands, including All-Americans, national record holders and players who have gone on to compete in the NFL.

Since 1951, over 100 Polynesian players have suited up for BYU, including 23 that will don the blue and white in 2005. The Cougars' Polynesian players have come from Hawaii, Tonga, Samoa and Fiji. Some of the most notable players include Vai Sikahema, the NCAA's career leader in punt returns, All-American and eight-year NFL veteran tight end Itula Mili and BYU's second all-time rushing leader Lakei Heimuli. Six former BYU Polynesian players are currently on NFL rosters.

Of the more than 100 Polynesian players, several rank among the top statistical leaders in BYU history. Two of the top-10 career rushers are Polynesian as are two of the top-10 leaders in career receiving yards. Since 1982, nine of BYU's season-rushing leaders have been Pacific Islanders.

2002: BYU'S POLYNESIAN CONTINGENT

Tight End Tradition

Brian Billick

Gordon Hudson

Chad Lewis

Itula Mili

Although known as the Quarterback Factory, BYU signal callers wouldn't make the record books without someone on the receiving end of their throws. With BYU's tradition of wide-open offenses, the tight end position has thrived in its offensive scheme.

Tight ends have thrived in the BYU offensive system for years. Like no other school in the nation, BYU's tight ends have earned unprecedented success as a featured position in BYU's wide-open offense. Over the years, Cougar football has emerged as the home of some of the best pass-catching tight ends in NCAA history.

Starting with "Miracle Bowl" hero Clay Brown in 1980, seven BYU tight ends have earned All-American status. Since 1976, 10 Cougar tight ends have received 15 First-Team All-Conference citations. Four BYU tight ends are currently playing in the NFL. Itula Mili of the Seattle Seahawks and Chad Lewis, Pro Bowl tight end of the Philadelphia Eagles, both entered the NFL in 1997 and are starters for their respective teams. Doug Jolley (A second-round NFL pick) plays for the New York Jets while Gabriel Reid is entering his third season with the Chicago Bears. Another BYU tight end, Carlos Nuno, has been playing in NFL Europe. Two former BYU tight ends Todd Christensen and Chad Lewis have been named to several Pro Bowl teams during their successful professional careers.

Coach Bronco Mendenhall looks to continue BYU's tradition of successful tight ends as two of his tight ends have been drafted in the last three seasons. This season, the tight end position will once again play a key role in the Cougar offense with Freshman All-American Daniel Coats and sophomores Phil Niu and Jonny Harline.

ACADEMIC SPOTLIGHT: BART OATES

Oates came to BYU from Albany, Georgia in 1977, served an LDS mission to Las Vegas, Nevada, and returned to star for the Cougars from 1980-82. When Clay Brown was scrambling to make his miracle catch in the 1980 Holiday Bowl, it was Bart who was protecting Jim McMahon. As a BYU senior, he was second-team All-American behind two-time Outland Trophy winner Dave Rimington of Nebraska. It comes as no surprise that he was voted to the WAC All-Decade Team in the 1980s. Bart had a long and distinguished career with the New York Giants, helping them to Super Bowl titles in 1987 and 1991. He was named to the All-Pro Team in 1990 and 1991 and played in the Pro Bowl in 1990. A Two-time Academic All-WAC selection, he received a bachelor's degree in accounting from BYU in 1983 and began law school at BYU as an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholar. He received his law degree from Seton Hall University in 1990 and went on to practice as an attorney for the firm of Ribis, Graham & Curtin in Morristown, New Jersey.

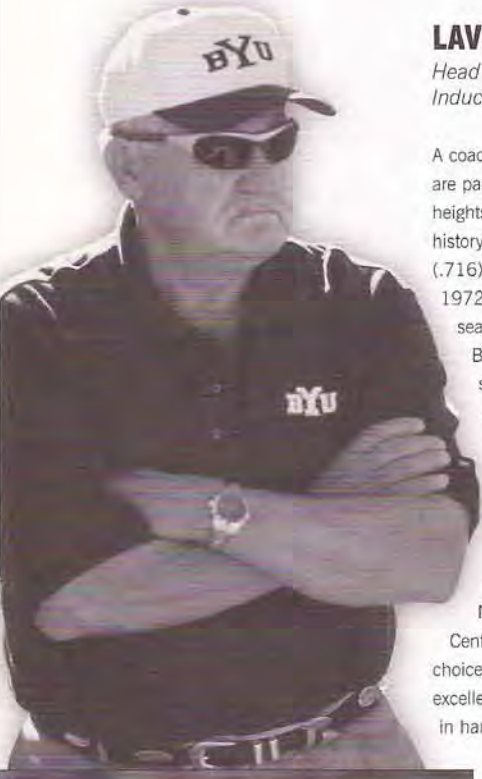
The College Football Hall of Fame, located in South Bend, Indiana has honored five of BYU's Football Greats. The fifth Cougar to be inducted into this prestigious hall is legendary BYU coach LaVell Edwards. Established in 1947 by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, Inc., the first class was inducted in 1951. In order to be eligible for the Hall of Fame, a nominated player must be out of college at least ten years and a first team All-America selection by a major selector during his career. The voting is done by a 12-member panel made up of athletic directors, conference and bowl officials and media representatives. The College Football Hall of Fame is located in South Bend, Indiana and is open year round. For more information visit http://collegefootball.org/.

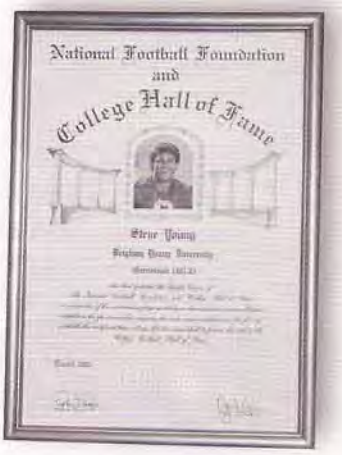


LAVELL EDWARDS

Head Coach: 1972-2000
Inducted: 2004

A coaching icon, whose success and longevity are paralleled by few, Edwards guided BYU to heights never before reached in the program's history. Edwards posted a record of 257-101-3 (.716) over a span of 29 seasons at BYU. From 1972 until his retirement following the 2000 season, Edwards roamed the sidelines at BYU--a tenure that ranks fifth all-time among coaches at one school. In 20 of those 29 seasons, the Cougars claimed the league title. Guiding BYU to 22 bowl game appearances, including a streak of 17 straight bowl appearances, Edwards reached the pinnacle of coaching success in 1984 by winning the National Championship. His 257 wins rank him sixth in NCAA Division I-A history, and he has more victories than every other coach in BYU history combined. At the helm, Edwards compiled a program best .716 win percentage, coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien award winners and 32 All-Americans–not to mention countless players who went on to professional careers in the NFL.

BYU's success didn't come without personal reward for Edwards either. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984. Named the State of Utah's Coach of the Century, Edwards is a member of the State of Utah Sports Hall of Fame. "A spectacular choice," Steve Young said. "When you think of the Hall of Fame, you think of longevity, excellence, leadership and quality. In my book, Hall of Fame and LaVell Edwards go hand in hand. He is definitely a worthy recipient of this honor."



STEVE YOUNG

Quarterback: 1982-83
Inducted: 2001

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time, Steve Young was consistently at the top of all the nation's statistical categories for quarterbacks en route to setting 13 NCAA records. As a junior, he averaged 318.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-Western Athletic Conference recognition and Conference Player-of-the-Year honors.

In his senior season, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306-of-429 pass attempts for an impressive .713 percentage and led BYU to its second straight Holiday Bowl. His .713 completion percentage, 3,902 yards passing, 4,346 yards of total offense and 33 touchdowns all led the nation. Few rival Young's career totals. He completed 592-of-907 attempts for a .653 average, threw for 7,733 yards and 56 touchdowns and his 8,817 yards of total offense in only 31 games is among college football's all-time greatest career numbers.

A unanimous All-American and academic All-WAC selection, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and received a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award in recognition for his excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community -- a tradition he maintains today with the successful Forever Young Foundation.

Young retired after 15 seasons in the NFL, where he earned two MVP awards, seven trips to the Pro Bowl and led the San Francisco 49ers to the Super Bowl Championship in 1995, earning most-valuable-player honors. Young will be inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 2005.

Hall of Fame Inductees

JIM MCMAHON

Quarterback: 1978-81
Inducted: 1998

In 1998 Jim McMahon (1977-78, 80-81) joined former BYU quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen and Marc Wilson, who were inducted into the National Football Foundation Collegiate Hall of Fame in 1994 and 1996, respectively.

McMahon set 70 NCAA records at BYU, was a 1981 First Team All-American by Kodak (Coaches), College & Pro Weekly, Associated Press, UPI, Football Writers Association of America, and second team NEA. In 1980 he earned First team All-America from the FWAA. McMahon balloted third place for the Heisman Trophy in 1981 and fifth in 1980. In 1981, he won the Davey O'Brien Trophy, the Sammy Baugh Award, the Utah Sportsman of the Year and the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year with Marcus Allen (Pigskin Club of Wash., D.C.). He led the NCAA in pass efficiency (155.0) and total offense (345.8) in 1981 as well as pass efficiency (176.9) and total offense (385.6) in 1980. He set 29 Western Athletic Conference records and was three-time WAC Player of the Year and first team all-league. He broke 23 school records, was MVP of the 1980 and 1981 Holiday Bowls and has been inducted to the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. McMahon passed for 9,536 yards, threw 84 touchdowns and completed 653 of 1,056 passes during his career at BYU.

McMahon played for the Chicago Bears from 1982-88 (1985 Super Bowl Champions, 1985 Pro QB of the Year, and Pro Bowl); San Diego Chargers in 1989; Philadelphia Eagles from 1990-92; Minnesota Vikings in 1993; Arizona Cardinals in 1994; and Green Bay Packers from 1995-96 (1997 Super Bowl Champions).

MARC WILSON

Quarterback: 1976-79
Inducted: 1996

One of the most celebrated quarterbacks in Cougar history, Marc Wilson earned consensus All-America honors in 1979 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Dec. 10, 1996. In Wilson's first game as a starter, he was 15 of 25 for 332 yards with seven touchdowns in a 63-17 triumph over Colorado State and was consequently named Sports Illustrated's Offensive Player of the Week. In Wilson's career at BYU, he set ten NCAA records. The 6-5, 204 pound quarterback ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency with a 147.1 rating in 1979. That same year, Wilson finished third in the Heisman balloting, led his team to an undefeated regular season, and was named the Holiday Bowl's Offensive MVP. A true student-athlete, Wilson was the recipient of the NCAA Top Five Award and its Post Graduate Scholarship. A first round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders, Wilson played eight seasons before finishing his career with the New England Patriots.

Presently, Wilson is a land developer in the North Seattle area. He and his wife, Colleen, live in Woodinville, Washington with their four children.

MARC WILSON
Brigham Young University
Quarterback 1977-79

Has been granted the highest honors of the National Football Hall of Fame, in recognition of his outstanding playing ability as demonstrated in intercollegiate competition his sportsmanship, integrity, character, and contribution to the sport of football this certificate bears witness that his name shall be forever honored in the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame

Elected:
January 6, 1996

GIFFORD NIELSEN

Quarterback: 1975-77
Inducted: 1994

Nicknamed the "Mormon rifle," Gifford Nielsen became BYU's first Hall of Fame inductee in 1994. His prolific passing career began when he came off the bench in the third game of his sophomore season to lead the Cougars to a 16-15 come-from-behind win by completing 10 of 12 passes.

"From that point on," Nielsen said, "everything clicked, and it's just amazing what happened." As a junior, in 1976, Nielsen really made fans sit up and notice. He passed for 3,192 yards and 29 touchdowns, set 13 WAC records and made All-American. Next season promised even more. He threw five touchdown passes against New Mexico, six against Utah State and was twice named Player of the Week. For the first time, a BYU football team was nationally ranked.

"It was like a little dream world," said Nielsen, a product of Provo High School. "The numbers were just mind-boggling. Everything you could ever dream of as a kid in Provo, Utah, was in the palm of my hand." On Oct. 8, 1977, his season and college career ended when he suffered a serious injury. He left a mark, however. Over three years Nielsen averaged an astounding 243 yards passing per game.

Nielsen played six years with the Houston Oilers and was the last quarterback to lead the Oilers to the AFC finals. He is currently a broadcaster in Houston. He and his wife Wendy have six children.

RETIRED NO. 8 JERSEY

Steve Young became the first former Cougar to have his jersey retired at LaVell Edwards Stadium on Aug. 28, 2003.

"I think it is an extremely appropriate way to honor Steve," former BYU coach LaVell Edwards said. "I can't think of anyone who is more deserving. Everyone thinks he just picked up a ball one day and, all of a sudden, became a great player. To be honest, I don't think he threw 10 drop-back passes in high school. After arriving at BYU, he had to develop the ability to take the ball from under center, drop back, make a decision and throw the football. Essentially, he started from scratch when he came to BYU."

Few rival Young's career totals. He completed 592-of-907 attempts for 7,733 yards and 56 touchdowns. He recorded five miles of total offense in only 31 games (8,817 yards), ranking as one of college football's most impressive career performances.

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time, Young was consistently at the top of all the nation's statistical categories for quarterbacks. As a junior, he averaged 318.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-WAC recognition and Conference Player-of-the-Year honors. One year later, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306-of-429 pass attempts for an amazing 71.3 completion percentage. As a senior, Young led the nation in total yards passing (3,802), total offense (4,246) and touchdowns (33).

Following his senior season, Young was selected as a consensus All-American, won the Davey O'Brien and Sammy Baugh quarterback awards, and finished second in the Heisman Trophy balloting. After graduating from BYU in 1983, Young became the first-round draft choice of the Los Angeles Express in the USFL. He later played for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers before signing with the San Francisco 49ers in 1987.

Throughout his 15-year professional career, he won three Super Bowl titles, including two as a back-up and one as a starter. He led the 49ers to a 49-26 victory over the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX with a record six touchdowns to earn Super Bowl MVP honors. When his professional career was all said and done, he left the game as the highest-rated quarterback in NFL history, two league MVP Awards (1992-1994) and was the only quarterback in the league's history to win four straight passing titles.

Steve Young's No. 8 Jersey was retired on Aug. 28, 2003. He was the first Cougar to have his name and jersey number permanently displayed on the press box at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

While two football numbers have previously been retired, (Eldon "The Phantom" Fortie [1960-62], who wore No. 40; and Marion Probert [1951-54], who wore No. 81) Young is the first BYU football player to have his jersey retired. Banners honoring Probert, who was tragically killed in 1965 and Fortie, BYU's first All-American, were unveiled later during the 2003 season.

Young's jersey, not his number, was retired. Future players may still have the option to wear No. 8. The criteria considered to retire a jersey includes the following:

- First team All-American
- Recipient of major national award
- University graduate
- Minimum 15-year waiting period
- Significant accomplishments after BYU graduation (athletics, community, church)

BYU RETIRED NUMBERS

In 1962, Eldon Fortie re-wrote the BYU record book, breaking 21 school records. Nicknamed "the Phantom" for his uncanny ability to change speeds and directions, his single game school-record of 272 yards rushing still stands today.

Fortie was BYU's first All-American, and the first Cougar player to gain national recognition. He finished 10th in the Heisman voting and was named WAC Back of the Year and Back of the Week by UPI and Sports Illustrated.

Marion Probert was one of BYU's first big-name recruits. A superior receiver, Probert was named All-Skyline conference three times and was an Honorable Mention All-American and a two-time academic All-American. After passing offers to play professionally, Probert became one of Utah's brightest physicians.

On Nov. 27, 1965, the 32-year-old surgeon was killed en route to the BYU WAC Championship game in Albuquerque when the plane he was riding on slammed into a mountainside, halfway between Salt Lake and Provo.

Since BYU's first official game in 1922, only these two numbers have been officially retired: No. 40 (Eldon Fortie) and No. 81 (Marion Probert.)

Legendary coach LaVell Edwards led BYU to a 19-15 win over Kansas State in the 1997 Cotton Bowl, BYU's first new year's day bowl game. The victory gave the Cougars their 14th win of the season and a No. 5 ranking in the final polls.

In 2000, BYU fans said goodbye to LaVell Edwards, who lifted BYU Football to new heights in his 29 years at BYU. When he departed he was the sixth winningest coach in NCAA history.

After 28 consecutive season's without a losing record, BYU endured three straight losing seasons under Gary Crowton. Crowton's former defensive coordinator, Bronco Mendenhall, enters his first season as BYU's 14th head coach. Mendenhall is determined and poised to return BYU back to its winning tradition.

GAME SUMMARY:

Competing in its first post-season bowl game ever, BYU played Western Athletic Conference host to the Oklahoma State Cowboys before a crowd of 50,878. The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheide suffered a dislocated shoulder in the last moments of the quarter. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter on a touchdown run around left end, giving Oklahoma State a 7-6 halftime advantage. OSU regained possession of the ball on the Cougars' 17-yard line after intercepting Giles, but the Cowboys were unable to convert on the turnover. A field goal from 32 yards out put the Cowboys in front 10-6 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, Oklahoma State scored another touchdown on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars outgained Oklahoma State in total yardage, 301-214. Giles was 11 of 26 for 138 yards. After three losses and a tie to open the season, the Cougars reeled off seven straight victories prior to the bowl game.

GAME SUMMARY:

Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the 31st annual Tangerine Bowl contest. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to move the Cougars to within seven at 28-21. From there, it was all Cowboys. BYU's Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 yards to Oklahoma State's 402. BYU entered the game with a 9-2 record, while Oklahoma State came in after tying for the Big 8 title. The Cowboys missed out on the Orange Bowl because of the conference tie-breaking formula. Later, the stadium was expanded and the name changed to the Florida Citrus Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

The inaugural Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young University. Despite chilly temperatures, the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle. Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. But Navy's Bob Tata boomed a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the PAT. McMahon ran another in from two yards out in the third period for a 16-3 BYU lead. Navy cut the lead to 16-10 after three quarters and then tied the game on two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 52,500 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player and BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors. Navy finished the year at 9-3, BYU at 9-4.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1979 season ended with BYU leading the nation in scoring, passing and total offense. At 11-0, the Cougars were one of the few undefeated, untied teams in the nation. Those kinds of credentials, along with its No. 9 national ranking in the UPI and AP polls made BYU the favorite over the at-large entry, Indiana. The opportunistic Hoosiers played the Cougars tough, holding a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU jumped ahead in the third quarter, 24-21, on a 13-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to Homer Jones. The Cougars fell behind, 31-24, but regained the lead at 34-31 on a 15-yard pass to Eric Lane. With 12:14 left to play, BYU padded the lead on the third field goal of the game by Brent Johnson. But midway through the fourth quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilbur returned a punt 62 yards to push the Hoosiers ahead 38-37. With 2:06 remaining, the Cougars moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10. Then, with 11 seconds left, Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have won the game. Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28 of 43 for 380 yards) and Indiana's Wilbur won the honor for defense. Clay Brown caught nine passes for 142 yards. Lane grabbed nine passes for 79 yards and also scored a rushing touchdown. Jones scored a touchdown and had 126 yards on seven kickoff returns.

THE CATCH:
Clay Brown (85) pulled down a Jim McMahon Hail Mary pass to complete one of the greatest comebacks in NCAA history.

GAME SUMMARY:

One observer said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games--a contest which lasted most of four quarters and another of four minutes duration. SMU controlled the "first game," leaving the Cougars behind 20 points with only minutes remaining. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. In the final four minutes, BYU surged to a stunning 46-45 win. For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustangs' two great running backs, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 335 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown. With the score tied, Kurt Gunther kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field. McMahon was 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever, with the Cougars getting 21 points in the final 2:33. Ironically, four passes on conversion attempts had failed before McMahon hit Phillips after the next-to-last touchdown to cut a 45-31 deficit to 45-39 and put the Cougars in a position to win the game with one more score. The 50-yard drive was set up when Todd Shell recovered a Brent Johnson on-side-kick at midfield. SMU got the ball back with 1:57 but had to punt. The kick was blocked by defensive back Bill Schoepflin and recovered by the SMU punter, Eric Kaifes, with 13 seconds left. McMahon threw one incomplete pass intended for Brown and another for Lloyd Jones before unleashing the famous pass to Brown in the end zone with no time left on the clock.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1981 edition of the Holiday Bowl fit the mold of its predecessors. This time it was the Cougars of BYU versus the Cougars of Washington State, playing before a crowd of 52,419. BYU held a 24-7 lead at halftime, then pushed the score to 31-7 as Tom Holmoe intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards to give the WAC champions a comfortable edge. As the second half progressed, it appeared BYU would be the come-from-behind victim in this one. With only 59 seconds left in the third quarter, Washington State scored to make it 31-28. But Jim McMahon took over moving BYU 82 yards for a score to stretch the lead to 38-28. Statistically, it was a typical McMahon game, 27 of 43 with no interceptions and three touchdowns. Tight end Gordon Hudson had an excellent game, collecting seven catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Dan Plater also caught a touchdown pass and Waymon Hamilton scored on the ground. Washington State quarterbacks Clete Casper and Ricky Turner completed only eight passes for 106 yards but Turner had 82 yards rushing while Don LaBomme had 79. Each team scored five touchdowns, so the difference actually came midway through the second quarter when Kurt Gunther connected on a 20-yard field goal after a BYU drive stalled on the Washington State three.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17. BYU's bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points. Tim Spencer blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put Ohio State up, 10-7. Steve Young completed 27 of 45 passes for 341 yards, but BYU had a tough time getting into the end zone. The Cougars turned the ball over to Ohio State three times inside the 30 and saw the Buckeyes convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars took the lead early in the second quarter with a seven-yard strike to Neil Balholm. But Spencer's long gallop and a blocked punt put the Buckeyes up, 17-10, at halftime. Big fullback Vaughn Broadnax scored on the opening drive of the second half, and on the next play, Young was intercepted and Spencer ran 18 yards to put Ohio State in control for good. BYU's only other score came midway through the fourth quarter when Gordon Hudson caught a 13-yard pass. Ohio State quarterback Mike Tomzak had only 132 yards passing and no touchdowns, but his fleet of running backs scored six times on the ground. Ten different BYU players caught passes, led by Hudson with seven receptions for 81 yards and Balholm with 58 yards receiving.

GAME SUMMARY:

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17. The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by quarterback Steve Young. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards and seven points in the first half, while BYU's defense allowed the Tigers only 157 yards and 10 points. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. But Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU gave the Cougars the ball on the six-yard-line with 3:57 left in the game. Led by Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left. Kyle Morrell intercepted a Missouri desperation pass at the BYU two-yard line and returned it to the 17 to seal the win.

GAME SUMMARY:

Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension--national championship luster--thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship. The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first quarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama. BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a five-yard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard drive. The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at seven. The tie was short-lived however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead at the break. Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make the Michigan lead 17-10 with 14:14 to play. The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozlowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17 with 10:51 to go. Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17. Two plays later Marv Allen intercepted a pass to clinch a 13-0 season and the Cougars' first-ever national championship. David Mills finished with 11 catches for 103 yards receiving and Smith had 10 for 88. Lakei Heimuli led BYU with 82 yards rushing while Bob Perryman had 110 for Michigan.

SCORING:

OSU – Spangler 47-yard field goal
BYU – Miles 38 yard pass from Bosco (Webster kick)
OSU – Kolic 14 pass interception (Spangelr kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

In what promised to be an offensive showdown between pass-happy BYU (11-2) and rough and tumble Ohio State (8-3), two of the nation's top defenses took center stage. In fact, the game's only touchdowns were produced by a noseguard on an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play. Buckeye kicker Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game with a 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Ohio State a 3-0 lead. BYU attempted to answer with a long drive of its own, only to come away empty after Vai Sikahema fumbled on an apparent touchdown plunge. Before the first half ended, quarterback Robbie Bosco rolled left, whirled right and found wide receiver David Miles on a 38-yard strike to give the Cougars a 7-3 halftime lead. In the second half, Ohio State noseguard Larry Kolic intercepted Bosco and took it in for a touchdown to give the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead. Leon White and Kyle Whittingham recovered fumbles but Kolic got another interception and Terry White intercepted two in the end zone to stop BYU threats—one with 3:38 to play and again with three seconds left. Ohio State was the benefactor of six Cougar turnovers, and the Buckeyes went home the victor. Mark Bellini had 89 yards receiving while Lakei Heimuli added 10 receptions for 77 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Although BYU failed to win the WAC title, the Cougars kept alive an impressive streak of nine bowl appearances in a row by being invited to the third annual Freedom Bowl. There they met familiar foe UCLA. The two teams had met in 1985 when the Bruins came from behind to win a tough game in Provo, 27-24. The Freedom Bowl, however, proved different as UCLA outstanding running back Gaston Green broke open a close game in the third quarter and the Bruins went on to win 31-10. Green finished with 266 yards on 33 carries. The first half was all defense as the two teams punted nine times in the first 30 minutes. BYU struck first when linebacker Andy Katoa recovered a UCLA fumble at the Bruin 47 and Leonard Chitty put the Cougars ahead 3-0 with a 32-yard field goal. UCLA stormed ahead to stay with a 71-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 49-yard run on a reverse by Bruin receiver Karl Dorrell. From then on, it was UCLA most of the way. Cougar quarterbacks Bob Jensen and Mike Young managed to pass for over 200 yards, but UCLA and Green did most of the damage. Costly injuries to standouts Mark Bellini and Katoa hindered the Cougar effort, but Outland Trophy winner Jason Buck turned in another strong effort.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 11th annual All-American Bowl began with temperatures in the 40s and BYU never warmed up. The Cougars' 10th consecutive bowl appearance included several records, but BYU lost 22-16 in its first-ever meeting with Virginia.

ALL-AMERICAN BOWL

Sean Covey attempted 61 passes, David Miles had 188 yards in receptions and Pat Thompson only punted once, but BYU fell short several times. Darren Handley, BYU's leading receiver, dropped a touchdown pass in the first quarter before BYU settled for a 20-yard field goal by Leonard Chitty. However, Chitty, who set a season mark for field goals (18) and consecutive PATs (29), missed from 51 and 47 yards as Virginia took a 14-3 lead into the intermission. BYU got to the Virginia two-yard-line midway through the third quarter only to have a fourth-down pass tipped away. Later, Freddie Whittingham scampered eight yards to cut the lead to 14-9 at the end of the third quarter. Virginia, led by quarterback Scott Secules, the game's MVP, made a crucial 76-yard drive to go ahead 22-9 with 11 minutes left. Then, BYU went the same distance to score on a one-yard pass to Whittingham with seven minutes remaining. But that was as close as the Cougars would get. Ironically, nine years earlier on the same date Virginia Coach George Welsh led Navy to a 23-16 win over BYU in the inaugural Holiday Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

A star was born in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl when Ty Detmer came off the bench to earn MVP honors while leading the Cougars to an upset victory over Colorado. Cool weather didn't hamper diminutive Eric Bieniemy, who rushed 33 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns. But his heroics couldn't offset Detmer's 11 for 19 and 129 yards in the second half. Scott Peterson made an interception to set up the game-winning field goal. It was an exciting contest for the 35,941 fans (49,694 tickets were sold) in attendance. A fumble at midfield led to the Buffaloes' first score, before Sean Covey found Mike Salido to tie the score. An interception in the end zone stopped a BYU drive early in the second quarter as the Cougars trailed at the half, 14-7. A Detmer to Chuck Cutler pass tied the game in the third quarter but Colorado took a 17-14 lead early in the final quarter. BYU then moved from its own four to the Buffalo 14 and tied the game with 4:11 left on a 31-yarder by Chaffetz. Three plays later, Peterson's interception and a 15-yard penalty put the ball at the Colorado 32. With 2:33 left, Chaffetz booted a 35-yarder for the victory. Halfback Matt Bellini carried eight times for 78 yards and caught four passes for 41 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Two unusual plays late in the game kept BYU from downing Penn State and offset 576 yards passing by Ty Detmer—the highest total ever in a bowl game. For his effort, and thanks to blocking from Outland Trophy winner Mohammed Elewonibi, Detmer had the rare privilege of sharing MVP honors despite playing on the losing team. BYU, which trailed 41-26 with nine and a half minutes remaining, scored twice to cut the lead to 41-39 with 2:30 to play. The Cougars went for a two-point conversion to tie the game, but Detmer's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Penn State linebacker Andre Collins and returned 102 yards for two points. Down 43-39, the Cougars, led by Bob Davis, forced the Lions to punt , giving BYU the ball on its own 12 with two minutes left. Passes to Brent Nyberg, Matt Bellini, Chris Smith and Andy Boyce moved the ball to the Penn State 38 with a minute left to play. Then, what appeared to be a sack by Penn State safety Gary Brown turned into a score for the Nittany Lions. Brown stripped the ball from Detmer at the Penn State 47 and raced 53 yards for the touchdown. Penn State finished the season ranked 14th by UPI and 15th by AP and CNN/USA Today. BYU was 18th in the UPI poll and 22nd in the others.

GAME SUMMARY:

Led by quarterback Bucky Richardson and All-America running back Darren Lewis, underdog Texas A&M was out to show it belonged among the nation's elite. The Cougars entered the game beat up. Defensive backs Tony Crutchfield and Norm Dixon weren't able to suit up and Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer was playing with a slight separation in his non-throwing shoulder. The second largest Holiday Bowl crowd ever (61,441) watched the Aggies march 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Cougars tied the score on an eight-yard Detmer-to-Chris Smith touchdown pass, but after that, the game was all Texas A&M. The Aggies went on to score 23 points in the second quarter en route to a 37-7 halftime lead. With the game out of hand, the big story was William Thomas' crunching sack that separated Detmer's throwing shoulder and put him out of the game early in the third quarter. The Aggies continued to dominate by racking up nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half. Texas A&M's Richardson would go on to be named Offensive Player of the Game by piling up 344 yards in total offense. Thomas was named the top defensive player. BYU finished the season ranked 17th by UPI, 20th by CNN/USA Today and 22nd by AP. BYU had been as high as fourth prior to its first loss.

GAME SUMMARY:

A tipped pass that was picked off in the end zone with less than 30 seconds remaining stifled BYU's hopes of knocking off seventh-ranked Iowa in the 14th annual Holiday Bowl. Ty Detmer turned in another great performance in his last appearance as a Cougar, passing for 350 yards and two touchdowns against a team that led the Big 10 in defense and sacks. Quarterback Matt Rodgers led Iowa on a 74-yard scoring march on the game's opening drive. The Hawkeyes also scored on another long drive in the second quarter. Down 13-0, BYU finally got things rolling. Starting on the BYU 22, Detmer connected on five of six passes to move the Cougars to the Iowa nine. From there, he found fullback Peter Tuipulotu for the touchdown. The PAT failed and the halftime score was 13-6. BYU opened the fourth with an 87-yard drive that culminated with a Detmer-to-Tyler Anderson touchdown from 29 yards out. Earl Kauffman connected on the PAT to tie the score at 13. Each team threatened to score late in the fourth quarter. Iowa missed a 40-yard field goal with 4:19 left. On the game's final drive the Cougars moved inside the Iowa 20 with 33 seconds left to play, but Detmer's pass to tight end Byron Rex was tipped and picked off by Hawkeye safety Carlos James in the end zone to preserve the tie. Josh Arnold of BYU earned defensive MVP honors as BYU finished the season ranked 23rd in the AP and CNN/USA Today polls. Iowa was 10th in both polls.

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas kicker Dan Eichloff booted a 48-yard field goal with 2:57 left to play, giving the Jayhawks a victory over BYU, the WAC tri-champion. Tom Young, who completed 15 of 31 passes for 262 yards in his first varsity start, was named Most Valuable Player for BYU. Tackle Dana Stubblefield, who had three of the six sacks on Young, won the honor for Kansas. Young had been pressed into action when Ryan Hancock suffered knee ligament damage against Utah in the final regular-season game. The Cougars took an early lead when Hema Heimuli scrambled 94 yards on the opening kickoff for a score. Kansas tied the game two plays later when wide receiver Matt Gay threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to tight end Rodney Harris. BYU took a 14-9 lead in the second quarter when Jamal Willis ran 29 yards for a score. Eichloff then cut the halftime score to 14-12 with a 42-yard field goal. But the kicking game would prove the downfall as the Cougars missed a 36-yard field goal in the first quarter as well as a 31-yarder and misplayed an extra point attempt in the third quarter. Young threw 10 yards to Otis Sterling for the only score of the third quarter. Kansas quarterback Chip Hilleary then tied the game by directing a 75-yard drive in a minute and a half, scoring the touchdown and then running for a two-point conversion.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars took Big 10 Co-Champion Ohio State to the wire at the 16th annual Holiday Bowl and came up just short. BYU had four downs and 32 seconds to tie or win the game from the OSU six-yard line, but four straight John Walsh passes into the end zone fell to the ground and OSU slipped away with the win. BYU got to the Ohio State six, 14, 22-yard lines in the second half without scoring. Meanwhile, Raymont Harris, OSU's senior halfback, battered the BYU defense all night long, scoring three touchdowns on his way to a record 235 yards rushing. Despite Harris' rushing, the Cougars managed to go into the halftime break tied at 21. Chad Lewis made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab in the corner of the end zone to bail the Cougars out of a fourth-and-eight situation. After Harris' short touchdown run late in the third, BYU and OSU traded possessions until late into the fourth quarter. After forcing a rare Buckeye punt, BYU got the ball back on its own 42 with 43 seconds left. On first down, Walsh hooked up with senior co-captain Eric Drage who ran away from Buckeye defenders and advanced the ball 52 yards to the OSU six-yard-line. Walsh had 389 yards and fullback Kalin Hall rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries. Tyler Anderson returned five kicks for 145 yards, including an exciting 45-yarder. Harris and Walsh shared MVP honors.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU fans celebrated the New Year early as the Cougars dominated Oklahoma and ended its five-year winning drought in bowl games. Quarterback John Walsh and the offense clicked on all cylinders and the Cougars' defense was dominating throughout the ESPN telecast. Walsh threw a seven-yard TD pass to Bryce Doman in the first quarter and had a 25-yard pass to Mike Johnston in the second quarter. A four-yard scoring pass to Johnston in the third quarter and a 28-yard touchdown pass to Doman in the fourth quarter vaulted Walsh's stats to 454 yards and four touchdowns on 31 of 45 passes with no interceptions against the Sooner defense which had held national champion Nebraska to 13 points. BYU's defense was dominating as it held Oklahoma to just 72 yards rushing and 163 yards passing—most of those in the last quarter. The Sooners did not cross midfield until their ninth possession on the second-to-last play of the third quarter. Jamal Willis caught seven passes for 103 yards and was chosen Offensive Player of the Game. Walsh was named MVP in what would be his final game at BYU. BYU finished 10th in the CNN/USA Today poll and 18th in the Associated Press poll.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU assumed the nation's longest winning streak with a come-from-behind 19-15 victory in the 61st annual Cotton Bowl. It was the first New Year's Day appearance for both 14th-ranked Kansas State and fifth-ranked BYU. More than 40,000-purple clad Kansas State supporters out-numbered the 15,000 Cougar patrons as 71,928 fans filled the Cotton Bowl. BYU got on the board first with a safety, then turned the ensuing punt into a field goal to lead 5-0 in the first quarter. The safety came when linebacker Shay Muirbrook, the game's defensive MVP, collected one of his six sacks. Kansas State took a half-time lead with a 41-yard Hail Mary pass and a successful two-point conversion with no time left on the clock. The Wildcats increased the lead to 15-5 in the third quarter when offensive co-MVP Kevin Lockett caught a 72-yard TD. Fueled by consecutive controversial interference no-calls, quarterback Steve Sarkisian engineered two fourth-quarter drives capped by touchdown passes of 32-yards to James Dye and 28-yards to K.O. Kealaluhi. Sarkisian, an offensive co-MVP, completed 21 passes to tie a Cotton Bowl record held by Roger Staubach of Navy. KSU drove the length of the field before Cougar cornerback Omarr Morgan juggled an interception from a Wildcat slant pattern at the 12 yard line to secure the game.

GAME SUMMARY:

In BYU's first ever appearance at the Liberty Bowl, the Cougars ran into tenth-ranked Tulane that entered the New Year's Eve game with a perfect season record. The Cougars struck first on an 11-yard pass from Kevin Feterik to receiver Ben Horton. Tulane would score 20 unanswered points in the first half. With just 41 seconds remaining in the half, BYU looked to put an end to the Green Wave momentum, but came up short as Feterik was sacked by Phil Henderson for a 10-yard loss to end the half. Things didn't get much better for the Cougars in the second half, as Tulane scored its third touchdown of the game on the opening drive of the half. On its next possession, the Green Wave would strike again on a 13-yard pass from King to Jamaican Dartez to give Tulane a 34-6 lead with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. On its first drive of the final period, BYU scored for the first time since the 8:49 mark in the first half on an Aaron Cupp three-yard run. Tulane answered with a six-play drive that covered 76 yards, giving the Green Wave a 41-13 lead with just over nine minutes remaining in the game. Trailing by 28 midway through the fourth quarter, BYU finally crossed the Tulane 20-yard line for the first time since the first half and went on to score 14 unanswered points before time expired. Feterik completed an 18-yard pass to Cupp, while Junior Mahe capped off the BYU scoring with a three-yard plunge into the endzone.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU squared off against Marshall in the first meeting between the two schools at the Cougars' first-ever appearance in the third annual Motor City Bowl. The Cougars scored first on a field goal by Owen Pochman with 1:58 remaining in the first quarter. That score was set up by a pair of 20-plus yard receptions by Donny Atuaia and Jonathan Pittman. In the second quarter, Marshall drove the ball down to the BYU five-yard line, but failed to convert as a 22-yard field goal attempt by Billy Malashevich missed wide to the right. On the Herd's next possession, Chad Pennington put Marshall on the board with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Doug Chapman. On BYU's ensuing drive, Feterik connected with Margin Hooks for a 67-yard pass play that took the Cougars all the way to the nine-yard line. However, the Cougars couldn't capitalize inside the red zone and Feterik suffered a collarbone injury off a blind-side corner blitz. Pochman, who had connected on 18 of 25 attempts in the regular season, missed wide left on his field goal attempt. Feterik attempted to play in the second half, but left the game midway in the third quarter when Freshman Bret Engemann took the QB controls. Just before the end of the third quarter, Marshall struck a big play when Chapman rushed 87 yards for a touchdown. Marshall was given an opportunity to score in the fourth quarter as Rogers Beckett picked off an Engemann pass and ran it back to the BYU one-yard line. Chapman, to cap off his MVP performance, scored Marshall's final touchdown. The Cougars missed a final chance to score when Brian Gray had a clear path to the end zone, but dropped a sure interception.

BYU – Payne 29-yard field goal
LOU – Branch 34-yard pass from Ragone (Smith kick)
LOU – Ghent 27-yard pass from Ragone (Smith kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars ended the 2001 season facing off against Conference USA Champion Louisville, who, like BYU, was recognized for its offensive accomplishments during the 2001 campaign. The Cardinals, led by quarterback Dave Ragone, took an early lead, scoring on a one-yard dive by Henry Miller that was set up by Zek Parker's 70-yard return of the opening kickoff. The remainder of the quarter featured tough defensive play as both teams struggled to get anything going offensively. Midway through the second quarter the Cougar offense came alive, driving to the Louisville 10-yard line before dipping into Gary Crowton's bag of tricks. Quarterback Brandon Doman dropped back and rolled right as if to pass, then turned to his left and threw the ball to Dustin Rykert on a tackle-eligible play. All 6-foot-7, 305 pounds of offensive tackle outran the Cardinal defense to the corner and rumbled 10 yards to the end zone to tie the game 7-7. Just before the half Crowton's daring play calling, which had paid off all year long, proved costly for the Cougars when a fake punt just before halftime was stuffed at the line of scrimmage and gave the Cardinals the ball at the BYU 40. Louisville just managed to take a 14-7 lead into the break, scoring with only 14 seconds left. Hoping to get back into the game in the second period, the Cougars' offense continued struggling and only managed a 29-yard field goal with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. Louisville contained the Cougar attack for the remainder of the game while reaching the end zone twice more themselves. Although Louisville went on to win 28-10, BYU's defense played one of its best games of the season, holding the Cardinals' high-powered offense to 228 yards passing and only 58 yards rushing. Despite losing to end the season, Crowton's first campaign could be called nothing short of a success as he took BYU to a 12-2 mark that opened eyes across the country and raised expectations for the future.

BYU'S NFL DRAFT FACTS 2005

- The Cougars have had 10 players selected in the first round of the draft, including eight different players who were drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft, one player selected in the first round of the USFL Draft and one player selected in the first round of the CFL Draft.
- BYU has had 61 players drafted over the past 20 years, including 31 players over the past 10 years.
- Five members of the BYU coaching staff were selected in the NFL Draft, including Lance Reynolds (1978, Pittsburgh Steelers), Robert Anae (1985, New England Patriots), Steve Kaufusi (1988, Philadelphia Eagles), Brian Mitchell (1991, Atlanta Falcons) and Brandon Doman (2002, San Francisco 49'ers.) Additionally, two BYU athletic department administrators were also selected in the NFL Draft, including Robbie Bosco (1986, Green Bay) and Tom Holmoe (1983, San Francisco).
- Over the past 20 seasons, 33 offensive players from BYU have been drafted, as well as 26 defensive players and two special teams players.
- As the 24th selection in the fourth round (125th overall), Brady Poppinga is the highest BYU draft pick since Doug Jolley (Oakland Raiders) and John Denney (Buffalo Bills) were selected in the second round of the 2002 draft.
- Brady Poppinga became only the fourth BYU player drafted by the Green Bay Packers, and the first since Ty Detmer was drafted by the Packers in 1992. Along with Detmer, Robbie Bosco (1986) and Gayland Mills (1948) were also drafted by Green Bay.
- The 2005 NFL Draft marks the first time BYU has had three players drafted since five Cougars were selected in the 2002 draft.

John Tait proved why he was a first-round draft pick and one of the NFL's best in 2003 as he helped pave way for RB Priest Holmes to set the NFL single-season TD record while totaling 1,420 rushing yards for the NFL's top scoring offense (Kansas City).

TOP OF THE CLASS: BYU's rich football tradition has bred some of the top football minds in the country. Three former BYU players and coaches are currently successful coaches in the NFL. Former BYU tight end Brian Billick led his Baltimore Ravens to the Super Bowl title in 2001 while former BYU offensive lineman Andy Reid led the resurgent Philadelphia Eagles into Super Bowl in 2004. Former BYU assistant coach under LaVell Edwards, Mike Holmgren, has also won a world championship when he led his Green Bay Packers to the 1997 Super Bowl title.

BYU's football influence also extends to other football leagues. In 2003, former BYU linebacker Todd Shell was named Arena Football's Coach of the Year. Shell is the head coach of the New York Dragons in the Arena Football League (AFL).

PRO SCOUT DAY: Every year a large contingent of NFL scouts converge on the BYU campus to get an up close look at BYU's future NFL hopefuls. Every year more than 60 NFL personnel, representing every NFL team, visit Provo. The Cougars had 11 players taken in the last four NFL drafts, while numerous other Cougars have signed free agent contracts.

TRUE BLUE COUGARS: Chris Hoke (Steelers), Ryan Denney (Bills), and Brett Keisel (Steelers) were once teammates at BYU and now they are making an impact in the NFL. Heading into 2005, 27 Cougars are on NFL rosters. Eight NFL teams have multiple Cougars on their rosters including the Philadelphia Eagles with four and the Pittsburgh Steelers with three.

Media Information

The 2005 BYU Football Media Guide has been designed to provide local, regional and national media with useful information about the BYU football program, its history and tradition. Should you require additional information, such as photographs, videotapes or additional media guides, please contact the BYU Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. We sincerely appreciate your coverage of BYU football and look forward to working with you this season.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for credentials to cover BYU football should be sent on company letterhead to: Jeff Reynolds, Associate Director; Athletic Communications; 30 SFH; Provo, UT 84602. Fax requests may be sent to (801) 422-0633.

All single-game credential requests should be received no later than one week prior to the date of the game. Requests received later than noon on the day prior to the game will not be accepted. Credentials for working media, including print and electronic (radio & television) media outlets, are restricted in accordance with BYU, Mountain West Conference and NCAA rules and guidelines. It is our intention to ensure proper, professional use is made of the space available for credentialed media.

PRESS BOX

Working press box credentials shall be issued only to accredited newspaper, radio and television reporters only. Requests from other media sources shall be evaluated on a game-by-game basis. Reporters representing newspapers with next-day editions, daily editions, national magazines, wire services, live television and radio broadcasts and television and radio stations covering for nightly news shall be given priority. Spouses, dates, children and other non-working persons will not be credentialed and are not allowed in the working media areas during the game as dictated by NCAA guidelines.

Credentials must be displayed prominently throughout the game, including pre- and post-game coverage. Pre-game interviews with players and/or coaches will not be permitted under any circumstances. Properly credentialed media representatives shall be allowed field access with four minutes remaining on the game clock. Interviews with players and/or coaches may not be conducted until the NCAA-mandated 10-minute cooling off period has expired. Individuals or organizations violating this policy may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and television reporters/camera operators on assignment. Television organizations shall be restricted to one camera operator and one reporter on the field at all times, except by prior approval from the BYU Athletic Communications office. Freelance and amateur photographers, not on assignment, are not eligible for sideline credentials, except by prior approval from the BYU Athletic Communications office.

All Mountain West Conference and NCAA rules will be enforced regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yardlines. Sideline supervisors will patrol both sidelines to make certain all rules are enforced. Individuals or organizations violating sideline policies may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium. For additional questions regarding photography guidelines, please contact University photographer Mark Philbrick at (801) 422-7322.

MEDIA SERVICES

The working media area is located on the third floor of the press box, situated on the west side of LaVell Edwards Stadium. Access to the press loge may be obtained via either the north or south elevators.

The BYU Athletic Communications staff will provide working media with game notes, season stats, depth charts, flip cards, programs, game stats, post-game quotes and media guides for both teams.

With four minutes remaining on the game clock, media are invited to take the south elevator to ground level in preparation for the post-game press conference. BYU Head Coach Bronco Mendenhall and selected players will be available in the media room following the mandatory 10-minute cooling-off period. The BYU locker room is closed to all media.

Several courtesy telephones (with campus extensions) will be available in the working area of the press box, while a limited number of phones will be available in the media room. All phones are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Phone lines can be purchased for your organization's exclusive use on a season-long basis. Collect or credit card calls can be made from each of these telephones.

The BYU press box is also equipped with high-speed internet access, including ethernet connections and wireless access.

PARKING

LaVell Edwards Stadium is located on the northwest corner of the BYU campus, just off Canyon Road (200 East) and University Parkway (1650 North) in Provo. Media parking is in Lot No. 2, immediately west of the stadium. Parking passes are required and must be obtained in advance.

INTERVIEWS

During the season, all player and coach interviews must be scheduled through Jeff Reynolds in the Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-4909. Interview requests must be made 24 hours in advance. Interviews with players and coaches may be conducted following selected practices during the week. Practices will be closed to media on Thursday and Friday prior to a Saturday game. Interview schedules will be adjusted for Thursday or Friday games. Players and coaches will not be available for interview prior to practice. Telephone interviews, for out-of-town media, can be arranged through the Athletic Communications office. Interviews with players on the day prior to the game, as well as game day, are not permitted. No player interviews will be conducted during regular class hours.

WEB SITES

To have access to athletes, coaches, practice, games, etc., Internet sites must be held to the same professional standards required of traditional media. Web site personnel must show caution, restraint and good judgment in covering potential student-athletes and the recruiting process. Proper judgment and an understanding of NCAA rules must be displayed at all times. Access will be determined on a case-by-case basis. Failure to adhere to the standards and regular media policies established by the BYU Communications office may result in the loss of privileges. Live, real-time updates will not be permitted.

SPORTS RADIO

All interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications office. The Athletic Communications office will not facilitate the broadcast of live guests during regular class hours. All interviews for sports talk radio must be conducted with players after practice or during the weekly media luncheon. Radio stations will be responsible for attending practices and for providing their own equipment (i.e. tape, digital recorders, telephones, etc). All sports talk radio stations will be issued one credential per home game.

WEEKLY MEDIA LUNCHEON

Each Wednesday, Coach Mendenhall and selected players will be available for interview purposes from noon until 1 p.m. All live electronic interviews, during the luncheon, must be arranged in advance with the Athletic Communications office. The luncheon is for credentialed media only. The weekly luncheon will be held in the new Student Athlete Building.

DISCLAIMER

The Brigham Young University Athletic Media Communications department reserves the right to revoke or deny working media credentials and/or access to any individual or organization at any time for any reason. All credentials are the property of Brigham Young University and must be surrendered upon request.

MEDIA ATTENTION

From national publications to live television broadcasts, BYU football is one of the more visible programs in the country. Since its first national television appearance in 1974, BYU has posted a 52-37-2 record while playing in front of a national audience, including a 24-16 mark on ABC and a 27-22-2 mark on ESPN. Dating back to 1980, the Cougars have appeared on national television an average of three times per season. The Cougars have played at least five games on national TV over eight different seasons, including the 2004, 2003, 2002, 2001, 2000, 1998, 1996, 1988 and 1985 seasons. Since 1980, BYU has played in at least one nationally-televised game per season. On Sept. 1, 1984, Robbie Bosco (right) led BYU to a 20-14 victory over Pitt in the first live ESPN College Football broadcast. Three out of the top 10 largest television audiences ever to watch a college football game on ESPN were BYU football games.

NATIONAL & REGIONAL TV

On February 1, 1999, ESPN, Inc., signed a seven-year contract with the Mountain West Conference, giving ESPN exclusive national television rights to football and men's basketball through the 2005-06 academic year. ESPN and partners ABC, ESPN2 and ESPN U will televise an average of 21 MWC football games per year. Last season, ESPN and ESPN2 televised five BYU football games.

LOCAL TELEVISION BROADCASTS

KSL has been televising BYU football games since 1984. Now KSL-TV has pioneered a new and unique sports production entity — SportsWest Productions. SportsWest broadcasts are produced by an award winning team and serve as the benchmark for the market and beyond.

SportsWest has an agreement with BYU for local market broadcast rights to BYU athletic events that have not been acquired by ESPN.

KSL television (Channel 5) also hosts the weekly "Bronco Mendenhall Show" every Sunday night at 11:15 p.m.

RADIO

The exclusive radio home of BYU Football and flagship of the Cougar Sports Network is 50,000-watt KSL Newsradio 1160 in Salt Lake City. The "Voice of the Cougars" is Greg Wrubell, now in his 4th season as play-by-play commentator. A BYU alum, Wrubell joined the broadcast crew in 1992 as the sideline/locker room reporter. He began calling BYU basketball games in 1996.

Joining Wrubell is game analyst and former BYU quarterback Marc Lyons. Lyons is a 23-year veteran of Cougar football broadcasts, and contributes to KSL's extensive midweek and game-day coverage.

CSTV

On August 26, 2004, College Sports Television (CSTV) and the Mountain West Conference announced a visionary partnership. The landmark agreement was the first NCAA Division I-A football and men's basketball conference wide deal for CSTV, which will begin in the fall 2006. The CSTV/MWC partnership creates a fully integrated multi-media relationship that will deliver more games to more people in more homes across more sports than any other Conference partnership.

The two entities will partner in programming, marketing and scheduling that will include a significant increase of coverage for football, men's basketball and women's sports. With new and emerging technologies, alumni and fans of each conference institution will have the opportunity to experience every sport from any geographic location whether on television, radio, the internet, wireless or video-on-demand.

On Sept. 13, 2004, CSTV and the Mountain West Conference deepened this partnership by announcing Mountain West TV, the first-ever regional sports network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference, beginning in 2006.

In addition to the unparalleled national television coverage the Mountain West will receive via College Sports TV, Mountain West TV will provide exclusive live telecasts of as many as 40 Mountain West Conference football games and up to 120 men's and women's basketball games a year. The groundbreaking venture will ensure television exposure for nearly every MWC football and men's basketball contest, and reconfirm the commitment to coverage of women's intercollegiate athletics.
